A Sudden Death.
 Miss Lina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Gardner, died at their home in Greenwood a 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, September 20, aged 22 years. She was in her usual health, ate breakfast and was sweeping the house when she fell in a convulsion. Her father was called in and she was placed in bed and it was thought the attack had passed off when he went out about his work. Soon he was called to the house again and when he reached her she was dead.

She had been an epileptic from early childhood, but her health had been unusually good recently. She was a most industrious girl and was always ready to turn her hand to any task to relieve her mother. She was dutiful and good and her death has caused great sorrow in the home in which she was a joy and delight to all.

The death was as surprising as it was sudden. The sympathy of the many friends of the family goes out to them in this their time of grief. The body was interred in the Kehukee cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. J. E. Holden conducting the service.

Assaulted in the Dark.
 Last Saturday night a colored boy named Jim Simmons attempted to steal a ride at the merry-go-round and Mr. Dickens, one of the young men in charge, took him off. Later Mr. Dickens in company with some other young men was going up the street towards the opera house. Just as he passed the corner of Riddick and Hooker's store, some one threw a brick from the alley, struck Dickens on the side of the head and knocked him down.

The assailants passed out back of Riddick and Hooker's store and were heard to run towards the cross street leading to Church street.

Soon earnest search was made for them and Jim Simmons, the boy who was taken from the merry-go-round an hour or two before was arrested under a warrant sworn out before Justice B. F. Gray.

At first he would make no confession but later confessed it all and was sent to jail to await trial.

Two other boys were with him and later they were arrested but said they had nothing to do with throwing the brick and tried to get Simmons not to do it. When he threw the brick they ran because he hid.

They were tried before Dr. A. C. Livermon Monday and bound over to court in a bond of $100.

Dr. Baker Acquitted.
 Dr. J. M. Baker who was tried last week in Tarboro for killing Dr. Bass a year and a half ago, was acquitted.

The News and Observer said: "It is learned that the jury was out a whole day. When they first went out a vote was taken. It stood: For acquittal 9; for conviction 3. On Sunday morning another vote was taken and the vote stood 11 for acquittal and one for conviction. Finally at 2 o'clock the lone juror decided to join with the eleven and a verdict of 'not guilty' was accordingly rendered."

Last Week's Storm.
 The storm which was so furious here one week ago did great damage to crops. Late corn was almost ruined. Cotton was blown badly and where the weed is rank picking will be harder. Reports from all parts of the State have given account of much loss by the wind and by floods in the streams.

$100 REWARD, $100.
 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all of its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietor has so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MARTHA ELIZABETH LASSITER.

Feb. 28th 1848—Sept. 20, 1904.

On Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 after over two months of intense suffering, sister Martha Elizabeth Lassiter passed over the river to her eternal home.

She was born in Buckingham county Va., Feb. 28th, 1848. During the civil war, her parents—John and Elizabeth Spencer—moved with her to Scotlandville, Va. There she grew to womanhood and there in 1873 was married to brother R. C. Lassiter. The first two years of their married life were spent in Winton, N. C. In 1875 they moved to Weldon, which place they made their home. They had lived short times in Roanoke Rapids and Portsmouth, Va. During last December, they moved from Portsmouth to Scotland Neck. Into their home were born two children. Both of these died in childhood. Sister Lassiter's parents are both dead. One sister survives her—Mrs. Mary Angel, McKee's Rock, Pa.

From her early years, she has been an earnest Christian and in 1878 she was baptized by Dr. Henry McDonald at Weldon and became a member of the Weldon Baptist church. Her Christian life has been one of simple child-like trust and woven in with innumerable deeds of love and kindness. Bright, happy and helpful has been her walk with God. She lived an ever growing and brightening life that to her has always been satisfying, and ere she left us it bloomed out in perfect confidence and assurance of salvation. Always so kind, so gentle, so bright, so optimistic, her life was a blessing and benediction to every one who knew her.

Obliging, sympathetic and considerate, she was a neighbor loved and appreciated by all. She saw the brightest and best of life and shared her sunshine with her friends. As a wife none could have been more faithful, careful, sympathetic, loving and congenial. Truly did these two love each other. They loved each other with the fresh, fragrant love of spring until their winter's eve. With all the sweet, happy relations that love can engender, they lived, labored and loved. Verily theirs were "two souls with but a single thought." About the smallest things of life, each consulted the other and thus they solved the problems of life. To her none was wiser than he. To him none knew better than "Sister." Cross words found no hiding place in their home and love was an ever blooming flower.

As the writer can truly testify, to be in their house was to learn a new and deeper meaning of that blessed word "home." Even to her dying moments with motherly tenderness and interest she would inquire after me when away. As if I were her own boy she shared my sorrow and my joy. Now she is gone and how shattered is the place we call home!

With wonderful strength and incomparable patience she bore her fearful suffering. The excruciating pain which for two months was wearing away her life wrung from her heart naught but praise. Never was there a complaint. God's way was her way. She was reconciled. She died in peace. Her end was like the calmness of an evening sleep. She was waiting for the summons. Through the clouds she looked to the glories of the Homeland and told us of their matchless beauty. Such patience in suffering, such peace in death were to the sad watchers a new revelation of the blessedness of the Christian's hope.

"Sleep on beloved, sleep on and take thy rest,
 Lay down thy head upon thy Saviour's breast;
 We loved thee well, but Jesus loved thee best.
 Good night, good night, good night!"
 G. T. LUMPKIN.

The remains were taken to Weldon to-day for interment. The following persons accompanied the body: Mr. Lassiter, her husband, Rev. G. T. Lumpkin, her pastor, Mrs. E. E. Hilliard, Mrs. J. E. Hancock, Misses Annie Biggs and Mary Lawrence, Mess. N. Biggs, W. S. Bennett, S. W. Morrisett and Bernard Allbrook.

Mr. Lassiter tendered thanks to friends for their assistance and sympathy.

Tell Tale Blood.
 On the day after the storm last week there was found in the rear of Lewis' saloon a small pool of blood. There were signs of some kind of a scuffle, and persons who saw it thought there must have been a severe fight.

Nothing has been learned which would warrant any conclusion as to who may have been engaged in the fight.

THE CHRISTIAN churches at Constantinople, Turkey, and Yokohama, Japan, have long used the Longman & Merritt's Paints for painting their churches.

Liberal contributions of L. & M. Paints given for such purposes wherever a church is located.

F. M. Seefeld, Harris Springs, S. C., writes, "I painted our old homestead with L. & M.'s twenty-six years ago. Not painted since; looks better than houses painted in the last four years."

W. B. Barr, Charleston, W. Va., writes, "Painted Frankenburg Block with L. & M. shows better than any buildings here have ever done; stands out as though varnished, and actual cost of paint was less than $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold."

These Celebrated Paints are sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

THE COTTON SEED OIL MILL.

Work on the cotton seed oil mill is progressing rapidly and the plant will soon be ready for business.

The capacity will be forty tons of seed per day. A modern and complete gin will be run in connection with the oil mill. It will be a "rapid-fire" concern. A farmer will carry his cotton to the gin and in fifteen minutes after his cart or wagon is driven under the suction pipes his cotton will be baled and on his wagon ready to be carried to the cotton yard. The cotton will not be handled at all except by machinery. If a farmer wishes to keep the seed of any particular bale of cotton separate, he will only have to stop his cart under the tube through which they will be "sucked" to the seed pile and let them drop in.

Every modern convenience will be in operation and the enterprise will be a pleasing addition to the business of the town, as well as a great convenience and help to the farmers of the community.

The men at the head of it—Mess. Jno. Coughenour, Hoffman, McDowell and Stuart, insure its success.

Mr. Coughenour will be on the spot to look after the work, and Mr. Stuart has had several years experience in the business.

THE COMMONWEALTH has been saying for several years that a cotton seed oil mill is one of the greatest needs of Scotland Neck, and it is now a great pleasure for us to be able to give to the public this pleasing information concerning an enterprise which this paper has advocated for a long time.

What Saved the Negro?
 Mr. Justus Everett of Martin county was in town a few days ago and related a singular incident of the storm last week. He was standing in a building not far from his well late in the afternoon while the storm was raging wildly, and seeing a colored man standing at the well within reach of some oaks, he called to him to come away. The colored man did not hear, but Mr. Everett catching his eye through the storm beckoned vehemently to come away. The colored man at once ran to Mr. Everett and had but just cleared the space where he was standing when a tree fell in the very place from which he had been called.

Now, what saved the man?
 Fast Riding and Driving.
 Some days ago a colored boy rode a horse at break-neck speed down the street to the ice house. Procuring his ice he started back up the street about the corner of Eleventh and Church streets the horse was running so fast the boy could not turn him and he swept clear across the street on to the opposite side-walk. A nut with a small child was on the side-walk at that point and barely escaped being run over.

Fast riding and fast driving are dangerous and ought to be prohibited. The boy on the horse is not the only one who has gone at imprudent gait on the streets. Occasionally there is driving on the streets that is too fast for safety.

Saved the Deer.
 Some days ago while Mr. J. B. Edwards was on his farm near Neal Station, he heard a dog running something in the woods, and passing in the direction in front of the dog some boys ran upon a deer lying in the path. They called for Mr. Edwards with his knife to cut the deer's throat. He hurried to the spot and found the deer still kicking. It had made a tremendous leap to clear the path and had struck the wire fence on the other side and had broken its neck. Mr. Edwards, to be sure he was dead, cut his throat and instructed his men to dress him.

Next day Mr. Edwards had a choice quarter of venison.

Last Opportunity.
 The Cable Company desires to announce to the people of Halifax county that their sale will be brought to a close next week on account of other territory which must be covered.

They still have on hand a few rare bargains in pianos and organs which cannot be returned to the factory.

Anyone desiring to purchase an instrument will certainly save money by calling and getting their special terms and prices this week. This is an opportunity that you may never have again at your own home, to buy direct from the factory.

SCOTLAND NECK COTTON MILLS TO BE ENLARGED.

Already the Excavations Made.

Excavations 130x40 feet have been made for enlarging the Scotland Neck Cotton Mills. The addition will be in front of the present building, running across the end from east to west. The length of the addition will be 130 feet commencing at the north-west corner of the front and running the width of the present building and extending until the 130 feet of space is covered.

The new addition will be two stories high and will be used for the general enlargement of the work. In it will be a large cloak room for the operatives and convenient offices to meet the demands of the enlarged capacity.

The grounds around the mill are being beautified, the vacant lot which was formerly a pond between the mill and the railroad having been leveled up, and other care is being taken for the improvement of the site. Mess. McDowell and Bowers, the president and secretary of the mill, have in mind to make other improvements and additions soon. Outside capital is seeking investment with them and they will soon have the plant an ideal one.

A number of machines will be placed as soon as the additions shall have been completed, and a larger number of operatives will be employed. Indeed it will soon be one of the most desirable plants of the kind in the South.

The managers are working with indomitable will and untiring energy to make it such and they will no doubt realize their ideal right soon.

THE COMMONWEALTH takes great pleasure in making these statements, for the first impulse that was ever set to work for these mills was through editorial utterances in these columns more than a dozen years ago.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.
 Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States alone since its introduction! And the demand for it is still growing! Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had un-failing success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the two greatest enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders—that it has proved itself the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over thirty-five years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints—a success that is becoming wider in its scope every day, at home and abroad, as the fame of August Flower spreads. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

Letter to W. H. Bell.
 Sir: Good yard: How we got our agent at Delhi, N. Y. Gladstone & Paine were agents for us; we mustn't tell names.

We wanted 'em.' Paine was painting his big Colonial house. Said it took 10 gallons of white for the trim.

We sent him 10 gallons and said: if you get it all on, no pay; if you have any left, return it and pay for the rest. Agreed.

He returned four gallons and took the agency. Four or five years ago. He knows now that his old paint was and is adulterated; that's why it took ten gallons to equal six of ours.

Go by the name; there is but one name to go by: Devos lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly
