because it looked too much like doubting the other man's honesty, but the other man was very busy and forgot to give him credit for the amount paid—it had to be paid again.

All the trouble, all the worry, all the unpleasantness, would have been avoided had the payment been made with a check instead of cash.

Why not place your money in this bank and pay all your bills by check? It is the safe way. Don't wait. Do it now.

"I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Grove, Mo., "also in my right and left sides, and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui I feel like a new woman and do not suffer as I did. It is the best medicine I ever took."

HEAVY SLEET.—The sleet which covered the trees and forests here last week was the heaviest seen here in years and remained longer than sleet usually remain.

A WEATHER SANDWICH.—The farmers all the winter until February were saying what fine weather, but with the coming of February we had a week of snow and sleet sandwiched, which showed up the pretty sunshine that followed to great advantage.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Some nights ago as Masters Biggs Bryan and Percy Tillery were projecting with a poker and a stick of wood Biggs was struck in the eye by the poker. It inflicted a painful wound and burn, but it was not very serious, though the escape from a serious result was narrow.

Miss Futrell's Fine Success.

Some days ago there appeared a special in the Richmond Times-Dispatch concerning Miss Elizabeth Futrell's part in a musical recital in the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston which will please her many friends and admirers in North Carolina. The special says: "One of the principal numbers on the program of a public recital given this afternoon by pupils of the New England Conservatory of Music was that of Miss Mary Elizabeth Futrell, of Scotland Neck, N. C. Miss Futrell gave Paderewski's theme and variations in a major on the piano forte, scoring a brilliant success and winning high praise from the critics present. They predict for her a bright musical future, and said that her work spoke volumes, not only for herself but for instruction at the Conservatory."

Letter to B. D. Webb

Scotland Neck, N. C.

Dear Sis: They won't fool him any more with paste paint; they'll try something else.

Editor Saulsbury, Dover Delaware, having used 35 gallons paste paint on his house, bought 35 gallons Devoe for it. He had enough left for a new stable 20 by 20 and fence, and returned four gallons.

Paste paint has as many tricks as a bunco-steerer.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Death of Mrs. Drew Braswell.

(To The Commonwealth.)

The death angels entered our home on the morning of February, 4th, 1907, and took with them our dear old grand mother, aged fifty nine years, to that sweet land of rest which remains for the good people of God. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Britt, near Tarboro, N. C., and had only been with us a few weeks when taken ill. Therefore she never went home again, until she was called to a brighter one, the one she loved so dearly and had so often talked with us about waiting to be there but hated to leave her loved ones here. Seemingly she had been prepared to go for some time and bore her sufferings patiently to the last.

She leaves six children, four girls, and two boys, and thirteen grand children to mourn her loss, but we truly hope our loss is her eternal gain.

Her remains were taken to Scotland Neck, for interment. After the funeral by Elder W. B. Strickland, her body was laid to rest in the family burying ground beside her husband who preceded her about eight years ago. She was a faithful wife, loving and devoted mother and was loved by all who knew her. But our dear Saviour loved her best, so He took her from this sinful world to the heavenly one so bright and beautiful to rest forever in the arms of Jesus.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord when one has bound the heart, 'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words, must we forever part. Dearest loved one, we have laid thee in the peaceful grave's embrace. But thy memory will be cherished, till we see thy heavenly face."

NETTIE BRITT.

Epworth News.

(Cor. to The Commonwealth.)

EPWORTH, FEB. 12, 1907. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Anderson were called to their daughter Eva's bed side at Littleton, N. C. She has pneumonia and is very sick. They had Dr. R. H. Speight to call in to see her. He was on his way to Raleigh.

Invitations have been received to the marriage of David Arnold Weeks and Miss Lucy L. Anderson, February 20, 1907, at six o'clock, Gethsemane, N. C.

Once More We Say

That we cannot carry longer those who have fallen so far behind in their subscription dues as to make it appear that they do not propose to regard our requests for a settlement. During the past eight months we have gone to much extra expense in the conduct of this paper. We have put in power to meet the demands of the work, and that was at considerable expense; we have put in new type in order to give our readers bright, clear print, and this cost heavily also. Added to these things it cost us more to run business during the year 1906 than ever before.

All these things considered we have never been in greater need of what our delinquents owe us, and we must insist that they come to our relief by settling their accounts as fast as possible. A dollar here and there may seem to those who owe them a small matter, but when many people in many directions owe many dollars it makes a great deficit in our collections.

It is strange how a man can continue to owe for his newspaper anywhere from one to three or five years, if the editor will send it that long, and then think hard of the publisher for insisting on collecting the money, or get as mad as a hornet if the paper is stopped. If you owe a merchant one year you are disappointed if he does not insist upon your paying him. Now, why not be as reasonable with the newspaper man as with the merchant?

The editor of THE COMMONWEALTH has been confined to his room more than a week, and asks that all who are in arrears will settle up. We shall soon have to drop some names from our list unless they make some payment.

Death of Mr. J. M. Brewer.

Mrs. N. B. Josey received intelligence last week that her father, Mr. J. M. Brewer, at Wake Forest, was ill. She went at once to see him. Later the news came that Mr. Brewer died Saturday morning. Mr. Josey went up Sunday. Mr. Brewer was one of the oldest men of his community, being 86 years old, and was held in high esteem by all the people of Wake county. He was a most upright, consecrated Christian gentleman, and his influence has permeated many parts of the State through the young men who have known him while students at Wake Forest.
