

Keep Your Money Circulating.

When you keep your money in your pocket, or hide it around your home, you are doing just that much to retard the industrial growth of your community--this is a detriment to you as well as others. When you keep your money in the bank it is safe, yet where it can be loaned to those who will use it for increasing and upbuilding of the business of the community--this means an increased property value in both town and country. If you want to be one of those who help build up and improve our town and surrounding country come in and start an account with us. The amount of your deposit is not so material as the fact of making a start in the right direction.

Miss Rebecca F. Purrington.

At her residence in Scotland Neck, after a short illness preceeded by poor health for some time, on Sunday, June 2, 1907, about 6 p. m., Miss Rebecca F. Purrington, in the seventy-fourth year of her age, passed through death into life to be with her Lord and Savior.

She has been a faithful and devoted member of the Episcopal church in Scotland Neck for many years. The church has had no truer friend, no one who has been a more sincere, earnest and continuous advocate of the church's precepts and practices than Miss Rebecca Purrington. She has been in all things a continuous worker for her church. She has never relaxed her efforts to do all the good she could for the advancement and welfare of her church. Of her it could be truly said, she loved her church. She was ever endeavoring to do good and to promote the truth of God as she held it and believed it. Her whole and sole wish was to do all the good she could for others and to be as nearly like her Lord and Savior as possible, striving to follow His blessed example in spirit and in truth, and to "walk in the light as He is the light," that she might "have fellowship" with all Christian people. Such was Miss Rebecca Purrington. She will be long missed in her church and in her church's work in Scotland Neck.

"In the way of righteousness is life and in the pathway thereof there is no death." So that the example and the prayers and the services of the faithful must shed abroad continuously in all directions sweet halloving influences for good that will never perish.

The burial was in old Trinity church cemetery at 4:30 p. m., June 3, 1907. A godly procession followed the remains to the grave. Beautiful hymns, such as Miss Rebecca dearly loved, were used--the 419th, "It is not death to die" and the 394th, "O Paradise! O Paradise!" These hymns were sung with voices tremulous with sorrow at the loss of our long cherished friend and sister, who has knelt and prayed and communed side by side with us at the altar of God for the last time on earth. We shall see her gentle presence no more till we meet in that land where death is not known and partings never come.

Many beautiful wreaths and lovely crosses of flowers, tributes of respect and tender affection, garnished the grave. "Flowers, these stars of earth, these golden flowers, emblems of our own great resurrection, emblems of the bright and better land." "The universal heart of man blesses flowers." Flowers wreath the cradle and the tomb.

The Marriage of Mr. Paul H. Rasberry.

The following account of the marriage of Mr. Paul H. Rasberry received at this office will be of interest to his friends in this community:

At the home of the bride's parents May 24, at 11 o'clock a. m. Mr. Paul H. Rasberry was united in marriage to Miss Ellen Whittington, of Whittington, Wilkes county, N. C. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives and intimate friends being present. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. John L. Whittington, one of Wilkes county's most progressive farmers and lumber dealers.

After dinner was served the bride and groom were conveyed to North Wilkesboro where a reception was given them by the bride's sister, Mrs. Ward.

The next morning the happy couple took an early train for Wilmington where they will make their future home.

A PRETTY HOME MARRIAGE.

Miss Helen Cotten Perry Becomes Mrs. James Kennedy Henderson.

"Marriage is the life long miracle. The self-begetting wonder, daily fresh."

At the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Josey on Tuesday morning at nine forty-five o'clock the marriage ceremony of Miss Helen Cotten Perry and Rev. James Kennedy Henderson was solemnized.

Before the appointed hour quite a number of friends assembled in the spacious parlors, which were tastefully decorated with vases of choice cut flowers and potted plants. Above the bay window was draped a canopy of white, studded with stars.

Promptly at 9:30 the home was filled with the melody of music. With Miss Annie Biggs at the piano, Miss Katherine Futrell rendered in her charming manner, with purest melody, "Thine For Life." As the last notes of the song were heard, the skillful pianist announced the appointed hour by the rendition of Mendelsohn's wedding march.

From the drawing room came the bridal party preceded by the usher, Miss Birdie Savage, attired in white. Clad in a lovely white muslin dress with valenciens trimmings came the maid of honor, Miss Helen Bruce Brinkley, of Greenville, N. C., niece of the bride. She carried handsome pink La France roses and was charmingly beautiful as entering she stood within the spacious bay window.

The groom entered with his best man, Mr. Wells Tillery, of Roanoke Rapids; following came the bride on the arm of her father, Mr. J. A. Perry, and under the canopy of pretty drapery was met by the groom. Rev. G. T. Lumpkin in a beautiful and impressive ceremony received their marriage vows. The ring ceremony was used and with this circle of gold their love was sealed.

The bride was gowned in a tailored suit of green cloth with Persian trimmings, wearing hat and gloves of harmonizing hue. She carried bride's roses.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Henderson received congratulations in the drawing room. Here also the presents were displayed.

Accompanied by a number of their friends to the station, the happy couple took the north-bound train for Lake Toxaway. Here, at the home of the groom's parents, they will spend the month of June.

The bride, daughter of J. A. Perry and the late Mary Fovle Perry is a member of one of the oldest and most distinguished families of the State, being a niece of the late Governor Fovle. She is a young woman of rare gifts, the former lady principal of Faircloth Hall at the Baptist University of Raleigh. Her charming personality, her unselfish christian spirit, together with her bright disposition, have won for her a large circle of friends throughout the State. A young woman of culture and refinement she is especially fitted for her life's work.

The groom, a graduate of Wake Forest College and a student of the Theological Seminary, is a young minister of ability, a clear thinker and an earnest speaker. He is greatly beloved by the people among whom he labors. His friends here and elsewhere congratulate him upon his fortunate and happy marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will be at home in Roanoke Rapids about July 1st.

Their many friends wish for the popular couple all the joys that come from a long and happy life together.

On Monday evening Mrs. R. C. Josey, sister of the bride, entertained the bridal party and on Friday evening Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Livermon were "At Home" in honor of the bride and a few of her special friends.

The presents were numerous and beautiful coming from friends throughout the State and elsewhere. Quite a large collection, as bedroom and dining furniture, awaits them at the groom's home in Roanoke Rapids.

The out of town guests were Mrs. John D. Perry and son, of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mr. J. A. Perry, of Greenville, Miss Helen B. Brinkley, of Greenville, Mr. W. D. Tillery, of Roanoke Rapids, Mrs. Lancaster, of Speed, Mrs. S. Justus Everett, of Williamston.

"Money Saved is Money Made"
It is an Old Saying
But Nevertheless True

EVERY day that you use a John Deere Walking Cultivator, you save the labor of one team and two men. That is saving, do you not think so? We only have a few left. Get one before they are gone. The Holland Feed Mill is another money saver. Call and see it in operation, driven by a Fairbanks-Morse Gasoline Engine. A farmer who bought a mill a few days ago said that four bushels of hominy such as the mill makes will go as far as five bushels of corn not ground. Don't forget to call on us. We will make it interesting and profitable.
