

"WHEN PEACE, LIKE A RIVER."

Circumstances Under Which Mr. Spafford Wrote the Hymn.

(Philadelphia Press.) "It is Well With My Soul" was written by H. C. Spafford, and the popular tune to which it is always sung is one of P. P. Bliss's best compositions.

Mr. Spafford was a member of the Chicago bar and an elder of the Presbyterian church.

He has been successful in his profession, but had made some unfortunate investments, and when the financial panic of 1873 seriously disturbed the business of the country Mr. Spafford found that his savings of many years had been swept away.

The members of his family were prostrated by this disastrous turn in their affairs, and he acceded to the wish of helpful friends that they should visit Europe and thus be removed for some time from scenes of his financial ruin.

Mrs. Spafford and her four children took passage on the French liner Ville du Havre, and the story of that voyage is one of the most appalling of the many calamities of the sea.

When in mid-ocean and in the blackness of a November night in 1873 the steamship collided with the Glasgow clipper Loch Earn and in twelve minutes the former went down, carrying to death 230 souls, and among them were Mr. Spafford's four daughters.

Mrs. Spafford sank with the vessel, but floated again, and was finally rescued.

The saved were taken to Havre, and from that city she sent a message to her husband in Chicago:

"Saved, but saved alone. What shall I do?"

This message of fearful import—"sufficient to drive reason from her throne"—was the first notice Mr. Spafford had that his dear ones were not as happy as when he parted with them a few days before in New York.

In his unutterable sorrow Mr. Spafford did not chant a dirge to impossible hope.

When he reflected that his property was lost in destruction's waste, that his wife was painfully prostrated, and that his four children were buried in the dark waves of the sea, there came from his heart of hearts a song of trust and resignation that has many times encircled the globe: "When peace, like a river, attendeth my way."

When sorrows, like sea billows roll: Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,

It is well, it is well with my soul."

When Mr. Spafford returned from Havre with his invalid wife he said to his friends:

"I never felt more like trusting God than I do now."

Spafford's hymn of resignation, with its fine musical setting by the lamented Bliss is one of the most helpful of the many gospel songs written during the past quarter of a century.

Sunday evening a service of song was given in one of our large city churches at which the story of "It is Well With My Soul" was told, and the lines sung with great tenderness of expression by the audience and choir.

Attending the service was a gentleman who had suffered financial reverses in the panic of 1893.

When he heard the story of Spafford's heavy affliction and joined in singing the hymn so pathetically inspired, he said to his wife on his return home from from the service:

"I will never again complain of my lot."

"If Spafford could write such a beautiful resignation hymn when he had lost all his children, and everything else save his wife and character, I ought surely to be thankful that my losses have been so light."

California.

(By Julia Boynton Green.) Sun crowned and neighbored by the wholesome sea

She sits supreme, mother and nurse and queen; And unto her the ailing run and lean

Wan cheeks upon her breast confidently, And look up into her eyes, if so there be

A reassuring smile. The babies gleam Her roses and forget to weep. Serene

The aged rest with her. The toilers flee. To her compassionate arms, and straightway find

Care can not hold against a face so kind. High hearted youth bends to her lips to wait

Her utmost message; clasps her hand to wrest Its princely gifts; and counts himself thrice blest

To own her as the Mistress of his Fate. SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING THE NATIONAL PURE FOOD AND DRUG LAW.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug Law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. E. T. Whitehead & Co.

"I see no reason," says Rev. John L. Scudder, of Jersey City, "why the face of a Christian soul should be as long as that of a horse. Personally, I intend to get all the legitimate fun out of life that I can, and I get a good deal of it."

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and expels the cold from the system as it is mildly laxative. It is guaranteed. The genuine is the yellow package. E. T. Whitehead & Co.

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION CURED.

"I suppose Stuffer still goes in for wine and dining as much as ever?" "No, he's become such a dyspeptic lately that he does all his whining after dining."

At times when you don't feel just right, when you have a bad stomach, take something right away that will assist digestion; not something that will stimulate for a time, but something that will positively do the very work that the stomach performs under ordinary and normal conditions, something that will make the food digest. To do this you must take a natural digestant like Kodol for Dyspepsia. Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of food. It is sure to afford prompt relief; it digests what you eat and is pleasant to take. Sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

Towne—He's very liberal with his good advice. Browne—Yes, but he doesn't seem to realize that that sort of liberality, like charity, should begin at home.

Pinesalve Carbolyzed acts like a poultice, draws out inflammation, and soothes. Antiseptic, healing. For chapped hands, lips, cuts, burns. Sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.

"Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee imitation ever yet produced. This, the finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoep of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee is made from pure toasted cereals, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—who might drink it for Coffee. No twenty or thirty minutes boiling. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. Howard Grocery Co.

SULLY ON THE MARKET.

Came in by the Spectacular Route, Which He Likes.

The New York Commercial describes the spectacular appearance of Sully in Wall street as follows: His re-entrance into the market was in a way spectacular—Sully likes that sort of thing—but the surprise of it all was how easily he took control and forced the market up.

Sully does not claim to be acting for himself this time. He says he has been asked to do certain things, and that he has undertaken the job. The ring said he had powerful backing, but no one knew just who was behind him, and guesses ran all the way from J. P. Morgan to the Farmers' Union. It was even said that Edwin Hawley and Frank Ray, who were operating with him when as the head of D. J. Sully & Co., he ran the cotton market were with him again. Whoever may be behind Mr. Sully, however, the fact remains that he created a great sensation in cotton yesterday, and that memories of the time when he ran cotton up over 17 cents a pound so overwhelmed the ring, that—for the moment at least—everyone was talking of "another Sully market."

No Flattery Necessary.

"You needn't begin jollyng me," said the gruff man to the man who had land to sell. "I'm not a man that can be affected by flattery. When I—"

"That's just what I said to my boss," interrupted the agent. "I told him, when he suggested your name to me, that it was a relief on a man who did not expect to be praised and flattered to his face all the time. I tell you, Mr. Grump, this city has mighty few men such as you. Nine men out of ten are simply dying to have some one tell them how great they are, but you are above such weakness. Any one can see that at a glance. I'm glad of it. It's helpful to me to meet a man who rises superior to the petty tactics of the average solicitor. It's a real and lasting benefit, and an instructive experience."

Ten minutes later, after a few more such comments on the part of the agent, the man who could not be flattered into signing the contract was asking which line his name should be written upon.

"I trust this may be read by many sufferers from Kidney and Bladder trouble," writes Mrs. Joe King, of Woodland, Tex. "I suffered four years and could find nothing to give even temporary relief. Our druggists at last induced me to try your '31 days' treatment of Bees Laxative Cough Syrup. It has cured me and money could not buy the value it has been to me. Immediately, sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co."

People do things in broad daylight to make themselves ridiculous and then blame a paper for mentioning it.

Bees Laxative Cough Syrup for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough grows in favor daily with young and old. Mothers should keep it on hand for children. It is prompt relief to cough. It is gently laxative, driving the poison and phlegm from the system. It is a simple remedy that gives immediate relief, guaranteed. Sold by E. T. Whitehead & Co.
