

A Thinking Man Said:

"SELF-HELP HAS ACCOMPLISHED ABOUT ALL THE GREAT THINGS OF THE WORLD." At no time in the past was self-help so easy as it is now—in conserving and caring for one's income the young man, the man of small means, the man of moderate means, all have equal banking privilege with the wealthy man. Why not take advantage of your privilege and start an account with us—build a competence for your old age—you can do it—try.

Beautiful Morning Marriage.

One of the prettiest marriages of the season was solemnized in the Baptist church Wednesday morning at half-past nine o'clock, when Miss Lucy House became the wife of Mr. James Andrew Cowan, of Bristol, Tenn.

The church was crowded with friends of the popular bride long before the appointed hour.

The decorations were simple yet exquisite in their simplicity, so suitable to the occasion and the hour.

The decorations were in charge of Mesdames Kate Dunn, W. H. White and J. E. Hancock.

The color scheme was well carried out in green and red. Beautiful cut flowers in all their spring glory and massive palms and ferns were used to splendid advantage forming pyramids on each side of the altar, which was crowned with an exquisite bunch of hydrangeas.

Before the arrival of the bridal party Miss Katherine Futrell sang "Thine Always."

Promptly at the appointed time the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin, old yet ever new and always beautiful. Mrs. James Allen Pittman presided at the organ with her usual grace and skill.

First came the ushers, Messrs. J. Bruce Patrell, Scarborough Hancock, Hugh Johnson and W. H. McDowell, who took their places on each side of the improvised altar. Then came the little attendants, Miss Frances White, daintily dressed in white Swiss, and Master Eugene Whitehead, handsome in a suit of white.

Then came little Miss Katherine Shields, the flower girl, and a veritable little fairy in her dress of lace over silk.

The maid of honor, Miss Estelle House, sister of the bride, entered alone. She was elegantly attired in white net over silk, wearing a picturesque hat of lace and plumes. She carried an armful of carnations and ferns.

Then entered the bride with her brother, Mr. John W. House, and the groom with the best man, Mr. Thomas Pemberton, of Bristol, Tenn., meeting at the altar, where they were made husband and wife by Rev. J. E. Hutson in a very impressive manner.

The bride was stylishly gowned in a handsome tailored suit of blue broadcloth, trimmed in Copenhagen blue, with hat, veil, gloves and purse to match. With this she wore an e-cru net blouse trimmed in cluny and Irish lace. She carried an armful of carnations and ferns.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for Richmond, where they will spend a few days going from there to Bristol, near which city they will make their home.

Many handsome presents of cut-glass, silver, china and beautiful pieces of hand work testify to the unbounded popularity of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Cowan, as Miss Lucy House, numbers her friends by the score, having been born and reared in this community. For several years she has been with Morrisett Brothers, a capable, energetic, thorough business woman. Her many friends regret that she is going so far from their midst.

Mr. Cowan comes of an old and well-known Tennessee family and is a man of fine qualities and a prosperous farmer.

They carry with them the best wishes for their future happiness.

The out of town guests present were H. E. Biggs and wife, of Raleigh, Thos. Cowan of Bristol, Mrs. Dr. H. Delaney of Bozeman, Mon., Dr. J. A. White of Hobgood, Miss Pemberton, a cousin of the groom, Dr. and Mrs. Leggett of Hobgood, Mrs. N. L. Stedman of Tillery.

Will Show Next Saturday.

Of Allen's Minstrel show which will be in Scotland Neck next Saturday the Charleston Daily Messenger says:

"Allen's Mammoth Pavilion Negro Minstrels were here Wednesday and Thursday, April 15th and 16th, inst., and gave four performances under their canvas theatre, which is equipped with all the scenic and stage effects and conveniences as used in regular theatres. The minstrels were indeed a success from start to finish.

"These minstrels have" one of the largest, strongest and best constellations of negro performers, including vocalists and comedians, before the public today. The Allen's Minstrels have the reputation of being one of the finest Negro Minstrels on record and produce a show that will make you laugh.

Their street parade is something great. The performers wear white silk hats and snow white duck suits, with fans and umbrellas. The parade here was headed by Prof. McCamon's superb brass band, this and other features making it one of the most novel parades ever seen."

TWO STRONG PROHIBITION ADDRESSES.

Dr. Zollicoffer and Mr. Jones.

Tuesday night a large audience gathered in the skating rink to hear Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer, of Weldon, and Rev. C. A. Jones, pastor of the Methodist church of Scotland Neck, discuss prohibition.

The meeting was presided over by E. E. Hilliard and the exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. J. E. Hutson.

Mr. E. E. Hilliard briefly presented Dr. Zollicoffer to the audience as a popular speaker in Scotland Neck, this making the fourth time he had appeared here during the past six months, once before on the subject of prohibition.

Dr. Zollicoffer spoke with great earnestness and effect, devoting the most of his address to answering the objections which whiskey advocates raise to prohibition, mainly that it takes away one's liberty and does not prohibit. These objections were fully and effectually answered by Dr. Zollicoffer in most masterly and convincing logic. Want of space forbids any detailed report of the address. Dr. Zollicoffer was at his best and surely all who heard his strong address must have accepted his argument.

Mr. Albion Dunn in a few well chosen remarks presented Rev. C. A. Jones, who discussed prohibition as a moral question as it relates to the school, the church and the Sabbath. He showed conclusively that there is no place for the saloon in connection with a school; that there is no place for it in connection with the church, and that the holy Sabbath is too sacred a day in which to tolerate it.

Mr. Jones spoke in his characteristic epigrammatic style and made a strong plea for a sweeping prohibition victory on May 26th. He showed by statistics the great advantage which prohibition States and territories have over those in which the saloon is a licensed institution, and called upon the manhood of this community and the State to register the doom of the liquor traffic by their ballots on May 26th.

There is no space for detailed reports. Dr. Zollicoffer and Mr. Jones delighted the great audience and their addresses will tell on election day.

At the conclusion Mr. Albion Dunn suggested that the ladies organize to furnish music, recitations and the like for succeeding prohibition meetings here.

Easter Pleasures.

The school children had quite a round of Easter pleasures. Friday night there was quite an enjoyable party at Mr. A. E. Hancock's which was attended by a large number of young girls and boys.

Monday was holiday and the children had various pleasures.

The children of the Methodist Sunday-school enjoyed an Easter egg hunt in Mrs. Bowers' grove at the Dr. Wood place. They met at the church and went in a body to the grove and all greatly enjoyed the pleasure of finding the beautiful eggs.

The children of the Episcopal Sunday-school likewise enjoyed together the pleasures of an Easter egg hunt in Mr. G. Lamb's grove.

Joyous indeed was the Easter Day to them as they happily met and mingled in search for the pretty Easter eggs.

In the afternoon Mrs. E. T. Whitehead gave a number of her little friends a joyous outing in a ride to the woods where they enjoyed the ramble in the woods, the gathering of wild flowers and the nice lunch which their good chaperone had prepared for them.

Monday night a number of young people enjoyed a most pleasant party at Mr. W. H. Josey's where pleasure filled the time until the parting hour.

READY RELIEF.

I write to say I have suffered intensely with womb trouble for several months and could get no relief from any source until a friend told me to try Dr. Hardy Manning's "Ladies' Relief," which I did and in a short time it permanently cured me. In Choosing Brick

One should be as particular as in choosing a suit of clothes.

You can get a cheap suit, but you'll wish you had bought a better grade.

But the difference in price is not so much between a gold brick and an ordinary brick.

We make a "quality" brick that can be bought at a price you would pay for average brick.

We also make a grade brick equal to that of the costly press brick—and the price is only a common-brick price.

Our brick suit every requirement for every kind of building. Sold by Jossey Hardware Co.

Pay Your Poll Tax at once.

I want to remind every voter in Halifax County, who is liable to poll tax for the year 1907, that he cannot vote in any election that may be held during this year, unless he pays his poll tax before the first day of May, 1908. The elections to be held this year are more important than usual. There will be an election of all county and state officers, and of President in the fall, and an election on Prohibition on the 26th day of May. No one who is liable for poll tax can vote in ANY OF THESE ELECTIONS, unless his poll tax is paid before the first day of May. I therefore urge every voter liable for such tax to pay the same at once, and get a receipt BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF MAY. Postponement of the matter may lose you your right to vote.

If you are not able to pay your entire tax within that time pay your poll tax anyway, and get a receipt for that.

Those who owe taxes in other counties, should write at once to the Sheriff or Tax collector there, and pay the same, and have a receipt sent you so that you will not fail to get it before the first day of May.

The tax collectors of the county are urged to see all voters, and make them pay their poll taxes before the first day of May.

Respectfully,
E. L. TRAVIS,
Chmn. Dem. Ex. Com.
