THE LORD'S DAY WEEK.

April 3rd-10th, 1910, Should be Observed as Requested.

For thirty-two years societies seeking to exalt the Lord's Day in Europe and America, have asked God's people to observe one week in April as Lord's Day week.

Because we are in the greatest crises in the history of the Sabbath in America, both in the United States and Canada, the International Federation of Sunday Rest Associations of America ask with increased emphasis that April 3rd to 10th, 1910, be observed as Lord's Day Week. The liquor and other powers of evil, knowing that if "the Sabbath be destroyed, Christianity will perish," are attacking this divine gift as never before.

In twelve or more states efforts have been made to legalize Sunday sports, mainly Sunday ball games. The wild craze for amusement which always comes on the crest of great national wealth, continues its debasing influence, notwithstanding all laws of God or man. It is planned to make this attack still more vigorous the coming year. Hence we appeal to all lovers of God and humanity to rally at once to the "help of the Lord against the mighty."

But first we must praise God for His gift of one day in seven to shut out ordinary work and worldly pleasure and let God have full possession of the inner life; for the defeat of most of the efforts to legalize Sunday sports; for the co-operation of Roman Catholic Bishops, especially in New York and Canada and all Protestant authorities in fighting Sunday sports; for the assurance of the Secretary of the Navy that he will check the Sunday ball games of the Navy; for the passage in South Dakota by a popular vote of a very strong law forbidding Sunday sports; for the hearty co-operation in Canada of the authorities of the provinces for the enforcement of the law; for the reorganization of the American Sabbath Union as the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States with plans to secure auxiliaries in every State; and for victories over Sunday lawlessness in the United States and Canada wherever there has been organized persistent effort to that end.

Will each one prayerfully ask himself the following questions:

1. Do I appreciate the value of the Lord's Day to body, mind and soul and so spend it as that its cleansing and quickening power beautifies my home, social and business life, my relations to my employees or my employer and gives me power to put down evil in my community and win the perishing Christ?
2. Do I realize the cruelty of driving many to Sunday toil in order to give others amusement on that day, in view of the soul ruin of Sunday sports and Sunday toil as proven by the reports of criminologists and others who have made a close study of this question, and all testify that Sunday sports so weaken the moral fiber of those who give even a part of the day thereto as to make them a more ready prey to temptation to other crimes?
3. Am I doing all in my power to better the Sabbath conditions in my own community?

Such careful self-examination will prepare for the effective prayer and labor.

Prayer without self-sacrificing labor according to opportunity is mockery and labor without wrestling

My Paw.

My Paw he is the bestest Paw.
A boy ever had;
He never gets too tired to romp,
Just like he was a lad;
'N' when he comes home Saddy nights
I sets up tho' 'tis late,
A waitin' for his train to come
'N' meet him at the gate.

He asks 'bout our baseball team,
Who made the finest hit,
'N' when I make the best home run,
He is so proud of it;
He says I know you'll make your mark
I knew it long ago;
We'll look on you with pride my son
You'll beat 'Ty Cobb' I know.

'N' then when I go off to school
Just think how proud he'll be,
By heart I'll learn each baseball rule,
'N' play way up in G.
'N' Paw he'll read about me then,
'N' wipe his specs inside,
Because the tears will fill his eyes,
But they'll be tears o' pride.

He'll hand the paper then to Maw,
Who never liked ball much,
'N' say read this, this is our son,
I tell you he's some Dutch,
He'll put that paper under lock,
'N' read it every day,
Savin' "he's a chip off the old block,"
I knowed he'd play that way.

Be particular to discredit the motives of public spirited men.

Lengthen your face when a stranger speaks of locating in your town.

If he wants anybody else's, interfere and discourage him.

CAUSES 95 PER CENT OF DISEASES.

Advice Concerning Stomach Troubles and How to Remedy Them.

Do not neglect indigestion which leads to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent doctor once said that ninety-five per cent of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach.

A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study, perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at our store.—The Rexall Store. E. T. Whitehead Company.

THE CARD TABLE.

Great Danger Surrounds The Social Parlor Game.

Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of the First Baptist church, Lynchburg, Va., has the following to say about the card table:

After an address in a Chicago church recently, a preacher, who had spoken of visiting Auburn, N. Y., was asked by a lady present if he would take a package to her son. On receiving an affirmative answer she brought to him a photograph of herself to be given to the son, who was in the penitentiary there. When Dr. Chapman reached Auburn, he went to the prison and asked for the young man. He was brought into the office and was given the package. Upon opening it he looked intently at the photograph for a little while and said, "Yes, that's my mother. Her hair is grayer than when I saw her last, and my conduct has no doubt helped to put the gray hairs there." Then, looking up, he asked Dr. Chapman if he was going back to Chicago. "Yes, in about ninety days," was the reply. "Then take this photograph. It was at my mother's table that I took my first drink. It was in my mother's parlor that I played my first game of cards. Drinking and gambling have put me in here for fifteen years. Take this photograph back. I don't want it."

In our children go wrong, if they are ever led from the social game on to the gambler's hell, if from the first step in sin they go into ruin and shame, it will be a great joy to us if we can say that they did so over our protest and in spite of our example. Happy will we be then, if we have taken the SAFE SIDE OF THE DOUBT.

We are many times asked by those who are seemingly good people if there is any harm in a social game of cards, and also why this particular thing should receive so many thrusts from the pulpit. "May a Christian play cards?" is a thoroughly practical question, and one for which we should have a definite and satisfactory answer. If we are Christians merely to have a so-called good time, then there might be some doubt as to the reply made. But when we hear the Saviour's statement of a Christian's purpose in life there can be but one thing for us to say and do. Hear him, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you and ordained you that ye should go and bring forth fruit and that your fruit should remain." (Jno. 15:16.) If we are to be fruit-bearers, then reasons are abundant why we may never touch a deck of cards.

Well did John Philip Quinn, the converted gambler, after a life of wretchedness and shame, when gray hairs crowned his head, and when he was beginning to realize the terrible life he had led, say, "After all these years of experience and acquaintance with all the professional gamblers in the country, I can truly say, THE PARLOR CARD TABLE IS THE KINDER-GARDEN OF THE GAMBLER'S HELL." In talking with others we have had abundant confirmation of the truth of his statement. The general opinion among gamblers seems to be that at least two-thirds of those who enter the gambling hell begin at the parlor card table. Then beware, mothers! beware, young women! for you are helping the devil drag men into that way which ends in theft and robbery and murder and jail and gallows and eternal hell, for, "Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (Gal. 6:7.)

Whose side have we taken in this matter? Surely there can be no doubt as to this question, but if there should be even a doubt where do we stand?—Rev. W. R. Cullom in Pastoral Visitor.

THE POWELL CASE.

The Motion for a Removal of the Case Refused by Judge Ward.

The case of State vs. E. E. Powell, Sr., charged with the murder of officer C. W. Dunn, was called in Halifax Superior Court Wednesday of last week. The prisoner was brought into court and arraigned on a bill of indictment for murder.

Ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock appeared for the prisoner and asked for a removal of the case to another county. Judge Ward overruled the motion and ordered the case set for to-day (Thursday, 31st.) A venire of one hundred and fifty men, to be taken from the section of the county west of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, was ordered summoned, from which to select the jury to try the case.

The case will be prosecuted by Solicitor J. H. Kerr and Mr. W. E. Daniel, of Weldon. The defense will be represented by Ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock and Ex-Judge R. W. Winston, of Raleigh, and B. S. Gay and Garland Midyette, of Jackson. It is understood that the plea of the defense will be insanity.

Those that saw Powell in the court room Wednesday say that he had changed in appearance very much since his arrest and confinement. His quarters in the jail are said to be comfortable.

At Powell's request Rev. R. A. McFarland, pastor of the Scotland Neck Baptist church, visited him in jail one day last week, but he did not have much to say to Mr. McFarland. He claims that his mind is a blank as to the shooting.
