BREEZE FROM MISSOURI-LAND.

Over in the northeast corner Missouri, Mrs. Ollie Miller, president of the first district, has evolved a new campaign idea. She called a district rally for her three counties, advertising it by both newspapers and posters. It came off at Luray, July 30th. The stand concessions more than paid all expenses, and left a nest egg besides. The picnic grounds had seating facilities and a and stand from which the speakers addressed their audiences. Men and women were there from a dozen towns or more. Five ministers had a part on the program. A W. C. T. representative made the principal address. All the speeches were to the point, and each helped to em- be communicable, curable, and prephasive every other. Two lads in their teens, Kelly Beach, of Arbela, and Master Woods, of Granger, gave fine orations. Luray's young ladies had a hoop drill, and Granger's L. T.
