HARRELL-MORRIS NUPTIAL.

Miss Emma Morris Becomes the Bride of Mr. R. Deans Harrell.

The marriage of Miss Emma Morris to Mr. R. Deans Harrell, which occurred last Wednesday morning, as we were at press, was the second to be solemnized in our new Baptist edifice.

Master E. Lysle Gatling acted as "Knight," and little Miss Alice Warren Morris was "ring bearer."

The ushers were Messrs. J. L. Stokes, Claude Pierce, J. L. Hayes, and Ray Boyette, of Scotland Neck.

Miss Willie Perkins Mizell beautifully rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march; and Miss Mamie Powell, of Boston, sweetly sang Schubert's Serenade.

The bride, who was gowned in a travelling suit of grey, carrying bride roses, is the eldest daughter of our townsman, T. W. Morris, and is one of our towns most popular and most lovable young women.

Mr. Harrell is a native of Northampton county, and was at one time a trusted employee of Baker & Edwards, of Lewiston.

Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Q. C. Davis, the happy couple left on the early train for a tour through several of our northern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrell will be at home in Scotland Neck, after July 10th.

On Tuesday night prior to the marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Geo. Mizell tendered the bridal party a most delightful reception, and among the visitors present was Miss Mary Harrell, of Woodland.

Fire at Motion Picture Show.

What threatened to be a serious conflagration Wednesday night of last week was narrowly averted by the prompt action of those present at the Selwyn Theatre at Madry's opera house.

Upon the alarm being given the people rushed after buckets and soon had the blaze extinguished, but not before the picture machine was badly damaged.

Besides the lost of the four reels of films the damage was slight, not being over $25 to Messrs. Bland and Allsbrook, and probably $50 to the opera house, which is insured, but Mr. Madry not having a special permit for the picture show, we are informed, his insurance is void.

Makes Bail.

On Monday afternoon Chief of Police, J. C. Tucker and Constable R. W. Hudson made a raid on a building in the rear of the colored Episcopal church on the south side of the river and caught nine playing cards and shooting craps.

Before her marriage she was Miss Bessie Moore, daughter of J. G. and Ella Merritt Moore.

On Sunday, July 2, 1911, the whole community was shocked and grieved when news was received of the death of Mrs. W. B. Marks at her home in Jamesville.

Her remains were brought to Scotland Neck Monday morning and laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery.

Gasoline Engines! Seven years ago we sold THE FIRST GASOLINE ENGINE that was ever sold by a dealer in this section. It was a FOOS ENGINE and was sold to Mr. Tom Staten. That engine has BEEN RUN EVERY FALL SINCE, and is AS GOOD TO-DAY AS WHEN NEW, so say the Staten boys. We sold several FOOS ENGINES that same Fall, and they are all in perfect condition. For the last six years, in the attempt to sell "something just as good for less money," we have sold several other makes of Gasoline Engines, but have found that the FOOS gives better service and gives far less trouble than others, so we have gone back to "our first love" and are prepared to offer you a FOOS GASOLINE ENGINE in any size you wish. Let us have your order if you want a GOOD GASOLINE ENGINE that you can run without having to send for an expert every week or oftener. COTTON GINS. The same Fall that we sold that first FOOS Gasoline Engine we introduced the LUMMUS COTTON GIN IN THIS SECTION, and since that time there has been hardly any other make of gin sold in this entire section, because THE LUMMUS proved to be as near perfection in cotton ginning machinery as was possible. Be sure to get a LUMMUS if you buy a cotton gin this Fall. The LUMMUS is noted for easy running, clean and fast work, and for durability. Josey Hardware Company, Pioneer Hardware Dealers, Scotland Neck, North Carolina.

LOCAL NEWS.

Hems Gathered From the Town and Country.

Work is progressing very nicely on the graded school building.

The County Commissioners were in session at Halifax Monday as an equalization board.

The hot, dry weather the past few days has been very damaging to crops. Light showers have fallen in different sections but a general rain is needed.

Gov. Kitchin has appointed Thomas Shields, of Scotland Neck a delegate to The Negro National Education Congress to be held in Denver, Colorado, August 12th to 15th inclusive.

The good news comes that Mrs. C. L. McDowell and Mr. Sam Hoffman, who are at the Sarah Leigh Hospital, Norfolk, Va., are improving and they hope to return home in a short while.

There was a heated contest waged in this county over the office of County Superintendent of Schools. It began Monday morning and lasted all day and was ended Tuesday morning when Mr. W. L. Vaughan, the present incumbent, was re-elected for the term of two years.

Dr. J. E. Shields, tax assessor, tells us that the net increase of tax valuation for Scotland Neck township will be about $260,000. The average value for land outside of the town is $12.00 per acre. For Weldon township it is $13.00 and Roanoke Rapids $15.00 per acre.

We have lately received the catalogue of the A. & M. College at Raleigh. This technical institution is doing a most valuable work for our State. Men trained there are certainly making good as farmers, as engineers, as textile workers, indeed in all forms of skilled enterprise.

Young men who want to enter life equipped for success in all industrial occupations will do well to consider the A. & M. Last year 630 students were enrolled—its faculty this year will include 51 teachers.

Death of Dr. J. B. Hall.

Dr. James B. Hall died at his home near Scotland Neck Monday night, July 10th, aged about 70 years. The interment took place in the Episcopal cemetery Tuesday afternoon, the funeral service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Brown, of Tarboro.

Dr. Hall was well known to the people of this community, where for many years he was a prominent and successful physician. Failing health forced him to give up his practice and the past several years he has been an invalid.

Dr. Hall leaves two sons, one sister and one brother, and many relatives, among them some of the most prominent families throughout the State.

The Commonwealth extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.
