The Hookworm Disease.—What it is and How You May Tell if You Have It.

HISTORY.
This disease is one of the most ancient in medical history. Moses no doubt knew of it, for while the Israelites were encamped in the Wilderness he enforced certain sanitary laws that, were they enforced to-day, they would not only prevent the spread of this disease, but Typhoid and Cholera as well. In fact, there has been discovered in Thebes, Egypt, a medical book, the oldest on record, written one hundred years before the birth of Moses, and in this book the Hookworm disease is described.

It has not been but a few years since it was first discovered, and found to be so prevalent, in America. Before this it was thought that large number of weak, pale and delicate people were so because of inherited physical defects and could not be cured.
Now, however, this has been proven not to be the case, that most of these people are so owing to the Hookworm infection and can not only be cured but restored to health in a remarkably short time.

PREVALENCE.
About one-third of the people, all classes, old and young, have this disease.

DISTRIBUTION.
Found chiefly in warm climates where the heat, sunlight and oxygen produces the most ideal condition to hatch the eggs of the worms as they are deposited in the soil by those suffering from the disease. Cold kills them.

MODE OF ENTRANCE INTO THE BODY.
About 90 per cent of the cases begin as ground-itch, dew-itch or toe-itch as it is variously called. The worm burrows through the skin on the foot, and in doing so sets up an inflammation on the foot that gives rise to this condition. After penetrating the skin on the foot they get into the blood stream and are carried around to the upper part of the intestines, just below the stomach, which is their feeding grounds. Here they attach themselves to the lining of the intestines, like in Illustration No. 3, and begin to suck the life blood of the individual away.

About 10 per cent of the cases get into the blood through contaminated drinking water, or by eating lettuce, strawberries or water cress that has been improperly washed.

SYMPTOMS.
The majority of those who have had the infection but a short while have hardly any noticeable symptoms. They constantly feel tired; get up in the morning about as tired as on retiring the night before; get out of breath easily, and often suffer from stomach troubles. Other, more severe cases, have a pale complexion, hair and skin dry, palpitation of the heart, and sometimes swelling of the eyelids and ankles. Of course, modification in these symptoms in many degrees may be seen.

METHODS OF DIAGNOSING THE DIS-EASE.

Three methods: First, by the symptoms present; second, by microscopic examination of the excreta in order to determine the presence of the eggs; third, by the benefit received from the treatments.

TREATMENT.
This will absolutely cure every case; is simple and in no way injurious to take.

REMEMBER TO COME.

Everybody should come to these dispensaries. The satisfaction in finding out that you haven't this disease will fully repay you for the visit to the dispensaries.

EXPERIENCE OF A LAYMAN WITH HOOKWORM DISEASE.
Dr. John A. Ferrell, Assistant Secretary for Hookworm Disease, Raleigh, N. C.
Dear Doctor:—Understanding that you are collecting a few testimonials concerning the results effected by curing hookworm disease, if my personal experience with the disease will be worth anything, I shall be glad for you to use it in the humanitarian cause.

As a youth I was pale, anemic, and, generally speaking, was in poor health, never able to accomplish much work.
As time went on, perhaps on account of my weakened condition, I became ruptured, and went to a hospital for an operation. My blood was so weak that I could not stand the operation. An examination was made which showed that I was suffering with a severe case of hookworm disease. I was treated then and at once I began to improve.
In the space of two weeks I was so much improved that I was able to take the operation. I then began to develop, and within two years gained sixty-five pounds. I have since graduated at the University of North Carolina, played football on the 1908 class team, represented Carolina in an intercollegiate debate, and am now strong and healthy and weigh 165 pounds. A cure will transform a man. I therefore urge our weak-blooded men, women and children to be examined and treated. PATRIC M. WILLIAMS, Burgaw, N. C., September 20, 1910.

VICTIM OF HOOKWORM DISEASE DESCRIBES HIS FEELINGS.
"I feel tired all the time almost, and get tired very easily, and have little or no energy. My spirits are low almost all the time. I feel full after eating. My memory is poor.
I feel that I am getting weaker. I have a disgust for fatty foods. I prefer being alone rather than to be in the company of others. I have no desire even to converse tete-a-tete with the ladies. After taking a walk I feel broken down and tired all over, feel more like lying down than anything else. It tires me very much to stand any length of time. In the morning when getting up I feel tired and broken down also. Under these conditions I am not able to do ing from a severe case of hook-worm infection. Growth ach trouble; gets out of breath easily.

justice to my work."

[The patient describing his symptoms above is a male, age 19, and weighed 145 pounds. He was raised on a farm, had a ravenous appetite, was restless at night and often dreamed. He had had three or four attacks of ground-itch, one of them lasting eight months.—W.
S. R.]

Letter from L. C., age 19, student: "I am aware that I am infected. Have spent many dollars doctoring, not knowing what my trouble was. Will consider it a great blessing if you will send directions for treatment."

Punishing The Farmers.

The name of the proposed trade agreement with Canada, called by its advocates, "A Reciprocity Treaty," should be changed to "An Agreement to Punish American Farmers for Voting the Democratic Ticket."

For years the strength of the Democratic party in the North and central West has been in the cities where the cost of living is said to be high, while the Republican vote has been in the country. The Democrats have been carrying such large cities as New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Baltimore and Boston, while the Republicans carried the rural districts in the States in which those cities are situated.

In the elections last fall the farmers in large numbers who had heretofore voted the Republican ticket, either remained at home on election day or voted the Democratic ticket.
We have not the room to print a discussion of the cause which led the farmers to give the Democrats control of the lower house of Congress and almost control of the Senate.

The Democratic party has always stood for equal rights for all and special privileges to none, yet in Congress we find a number of Democrats who are advocating this Republican measure to punish the farmers for voting the Democratic ticket last fall. A large majority of the farmers of the South have been voting the Democratic ticket ever since reconstruction days, but if they are to be punished along with the Northern and Western farmers there is no telling what they may do in the future.

This paper is published on a farm, and is owned, edited and published by a farmer, and it claims the farmer has not received too much for the products of the farm. The city papers tell us that the adoption of the trade agreement will not cause the farmer to receive less for what he has to sell, and in the same breath advocate the ratification of the treaty in order to lower the price of farm products and reduce the cost of living.—Rich Square Times.

Keep Watch on Both.

"Does prohibition prohibit? I refer to the law prohibiting burglary.
It seems impossible to stop burglars.
Shall we license them so as to at least get some revenue out of what we can't prevent?" A correspondent has this to say in the Wilmington Star. The communication is short, but full of sound logic. The law against selling liquor and the law against burglary are both violated. There is no man living that would say repeal the law against burglary, and yet there is as much sense in repealing that as in repealing the law that says no whiskey can be sold within the State. And it is just as much an officer's business to run down blind tigers as it is to run down burglars.—Rowland Sun.

Happiest Girl in Lincoln.

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and get better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." For sale by all dealers.

Even a homely girl doesn't want to be described in plain language.

Operation Thought Sure.

Ferris, Tex.—In a letter from this place, Mary Kilman, says: "I was confined to my bed for three months, with womanly troubles, and during this time suffered untold agony. The doctor said an operation was inevitable. I tried Cardui. Now I am well, and able to do a great part of my work." Thousands of ladies have testified to the benefit obtained from Cardui, the woman's tonic. It prevents unnecessary womanly pains and builds up womanly strength. It is a true tonic. It will help you.

"I had been given up to die by three of our best doctors,

I could not stand it to be on my feet and I was so swelled in the abdomen I could hardly breathe.
But thanks to Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nerve I am able to be about the streets, a walking advertisement of the curative qualities of your remedies, although I am 70 years old."
JOHN R. COCHRAN,
Lewistown, Ill.

Better than any statement we could make regarding the value of Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

are these words of Mr. Cochran.
He speaks from experience, the highest possible source of knowledge. If you have any of the signs of a weak heart, such as pain in the left shoulder or arm, fainting and hungry spells, shortness of breath, smothering spells, fluttering or palpitation of the heart, you need
