> Reported for The Commonwealth. Never in our modern history have we witnessed or experienced a more delightful time than we did on Friday, June 14, 1912, at Miss Kate Joyner's school. We were invited to attend the closing exercises of her school, and in spite of the rain had the best time that an entertaining teacher could give. Miss Joyner has the cultured ability to make everything just as pleasant and entertaining as possible. We think that she made every friend proud of his or her attendance at the pic-nic. We will never forget the kind entertainment she gave us. There was a fine attendance, Halifax, Edgecombe and Martin counties being well represented, especially Halifax. Nothing but pleasure was on the minds of any.

Just about 12 o'clock Mr. Bob Joyner, a former teacher of some of the attendants, made a fine speech as an introductory of Mr. Ashby Dunn, the speaker of the hour. Mr. Dunn rose to his feet with as much grace and dignity as the great immortal Vance, and gave thanks to Mr. Joyner for the kind words he had spoken in his behalf. Mr. Dunn spoke on the great theme of Education with much force and effect. He held the closest attention of his audience for about fifty minutes. We are bound to give Mr. Dunn the praise as one of the best speakers we have ever had at our pic-nics.

After we were through with the hearty congratulations to the speaker, we began to realize that some of the fairer sex had seen fit to bring along with them some of the dainties and luxuries of life, which we were proud to take an active part in their consumption. While there were scores of people there that were so hungry at the irregular hour for to them that are called according to dinner, it was almost impossible for them to govern their manly training until we could have a blessing from
