Pic-Niced at White's Mill.

A merry party of the younger set pic-niced at White's Mill, Scotland Neck's famous resort, Wednesday of last week, under command of Charlie Elliott Steptoe (the only "step") as master of ceremonies. They had a gay time from early morn until late in the afternoon, when the storm forced them to break camp and return home.

It was a great occasion, and the bountiful dinner prepared by the young ladies attending was more than tempting, and was served in the most genuinely pic-nic style.

The "master" was ably assisted by Mrs. Percy Johnson and Misses Mary White, Helen Hilliard and Hattie Leggett as chaperones.

Brinkley-Parks.

Mr. C. W. Brinkley and Miss Mary Parks, both of Tillery, came to Scotland Neck on the 4:38 train Sunday afternoon and went at once to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gay, where they were united in marriage, Rev. N. C. Yearby, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

We extend congratulations and best wishes for a long and prosperous married life.

Rev. Albert New to Preach.

Rev. Albert New, of Weldon, will conduct services at Trinity church Sunday morning and evening. The public is cordially invited to attend both services and hear Mr. New preach.

COMING NEXT WEEK.

Original James Adams' Show, Now Known as the G. F. Haraden Show.

We are informed by Mr. Haraden that since the show has become solely under his management, he has spared neither pains nor money to make it the biggest and best attraction of today showing at popular prices. The company is larger and better than ever, carrying 2 cars and 30 people, all stars in his or her respective line. Some of the best talents obtainable are now carried with this company, some of the old favorites retained and numerous new ones. An array such as has never before been carried by an attraction of this kind.

The Martyn sisters, Nora and Dottie, the clever singing and dancing team that has received applause in some of the largest theatres of this country and abroad. Miss Dottie also plays many leading parts during the week and does so in a manner that meets the approval of every one. Miss Mayme Carlos as character lady is far beyond the ordinary and comes in for prominent mention rendering some very pleasing balads and international dances. Ollie Hamilton portraying the Jakeas usual is exceptionally clever, as Jake he is the best ever, to see him is to laugh.

The Rivards performance on the rolling globe, a death defying, soul thrilling, and hair raising feat is marvelous. After many difficult feats the act is brought to a close by rolling a solid ball up and down an incline stairway while standing upright on the ball. During the week the Revards will also be seen on the revolving ladder, trapeze, mysterious cabinet and others too numerous to mention. Mr. K. P. Carlos in feats of strength and balancing heavy weights, also a correct imitation of the old time darkey, Uncle Remus, before the war, and others equally as pleasing as the above. The Company carries a concert band under the leadership of Prof. Carl Neel, also Orchestra under the direction of Prof. Sheigart. Popular and classical selections rendered during the program, not a slow moment. Order and highest standard of morality is the motto of this company. Change of program each night, seats for all, one matinee Saturday afternoon. Admission at night to all 10 cents, matinee, children, 5 and 10 cents.

This show will be in Scotland Neck one week, beginning Monday night, July 1st.

A Delightful Social Event.

(Reported for The Commonwealth.) The most delightful of the summer's social events was the June Party given by the San Souci Club last Thursday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Coleman in North Clarksville. The joy seekers began to pour in about nine o'clock and by ten the entire throng was seated around Rook tables where they found entertainment in the popular game until Professor Sook Jones drove up with his orchestra. The tables were then pushed aside and the "light fantastic was trod" till the refreshments were served, which consisted of dainty nuts, and bricks of cream, which carried out the color scheme of the club, old gold and purple.

After the refreshments each young swain betook himself and his prospective better-half to some remote corner, where only the "Old Moon" looked on and listened to the sweet nothings, that were doubtless being whispered into the eager ears of Gwendolyn, Madge, Ruth, and the rest of those adorable daughters of Eve present.

The hour of twelve came only too soon, for there were many who would have been tickled to remain in the shadows of this hospitable home till "Chanticleer," with his shrill "cuckoo," pierced the stillness of the cold gray dawn.

It was with the greatest of reluctance that each couple departed, but even in this, they found pleasure in unanimously declaring their hostess one to be long remembered in the royal reception which she tendered to each individual present.

Those present were: Charlie Steptoe with Miss Dorothy Pierce, of York City, Mills Kitchin with Miss Gwendolyn Grasstalk, of Paducah, Ky., S. B. Kitchin, Jr., with Miss Louise Darden, Gavin Hyman with Miss Lucile Kitchin, Henry Hilliard with Mrs. Gertrude Kitchin, Herman Bryan with Miss Minnie Mills, of Wake Forest, Jack Riddick with Miss Katherine Kitchin, Norfleet McDowell with Miss Jennie Dunn, Clarence Parks with Miss Hilda Hancock, Willie Dunn with Miss Lu- cile Leggett, Claiborne Smith with Miss Ruth Sloane, Joe Riddick with Miss Ruth Sloane, of Miami, Fla., Allison McDowell with Miss Madge Poindexter, of Seneca, N. Y., Hubert Riddick with Miss Sue Dunn, John Edwards with Miss Missoura Purvis, Marvin Hardy with Miss Lillian Harrell, Hinton Dunn with Miss Dorothy Dunn, John Josey with Miss Ruby Darden, Roland James with Miss Lydia Josey, David Bryant with Miss Elizabeth Brewer, of Danville, Va., Alwyn Darden with Miss Elsie French, of Topeka, Cal.
