

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had had spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 3 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

THE LITTLE BOY.

My little boy, the way is long That thou shalt have to go;
God grant you may be brave and strong.

To do your part, to show What'er may be the goal you seek,
Whatever the height you gain, Consideration for the weak
And those who strive in vain.

My little boy, Ambition's call Will oft be sweet to you;
God grant you strength to turn
From all

That wicked men pursue,
To let no gain come to your hand
If blood must be the price,
To spurn the profits that demand Another's sacrifice.

My little boy, with all to learn And laughing still at play, God give you manliness to spurn
What honor thrusts away.

To keep you free from guile and greed, Where'er your course may lie,
To do the brave, heroic deed, Though, doing it, you die.

—S. E. Kiser, in the Chicago Record-Herald.

Europe's Vast Armed Force.
It would take nine and a half days for the armies of Europe to pass a given point, marching five abreast, 15 feet apart, at an eight-mile gait.

It is now well known that not more than one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment whatever. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment and massaging the parts at each application. Try it and see how quickly it will relieve the pain and soreness. Sold by all dealers.

Scotland Neck, N. C., says: "I willingly verify my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills given in January 1908. This remedy benefitted me greatly when I was suffering from kidney complaint. Since then I have used Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and they have always brought the best of results."

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

I feel great love for Independence Day.

I like the noise, the tumult and the roar;

In sooth, these things are what the Fourth is for.

What if an eye is damaged, by the way?

What if the small boy saunters forth to slay

And comes back home with cuts and wounds galore?

What matters if one scar the less or more.

One doctor's bill the more or less to pay?

Indeed, upon the Glorious Fourth I do;

It makes me happy as the high tide clam;

I hope the day's traditions ne'er will fade.

I grow so glad and buoyant as I note
The whole land celebrate, because I am

The king of all the fire-cracker trade.

ON THE FOURTH.

[From ode sung in the town hall Concord, Mass., July 4, 1857.]

The cannon booms from town to town
Our pulses beat no less.

The joy bells chime their tidings down Which children's voices bless.

For he that flung the broad blue fold O'er mantling land and sea
One-third part of the sky unrolled For the banner of the free.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Banana Skin Law in Brazil.

During a Southwark inquest, in which it was suggested that an old man had slipped on a banana skin, a juror said he had been in Brazil, and there if a policeman saw a person throw a banana or orange skin on the roadway that person was at once arrested and fined or sent to prison.—

Makes The Nation Gasp.

The awful list of injuries in a Fourth of July staggers humanity.
Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. It's the quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles. 25 cents at Best Form of Prayer.

When the hearts of men and women are filled with heavenly love, a power which makes for righteousness constantly emanates from them.
Those who pray withe their lives offer the most effective prayer, even though they do not utter a word.— Chauncey Giles.

Each age of our lives has its joys, Old people should be happy, and they will be if Chamberlain's Tablets are taken to strengthen the digestion and keep the bowels regular.
These tablets are mild and gentle in their action and especially suitable for people of middle age and older.
For sale by all dealers.

Stained Boards.

Boards that are stained are apt to become lighter after a little wear; but if rubbed with paraffin oil they will again become darker. They may then be rubbed with beeswax and turpentine, when they will look as well as ever.

Beauty Hint.

Red elbows, says the Evening News, are happily a thorn which may be removed. Saw off the red elbows, soak them in a bleaching mixture of unslaked lime, steep them in carbolic acid, and they will never trouble you again. Cold feet may be treated similarly.

Live Australian Freaks.

A calf, somewhat of a freak of nature, was born on T. G. Ware's farm at Little Akatoo, Australia, recently.
It has five legs, the extra one working in a socket in the breastbone. The calf is thriving, and is strong and healthy. Another freak, a lamb, is reported to have been born at Flat Point Station. It has three ears and eight legs. It did not live.

There is no real need of any one being troubled with constipation.
Chamberlain's Tablets will cause an agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealers.

Cure for Dime Novel Reading.

It was asked recently what could be done to stop boys from reading dime novels, and the reply of one observer was: "Teach dime novels in the same way that you do English in the high schools and that will soon stop it." I know one or two young folks who will never read Scott, because Ivanhoe was taken up as a school subject.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Everywhere they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50 cents at E. T.
