

Young Women

Read what Cardui did for Miss Myria Engler, of Paribault, Minn. She says: "Let me tell you how much good Cardui has done me. As a young girl, I always had to suffer so much with all kind of pain. Sometimes, I was so weak that I could hardly stand on my feet. I got a bottle of Cardui, at the drug store, and as soon as I had taken a few doses, I began to feel better. Today, I feel as well as anyone can."

TAKE CARDUI The Women's Tonic

Are you a woman? Then you are subject to a large number of troubles and irregularities, peculiar to women, which, in time, often lead to more serious trouble. A tonic is needed to help you over the hard places, to relieve weakness, headache, and other unnecessary pains, the signs of weak nerves and over-work. For a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. You will never regret it, for it will certainly help you. Ask your druggist about it. He knows. He sells it.

BOLD HORSE THIEVES

THOSE OF AFGHANISTAN ARE MOST DARING IN WORLD.

How They Saw the Mud Walls of the Stable to Reach Their Booty—Stealing a Soldier's Mount From Under His Nose.

The Khyber pass is the chief gateway into Afghanistan. Sixteen miles south of it is the city of Peshawar. The adjoining valley and hills have always been the haunts of professional thieves. The objects which they most covet are arms, money and horses. In securing these they evince great skill and daring.

Their most popular mode of horse stealing requires at least three men to carry it out comfortably and successfully. One of them quietly steals his way into the stable and lays hold of a cord which has been pushed through one of the holes in the wall by an accomplice outside.

The two use this string as a saw, while the third man pours upon it a plentiful supply of water. The cord silently and speedily cuts its way down the wall.

In a wonderfully short time the three crafty men manage to saw round a portion of the wall, which, when pushed outward, leaves a space sufficient to allow a horse to pass out.

This done, the remaining work presents no difficulty. The ropes which bind the horse are cut, and in a short time he is cantering to the hills with generally two or three of his new masters on his back.

A somewhat bold and impudent exploit in the horse stealing line was once the amusement and talk of the English military station for some days. The cantonment was surrounded at sundown by a chain of sentries. This demanded a great number of men, and all regiments, cavalry and infantry, European and natives, nightly gave their proportions.

A native trooper on this occasion fastened his horse to the peg fixed about the middle of his "beat," and to keep his courage and himself warm—the night was dark and bitterly cold—walked smartly backward and forward.

The extent of this walk was not more than thirty yards, and thus at no time could he have been more than fifteen yards from his charger. He was armed with a short rifle and a talwar or sword.

While he was thus doing duty a hillman managed to crawl quite close to him without exciting notice, and, waiting quietly until the sentry was near the end of his walk, and, of course, with his back to the horse, the robber cut the charger's rope, mounted him and in a moment was off.

The sentry fired his rifle in the direction in which his mount had gone, the guards turned out, and a great noise was raised, but the outwitted soldier never saw his horse again.—Harper's Weekly.

ASK YOUR NEIGHBOR.

Hundreds of Scotland Neck Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Scotland Neck people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Scotland Neck reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in faraway places. Read the following:

David Rawls, painter, Sixth St., Scotland Neck, N. C., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have certainly been of the greatest benefit to me. My kidneys were badly disordered and caused my back to become weak and lame. It was hard for me to stoop or lift and I felt miserable in every way. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from E. T. Whitehead Co.'s drugstore, relieved my aches and pains and benefited my entire system. I have no cause for complaint since taking this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Somewhat Contradictory.

One of the new books of reference states in its preface that the "names received for insertion will be found in the appendix." This reminds us of an Australian editor's contemptuous note to a correspondent:—"Your letter is so sensible that we omit any reference to it."

Don't think that piles can't be cured. Thousands of obstinate cases have been cured by Doan's Ointment. 50 cents at any drug store.

Beauty Hint.

Red elbows, says the Evening News, are happily a thorn which may be removed. Saw off the red elbows, soak them in a bleaching mixture of unslaked lime, steep them in carbolic acid, and they will never trouble you again. Cold feet may be treated similarly.

For soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Live Australian Freaks.

A calf, somewhat of a freak of nature, was born on T. G. Ware's farm at Little Akron, Australia, recently. It has five legs, the extra one working in a socket in the breastbone. The calf is thriving, and is strong and healthy. Another freak, a lamb, is reported to have been born at Plat Point Station. It has three ears and eight legs. It did not live.

Billious? Feel heavy after dinner? Tongue coated? Bitter taste? Complexion sallow? Liver needs working up. Doan's Regulents cure billious attacks. 25 cents at any drug store.

Christmas Makes Demand.

The German demand for apples and nuts to hang on Christmas trees is always very great. The inland production of apples, even in a favorable year, although large, is far too small for the demand, in spite of the fact that thousands of acres of new trees are planted each year. In order to supply the inland market, large quantities of apples and nuts must be imported from abroad each year.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers, rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

Misquotation.

It is very surprising to find in the Charlotte Observer this misquotation of an old phrase, "Everything was lovely and the goose was hanging high." This is the way the uninformed continually have come to write it, but in the Tar Heel country they know better. The right rendering is "the goose hanks high," as the wild goose does when the weather is fine, or, in other words, when "everything is lovely."—Nashville Banner.

The Choice of a Husband.

is too important a matter for a woman to be handicapped by weakness, bad blood, or foul breath. Avoid these ill-hopes by taking Dr. King's Life Pills. New strength, the complexion, pure breath, cheerful spirits—things that win men follow their use. Easy, safe, sure. 25c at E. T. Whitehead Co.

Women in Scold's Epidemic.

No fewer than five suicides, all of women, were committed in Paris one recent day. A mother and her daughter took cranial of potassium because they had had no food for three days. The daughter was a lyric artist. A young Australian girl of 18 threw herself onto the rails as a train was entering the Maribou station of the Metro. A woman of 49 took arsenic, and the fifth, who was 27, shot herself through the heart.

What Makes a Woman.

One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overpowering fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by E. T. Whitehead Co.

Eye Water Before or After.

"I thought that in the fifteen years of my practice of medicine," said a physician, "I had answered almost every possible 'feel' question; but a new one was sprung on me recently. A young man came in with an inflamed eye, for which I prescribed medicine—to be dropped into the eye three times a day. He left the office, but returned in a few minutes, poked his head in the doorway, and asked 'Shall I drop this in the eye before meals or after?'—Everybody's Magazine.

Frog in Woman's Stomach.

Washington, July 6.—A live frog that crawled and clawed and croaked lived for nearly a year in the stomach of Mrs. L. V. King, of Deamwood.

After reducing the woman to a living skeleton the frog was finally extirpated by physicians of the Emergency hospital with a large lamp.

The frog is now preserved in alcohol. It measures, all told, about seven inches.

As a tadpole it was swallowed by Mrs. King in well water last August. Weeks passed before the woman realized there was some living creature in her stomach. She consulted doctors, but they laughed at her.

Last spring the frog, now reaching to its full growth, began to climb into her throat and nearly suffocated her, and several times she fainted with pain.

Two months ago, Mrs. King declares, the frog began to croak. She distinctly heard it many times, and her relatives bear her out. She came to the Emergency hospital here and the frog was pumped out of its hiding place.

The frog lived ten minutes in a tub of water. It croaked and sang just like any "regular frog." Then it died.

According to physicians this is the first time on record that any creature of the proportions of this frog has ever lived in a human stomach for the period of eleven months.
