

Steel Library

Largest Circulation OF ANY County Newspaper.

THE COMMONWEALTH

The Largest Circulation OF ANY Halifax County Newspaper.

Editor and Proprietor.

"Excelsior" is Our Motto.

Subscription Price $1.00 Per Year.

SCOTLAND NECK, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1912.

NUMBER 33.

Men are Made Miserable and Miserable Youths.

It is upon the mind, the emotions, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness of the body...

It is upon the mind, the emotions, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness of the body...

T. STATION, Attorney-at-Law, Neck, N. C.

JOHN DUNN, Lawyer

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

JOHN DUNN, Attorney-at-Law

WHAT REPUBLICAN PROSPERITY IS.

What has the result been? Prosperity? Yes; if by prosperity you mean vast wealth...

LABOR AND THE RULE OF RIGHT.

The working people of America—if they must be distinguished from the minority that constitutes the rest of it—are, of course, the backbone of the nation.

THE TWO GREAT THINGS TO DO.

There are two great things to do. One is to set up the rule of justice and of right in such matters as the tariff, the regulation of the trusts and the prevention of monopoly...

Cycle Well Answered.

A cycle well answered: "It does not matter when you take as a bride, because you always find out next day that you have married some one else."

SCOTT'S EMULSION

with plenty of out-door exercise, pure food and air, will arrest consumptive tendencies, allay irritation in throat and lungs, and build up the whole body.

WOODROW WILSON Scholar and Statesman, Democratic Candidate for President.

HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is admirable. It is original in its treatment of the issues of the campaign..."

JOHN W. KERN, SENATOR, INDIANA: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is a masterpiece, setting forth with great clearness his conception of the work to be accomplished by the Democratic party under his leadership..."

GOV. WILLIAM H. MANN, OF VIRGINIA: "I think it was an admirable speech. It was wise, conservative, comprehensive, prophetic not only of Democratic success but of Democratic supremacy for years to come."

GOV. FREDERICK W. PLAISTED, OF MARYLAND: "It is a splendid presentation of the issues for the American people. It rings true in every sentence and in every word. It represents the spirit of the Democracy of today..."

GOV. EUGENE FOSS, MASSACHUSETTS: "It was an admirable presentation of the real issues upon which the campaign will be fought this fall. I think that it is bound to strengthen Governor Wilson among the millions of people of the country."

GOV. GEO. W. DONAGHEY, ARKANSAS: "It was a great speech. It will ring through the country. It is just what he should have said. The people have never felt more confident of success since the first nomination of Grover Cleveland."

JUDGE MARTIN J. WADE, IOWA: "For the first time since the state was admitted to the Union, Iowa will this year give its electoral vote to the Democratic nominee for President."

THOMAS MOTT OSBORNE, AUBURN, N. Y.: "Governor Wilson's speech fits the occasion and the man; progressive but not wild; sane, strong and unmistakably Democratic. It makes an inspiring opening of the campaign, indicating clearly and nobly the spirit in which the leaders of our regenerated Democratic party must work..."

CHAMP CLARK, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES: "Considered from a literary standpoint Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance will take high rank in the political output of the year. It will make pleasant reading and, therefore, will prove a successful campaign document. He discusses the issues of the day philosophically, clearly and forcibly. His courteous and winsome opposition and his friendly and admirable pronouncements..."

NEW YORK "SUN": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the highest, the most earnest and most of high public purpose this country has known in its history. Without passion, without invective, without abuse, without unwise bitterness, without demagoguery, without selfishness, without demerit, he has driven straight to the heart of the economic issue of American independence—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

JOHN A. DIN, GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American can understand. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform, and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear presentation of the truth and the real struggle in the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspiration of the American people to realize, in their government and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom, justice and progress upon which the republic was founded. To all the issues and every national need, Governor Wilson applies the rule of right and common advantage. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that restores to the people the control of their government and inaugurates a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

A BLOOD MEDICINE WITHOUT ALCOHOL.

Recently it has been definitely proven by experiments on animals that alcohol lowers the germicidal power of the body and that alcohol paralyzes the white corpuscles of the blood and renders them unable to take up and destroy disease germs. A blood medicine, made entirely without alcohol, which is a pure glyceric extract of roots, such as Bloodroot, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Mandrake and Stone root, has been extensively sold by druggists for the past forty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital force of the body burns brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, the founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, and a physician of large experience and practice, was the first to make up an ALTERNATIVE EXTRACT of roots, without a particle of alcohol or narcotic.

"It is with the greatest pleasure, that I write to let you know of the great benefit I receive from the use of your medicine and self-treatment at home," writes Mrs. Wm. Hayes, of Litchfield, N. C. "I suffered for three years from a running nose. Consulted four doctors but they failed to mend or give relief. Finally I was told I was in consumption and would have to consult a specialist concerning my ear, but the doctor told me to cut out before the wound would heal. A kind friend advised me to write to Dr. Pierce, which I did, and after seven months the use of the treatment the nose is healed, and I enjoy better health than I ever did. I dressed the wound with Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve and took the Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets for my troubles. I shall always recommend your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

LOUIS D. GRANDEIS, BOSTON: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the utterance of a twentieth-century statesman; with keen perception he recognizes the evils from which the people are suffering and the dangers which threaten our welfare; with broad vision he points the way by which those evils may be removed and the dangers averted; he proves his understanding alike of business and of social needs and that he is a Democrat in fact, as well as in name, and his courage is undoubted. Progressive Americans have in him a worthy leader."

Mr. W. S. Gunsalus, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy, and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all dealers.

Misquotation. It is very surprising to find in the Charlotte Observer this misquotation of an old phrase, "Everything was lovely and the goose was hanging high." This is the way the uneducated commonly have come to write it, but in the Tar Heel country they know better. The right rendering is "the goose hangs high," as the wild goose does when the weather is fine, or, in other words, when "everything is lovely."—Nashville Banner.

The Trials of a Traveler. "I am a traveling salesman," writes E. E. Youngs, E. Berkshire, Vt., and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy. For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25 cents at E. T. Whitehead Co.

Cannot Eliminate Love. A periodical devoted to the drama plays for plays based on some emotion other than love. The difficulty in producing such plays is that every play must have a hero, and in making a hero the playwright, as well as the audience, almost inevitably adopts the view expressed two thousand years ago by a certain one of the dead sages of Persia: "He who has never loved a woman is not a gentleman."

BUY AN Automobile!

FROM Enfield Garage Co., Agents for F. M. F. Flanders

30 20 When you buy an Automobile why not buy the best? We sell the best. ENFIELD GARAGE COMPANY, ENFIELD, N. C.

BINGHAM ASHEVILLE, N. C. has prepared Boys for College and Men for all the Colleges throughout North and South. Our Graduates Excel in College. We guarantee the BEST by 250 dollars and by every visiting Parent. Average Gain of 35 pounds from entrance to college. Climate, Fare and Care of Pupils, Military, to help in making Men of Boys. Box 73

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

ARE FIREPROOF. Storm-proof, too, because they interlock and overlap in such a way that the finest driving snow or rain cannot sift under them. Best roof for country buildings, because they're safe from all the elements. They'll last as long as the building, and never need repairs. We have local representatives almost everywhere, but if none in your immediate locality, write us direct for samples, prices and full particulars. CORTRIGHT METAL ROOFING COMPANY, 80 North 23d St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Founded 1838 Chartered 1859 TRINITY COLLEGE ITS STRENGTH LIES IN

A Large, Well-Trained Faculty; Excellent Buildings and Equipment; Full, Well-Arranged Courses; Earnest, High-Minded Students; a Large and Loyal Body of Alumni and Friends; Noble Ideals and Traditions; an Inspiring History of Achievement and Service.

Next Session begins September 11, 1912. For Catalogue and Illustrated Booklet, address R. L. FLOWERS, Secretary, Durham, North Carolina.

TRINITY PARK SCHOOL ESTABLISHED 1898.

Location Excellent; Equipment First-Class; Well-Trained Faculty of Successful Experience; Special Care of the Health of Students; an Instructor in Each Dormitory to Supervise Living Conditions of Boys under his Care; Excellent Library and Gymnasium Facilities; Large Athletic Fields. Fall Term opens September 11, 1912. For Illustrated Catalogue, address W. W. PEELE, Headmaster, Durham, North Carolina.