Wilson for President. Did it slander Senater Simmons?

Harper's Weekly, in a column editorial, condemning Senator Simmons' Democracy, April 1, 1911, said:

"We have not forgotten his speeches and his votes during the passage of the Payne-Aldrich bill through the Senate. Simmons did not then shine as an opponent to pretection. On the contrary, he stood distinctly for the idea that Democratic Senators ought to get what they could for their particular constituencies. He belonged to the, group of Democratic Senators who by acting on that idea really played into Aldrich's hands and enabled the protectionist leader to get what he wanted."
