BLIND TIGERS CAUGHT.

Five Negroes are Given a Hearing and Bound Over to Court for Selling Whiskey.

As the result of some good detective work done here the past week quite a bunch of colored people were tried before Mayor J. E. Shields Tuesday afternoon, charging them with selling whiskey. Those sent up to court under a hundred dollar bond in each case are Ben Stator, three cases, Pearly Morgan, Tom Smith, Pearly Ferrell required to give a fifty dollar bond and Indiana Stranger a bond in the sum of twenty-five dollars. These cases were prosecuted by Messrs. Ashby Dunn and Stuart Smith and defended by Mr. A. P. Kitchin. There was not much of a contest in either case for the evidence was very strong. We heartily commend the action of our town authorities in this step to rid the town of blind tigers.

Kerosene sprayed on ponds or pools of stagnant water will prevent mosquitoes from breeding. A half pint is sufficient for 100 square feet of surface. If possible, all stagnant pools of water should be drained or filled.

LOCAL NEWS.

Items Gathered From the Town and Country.

It has been hot and dry this week. How about keeping our roads in good condition now? We are told that crops are late but growing very fast now. The sound of the carpenter's hammer can be heard in several directions over town. The county commissioners were in session at Halifax Monday receiving the tax lists. How about catching a few more blind tigers? They are here and ought to be caught. Mr. Chas. L. Stator presented the editor with some very fine Irish potatoes one day last week. Six of them weighed 4 pounds and 11 ounces, while one of this lot pulled the beam to 15 ounces. Mr. Henry B. Jones has been appointed policeman for the town. This gives two policemen on duty during the day and a night watchman at night. Mr. Jones will look especially after the violators of the town ordinances. We certainly hope to see the laws enforced.

Word has been received from Dr. C. A. Whitehead who recently underwent a serious operation by Dr. Finney in John Hopkins hospital Baltimore that his condition is greatly improved and that he expects to return home within the next few weeks. This news will be received with much gratification by his many friends here.—Tarboro Southerner.

Public Guild Meeting.

The Thompson Orphanage Guild will have a public meeting in the Graded School Auditorium Monday night July 21st, at 8:30 o'clock. The people of the town are invited to attend. The program will consist of music, both vocal and instrumental, recitations, a drill and a short play. An opportunity will be given those who wish to do so, to make a contribution to the Orphanage.

The Recital.

The recital at the graded school auditorium last Friday night was one of the best entertainments of its kind seen here in many a day. The singing by Misses Diecie Howell and Kate Johnson was especially good, as well as the violin music by Misses Mary Ferrell and Louise Futrell. One of the very best numbers on the program was the duet, "Lullaby," by little Misses Frances White and Katherine Shields.

CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Several Young Negro Men Arrested for Assaulting a Detective.

For several days last week a negro detective was here working up blind tiger cases among the colored people. This fact became known late Saturday afternoon and soon thereafter several of the younger crowd put their heads together and decided to do a little work themselves. About 12 o'clock that night some eight or ten men appeared at the home of Isaac Simmons, where the detective was stopping, when two of the crowd soon were in his room, and at the point of a long pistol he was commanded to dress, pack his grip and get ready to leave town and to stay away forever more. The detective obeyed orders and soon the crowd had him marching down the railroad in the direction of Hobgood. They had not gone very far when two men were seen approaching from the opposite direction, and passing these two men the detective managed to make his escape by running at full speed and never stopping until he landed on the porch of Mr. G. K. Moore, scared nearly to death. Mr. Moore telephoned to Chief of Police G. H. Johnson, who was soon on the scene and took the detective in charge, in a protective way, for the night.

Early Sunday morning a warrant was sworn out for Nonnie Peebles, Crawley McDaniel, Hilliard Carter, Morcelos Ward and Wiley Carter, charging them with committing the act. The case was continued until Monday afternoon when they were given a hearing before Mayor J. E. Shields. Messrs. Stuart Smith and Ashby Dunn represented the State and Mr. A. P. Kitchin appeared for each of the defendant, and the trial was a battle royal for nearly four hours. The mayor found sufficient cause to bind all the defendants over to court in a bond of $150.00 each, with the exception of Ward, who was discharged for lack of evidence.

The detective had no case against either of these men and they took it upon themselves to get rid of him for fear he might get some of their friends.

It is truly hoped by all law-abiding citizens that they will be given a sufficient punishment to prevent them attempting such an act again. The chances are that if the detective had not moved readily these men might have been on trial for murder instead of an assault.

Such lawlessness as a gang or mob driving a man from town must be put down or it will not be safe to live in a community that such acts are allowed to be committed in and the guilty go free.

It stands to reason that if a colored man will drive his own race from town it will not be long before they will try it on some white man.

The Overland Westerners Here.

C. C. Beck, J. B. Ransom, Geo. W. Beck and R. G. Rayne, who style themselves the Overland Westerners were here Sunday and Monday. These men started from Olympia, Washington on May 1, 1912, on a 20,000 mile horseback trip to extend to the capitol city of every state in the U. S., and to end at San Francisco, Cal., June 1, 1915, during the Panama International Exposition. Governor M. E. Hay of Washington presented them with a letter of introduction to the various Governors of the country with whom they are to be photographed in front of each state house and secure the State Seal.

The object of the trip is to bring a little pinto horse through the entire journey and place it on exhibition at the big fair and gain a prize of a dollar a mile. They are also trying to bring their faithful watch dog (Nip) there if possible.

To date, they have traveled 7,500 miles through 16 states and have been photographed with 15 Governors. The next capitol will be Richmond, Va.

Drives Them Out.

An Enfield man has gone to Newport News to establish a hosiery mill and while we haven't seen where he has been interviewed about his reason for so doing it's a safe bet that it was for the purpose of avoiding the excessive, to the point of robbery, freight rates that he has been forced to pay in North Carolina. When on anything that might be mentioned Virginia can outsell North Carolina on account of the freight rates it is no wonder that the manufacturing enterprises must of necessity hie it to Virginia.—The Rocky Mount Telegram.

New Minimum Rates

At a recent meeting of the town commissioners it was decided to change the minimum meter rate for lights from $1.75 to $1.25 per month, taking effect July 1st. The kilowatt rate was not changed. Owing to the reduction in prices of tungsten (Mazda) lamps and the almost universal use of these lamps in the place of carbon lamps it was decided to do away with the free renewal of carbon lamps and sell all lamps at list prices. Only the best grades will be handled. The lamps will be delivered if the engineer at the power house is notified by five o'clock in the afternoon. The following prices of lamps are now in effect:

- 25 watt tungsten (Mazda), 20 c. p. lamps, 35 cents.
  - 40 watt tungsten (Mazda), 32 c. p. lamps, 35 cents.
  - 60 watt tungsten (Mazda), 48 c. p. small base lamps, 45 cents.
  - 60 watt tungsten (Mazda), 48 c. p. large base lamps, 60 cents.
  - 100 watt tungsten (Mazda), 80 c. p. lamps, 80 cents.
  - 50 watt carbon (metalized filament), 20 c. p. lamps, 20 cents.
  - 30 watt carbon (metalized filament), 12 c. p. lamps, 20 cents.
