Items Gathered From the Town and Country.

The surveying crew is now on the road leading to Enfield.

The town is being put in a much better sanitary condition than ever before.

How about the amount you are due us on subscription? We need the money.

Court will convene at Halifax Monday and then we will know the fate of the blind tigers sent up from this section.

Mr. Wilson Allsbrook has been doing business in Scotland Neck forty-five years. See his advertisement in another column.

At the meeting of the North Carolina Good Roads Association at Morehead City, Mr. John L. Patterson, of Roanoke Rapids, was elected first vice-president.

We are told that the town ordinances are now going to be enforced. If you do not care to be brought up before his honor, the mayor, you had better walk in the straight and narrow way.

Let us not forget the meeting at Halifax Friday to organize the Halifax County Just Freight Rates Association. It is an important meeting and all who possibly can ought to attend.

The boy scouts, commanded by assistant scout master Chas. J. Shields left Wednesday morning for Tunis, where they will go into camp at a point four or five miles down the river. We wish the boys a pleasant trip.

Rev. R. F. Bumpass did not get here Friday night to deliver his lecture on account of a late train. He expects to come to Scotland Neck Monday night, August 25th, and will then deliver the lecture. Bear this date in mind.

There was an ice cream supper at Mr. J. G. Moore's on Route No. 1, Friday night, complimentary to Misses Edna and Ednis Leggett, of Norfolk, who are visiting at the home of Mr. Moore. It was a very pleasant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coughenour entertained at dinner Monday, Aug. 11, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Highland, of Pittsburg, Pa. Those to meet Mr. and Mrs. Highland were Dr. and Mrs. Morgau, Miss Blanche Morgan, Miss Saint Sing, and Mrs. Bernard Allsbrook.

Rev. N. C. Yearby, pastor of the Methodist church, has made the announcement that Dr. R. C. Beaman, of Durham, will assist him in a revival meeting to be held here, beginning on the first Sunday in September. Dr. Beaman is presiding elder of the Durham district and is a preacher of much power and influence.

The attention of our readers is called to a notice by W. R. Harvey, chairman of the county board of commissioners, that appears in this issue. The commissioners are considering plans of moving the county home, etc. and they would like to hear from the people on the subject. We hope there will be a free and frank discussion of the matter between now and the first Monday in September when the matter will be fully decided upon by the board. As for us we are of the opinion that to sell the present farm and build a modern county home on twenty-five acres or more of land is the wisest thing to do.

An Egg Romance.

(Reported.)

An egg story carrying with it a pretty little romance, the result of which is yet to be terminated, has just been made known here. A young salesman in one of the large stores of this place was packing some eggs some time ago and wrote his name and address upon one of them. The eggs were shipped to Norfolk and from there reshipped to Atlantic City.

This all took place several months ago. Some days ago the young man received a post card from a young lady in Camden, N. J. saying she had just discovered his egg in a lot purchased that day and desired to know if he was a white man or a colored man. The young man promptly replied to the card giving her the desired information, and to his surprise a few days afterwards he received a letter, going more into the details of the discovery of the egg, and giving a more satisfactory account of the young lady, saying she was a white girl and a leader in society in Camden.

From this egg introduction a correspondence sprang up between the romantic couple which may prove interesting in the future, the young gentleman telling the writer that he was almost decided on taking a trip to the New Jersey city to investigate the "egg girl," as he calls her, and if he finds her o. k., well, that "brings on more talk."
