A Correction.

Mr. Editor.—In your article last week headed "Mr. Bennett Here" you said, "he found one field damaged at least ten per cent." It should read "fifty per cent." or half. I think the cotton all over the county as a whole is damaged ten per cent from anthracnose.

Thanking you for the correction, I am,

Yours very truly, GEO. R. BENNETT, Agt.

The Convention Will Meet

In Elizabeth City, N. C., Wednesday, October 15 to 19, 1913, in the Olive Branch Baptist Church Rev. C. M. Cartwright, D. D., Pastor.

The next annual session of the North Carolina National-Baptist State Convention will meet in Elizabeth City, N. C., Wednesday, October, 1913, and continue in session until the following Sunday night.

The minutes of the former session are unavoidably late, but the secretary will send them out immediately after he gets them from the press.

This coming session, which is of great and vital interest, will be held in the spacious and commodious edifice of the Olive Branch Baptist church, whose pastor, Rev. Dr. C. M. Cartwright, is president of the Convention.

People in various parts of the State are making preparations to attend this session of the Convention. Those who go by rail should join in groups of ten or more, whenever possible, and purchase a block ticket. This will entitle each purchaser in such group of ten persons to a considerable reduction in the railroad fare.

For further particulars write to the secretary.

WINTER comfort at home lies in the method used in heating the house. Stove heat is conceded by authorities generally to be the most healthy, but if you haven't a good stove, you'll be almost willing to risk the health part of it, and adopt some other means.

THE STOVES WE SELL are scientifically made to consume less fuel and throw out more heat than any others on the market. They are smoke consuming base burners of the latest pattern and sell at prices to please all.

Just received a car of Mattresses and Springs. See our Blankets, Comforts and Pillows before buying.
