Mrs. George A. Pittman.

The subject of this sketch was born near Halifax, January 9, 1842, and so was nearing her seventy-second year when she died Sunday night, September 28, 1913, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Allsbrook.

Before her marriage to Mr. Geo. A. Pittman nearly fifty years ago, she was Miss Annie Priscilla Burgess, daughter of Wm. and Mary Burgess.

She had one sister and one brother, Mr. T. C. Burgess of Rocky Mount. The sister, a twin sister, preceded her to the better land.

In her girlhood days she heard the call of God and gave herself to Him, and in a quiet and unassuming way she tried to serve Him. For more than fifty years she was a member of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Pittman was the true and devoted mother of nine children, seven of whom lived to manhood and womanhood. Six of these are now living viz.—R. W. Pittman, G. A. Pittman and Mrs. C. M. Pemberton of Rocky Mount, Mrs. C. L. Allsbrook of Scotland Neck, and Mrs. J. R. Burt and Horace M. Pittman, who live near Halifax. Mrs. W. E. Bishop another daughter died a few years ago.

Since her husband's death, several years ago in Scotland Neck, she has made her home with her youngest son, Mr. Horace M. Pittman, at her old home place near Halifax.

For many years she has been in declining health but was a patient sufferer through all her illness. She realized that the end was near and told her loved ones that all was well and that she did not fear to go and so Sunday night she fell asleep to wake on the other side, free from weakness and suffering.

Her remains were carried to Whitakers Chapel, her old home church, and there in the presence of her brother, all her children, other loved ones and friends she was buried by the side of her husband.

May God's rich and comforting grace sustain and strengthen all the sorrowing ones and keep them to the end.

Cheap Paint.

There are 1000 "cheap" paints and a dozen really cheap ones.

That double word "cheap" is the cause of wasting more than good paint costs, two or three times over. Cheap paint is good paint; there is no other; no other is cheap. The two words sound alike but there meanings are opposite. "Cheap" costs double. Cheap is Devoe.
