Death of Leslie Hale.

Enfield, April 27.-Friday night. April 23, 1915, the death angel visited the home of Mr. J. R. Hale and Leslie was taken to his bed on April 14th, with typhoid fever and his death was quite a shock to his many friends and relatives.

He was loved by all who knew him. He was always kind and obedient to his parents.

He was given all the attention that loving hands could give, but the tried to live a christain life and for true nobility. The shock of his Lord knew best, and so he called him to dwell above with him, where there is no lickness, pain nor death, but sweet peace.

Leslie was a sweet Christian, though not yet a member of any church. He went to church and Sunday school whenever he could. Leslie leaves a mother, father and six brothers to mourn his departure.

But Jesus loved him more : And so he sweetly called h.m.

Unto the shining shore. We had a little treasure once, He was our joy and pride; We loved him ah! perhaps too well, For soon he slept and died.

All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts today; For the one we loved so dearly, Has forever passed away. Our hearts are sad and ch! how

No tongues can never tell; For a place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

Jusus called him, yes, he called him, To join the angel band; And bent down over his bed, And clasped our darling's hand.
