FOR SALE AT ALL DRUGGISTS.

Notice to Patrons of the Postoffice.

While everyone is having holiday during the Christmas season, it is a time when the work of the postoffice employees is hardest. We have cause to believe that this season will entail more work even than last season. Times are prosperous, and the Christmas spirit, naturally, will be more in evidence.

To aid us, we request that you bring your packages in early so that the inevitable congestion may be somewhat relieved. The packages of course will be dispatched as soon as received, but you may send them "NOT TO BE OPENED UNTIL CHRISTMAS." Three cents additional will insure our package to the value of five dollars, and thus its safe delivery be guaranteed. Let me again request that you get your packages off early. By so doing you will greatly aid us.
KATE S. DUNN,
Postmaster.
