SOCIETY HAPPENINGS

Bring flowers, fresh flowers for the bride to wear; They were born to blush in her shining hair, She is leaving the home of her childhood's mirth; She hath bid farewell to her father's hearth; Her place is now by another's side—Bring flowers for the locks of the fair young bride.

MISS HATTIE LEGGETT ENTERTAINS.

Miss Hattie Leggett delightfully entertained the Scissors Club, together with a number of other friends, on Monday afternoon, from four to six o'clock, the party being given in honor of the popular bride elect, Miss Cornelia Josey.

The guests were met at the door by Misses Maud and Jennie Leggett, and invited into the hall where hot chocolate was served by Miss Julia Bryan and Mrs. J. E. Bowers.

From the hall invited into the north and south parlors by the hostess where tables were placed for bridge and rook.

After several hours of fun and laughter, a delicious salad course with coffee and mints was served by the hostess, assisted by Misses Lizzie Leggett and Sallie May Josey.

The home was beautifully decorated, yet the beauty lie in the simplicity with which it was carried out. The north parlor was in yellow and white, beautiful bowls and vases of yellow and white dahlias and white roses greeted the eye every where. Trailing ivy was lovely in the curtains and chandeliers, the light of which were covered in yellow.

The hall and south parlor were in red, and indeed it was a vision of beauty with masses of red dahlias in brass bowls everywhere.

This home so well known for lovely parties, but added one more to those that have been given there.

The invited guests were: Mesdames, C. A. Albertson, J. B. Hall, G. H. Johnson, Louis Suiter, Ernest Winslow, A. L. Purrington, C. H. Herring, Stuart Smith, A. McDowell, Russell Owen Moore, R. C. Josey, Jr., Ray Boyette, W. F. Butterworth, H. I. Clark, W. J. Gordon, Dickinson, C. T. Lawrence, J. W. Cotton, Kathleen Kelly, J. E. Bowers, S. A. Dunn, Ben Everett, of Palmyra, C. L. McDowell, T. D. Kitchin, H. L. McDowell, and Bosley, of Baltimore, Md.

Misses Mary Weldon Smith, Lucile Kitchin, Ellen Rives, of Va. Mannie and Rebba Shields, Nannie Lamb, Mollie Knight, Laura Clark, Cornelia and Mattie Josey, Margerite Higgs of Greenville, Kate Boyette, Sallie May and Louise Josey, Helen Hilliard, Hilda Hancock, Julia Bryan and Lillian Harrell.

MISS LOUISE JOSEY AT HOME

Saturday afternoon, from four to six o'clock, Miss Louise Josey was at home to her friends in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Cornelia Justice Josey.

It was one of the most beautiful receptions of the season, and it was an ideal autumn party.

The guests were met at the front door by Mesdames W. H. and N. B. Josey, and shown to the north parlor. Here they were received by Mesdames T. D. Kitchin and W. J. Gordon, and invited into the parlor, where they were greeted by the hostess, the bride-elect, Miss Josey, Mrs. H. Irving Clark, and the bridesmaids Misses Mattie Josey, Laura Clark, Margerite Higgs of Greenville, Nannie Shields, Hattie Leggett and Sallie May Josey.

In the north parlor was a bowler of white and yellow dahlias exquisite roses and ferns, and the mellow glow of the yellow lights never shone on a lovelier picture than the fair bride and her maids, in their dainty evening gowns. The bride was exquisitely gowned in yellow satin and gold lace.

From the parlor the guests were invited to the hall by Mesdames G. S. White and J. E. Bowers, where punch was served by Mrs. D. Ray Boyette and Miss Helen Hilliard.

The hall was all in red, Masses of beautiful red dahlias and glorious autumn leaves were effectively used and greeted the eye in every nook and corner.

After leaving the punch bowl the guests were greeted by Mesdames Nannie Cotton and Charles Speed, and invited into the south parlor. At the door they were received by Mesdames G. H. Johnson and J. B. Hall.

In the south parlor Mrs. G. Hoffman welcomed them, and here a delicious ice course was served by Mesdames R. C. Josey, Jr., S. A. Dunn, Misses Lizzie Leggett, Mary White, Mary Josey, Ellen Speed and Mary Powell Josey.

This room was all in yellow and the color scheme was beautifully carried out.

Fully one hundred and fifty ladies called during the afternoon.
