

Prince Albert fits your taste!

Meets the fondest wishes of any man who likes to smoke because it has the right flavor and aroma and coolness. It's the most cheerful tobacco you ever did pack in a jimmy pipe or roll into a cigarette. And it's so good you just feel you never can get enough. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch!

Listen:

It's easy to change the shape and color of unselected brands to imitate the Prince Albert pipe red tin, but it is impossible to imitate the flavor of Prince Albert tobacco! The patented process protects that!

When you fire up your first smoke you'll decide that you never did taste tobacco that hits your fancy like the national joy smoke

For it exceeds in goodness and satisfaction the kindest word we ever printed about it!

Men, we tell you this tobacco will be a revelation to you. So, take this information at 100%, get out the old jimmy pipe from its hiding place or locate the maker's papers—and fall to!

Your tobacconist will be gratified at the nearest store that sells tobacco. For Prince Albert is in universal demand. It can be bought all over the states and all over the world. Try it in a pipe, in a jimmy pipe, in a cigarette, in a cigar, in a roll—and that fine pean and crystal glass, handily with your own hands. Top that! Keep the tobacco in its original tin!

A GOOD PRAYER

A Virginia clergyman was called to dedicate a colored church in Richmond. After the sermon the minister called upon the colored deacon to offer the closing prayer, and this was the response: "Oh Lord, gib this poor brudder de eye of de eagle dat he may spy afar off. Glue his hands to the Gospel plow. Tie his tongue to the line of truf. Nail his years to de gospel pole. Bow his head way down between his knees, oh Lord, and fix his knees way down in some lonely, dark valley, where prayer is much wanted to be made. 'Noint him wid de kerosene ile of salvation and set him afire. Amen!

LOST BOY

Missing from his country city home about the third of next month, a tall complexioned young man, about five feet six inches of age, height thirty-seven years. Had on, when last seen a pair of swallow tail seal skin trousers with sausage stripes, fashionable mutton chop waistcoat with cast iron trimmings, double barrell frock coat, striped collar and tobacco lining, water tight canvass boots, with patent leather tops laced up at the sole. Is deaf and dumb of one eye and hard of hearing with the other, is slightly pock marked at the back of his head, stoops upright when he walks crooked, a slight impediment in his look and wears a Grecian bend on his upper lip, whiskers cut off short inside. Was carrying an empty carpet bag in each hand and a wooden bag in the other containing steamers, railroad tunnels and shoe blacking. Was born mother being present on the occasion.

Anyone giving such information to above will leave same with DeRue Bros., Ideal Minstrels at Madry's Opera House on the evening of November 23rd.

the -- LassCTetaoientoaioshrld One of the principal features with DeRue Bros., Ideal Minstrels will be the reappearance of the Turner Brothers in America, direct from their tour of the principal cities of Europe, which included a ten weeks' engagement at the Coliseum Hippodrome, in London, England, where their act met with great favor and was witnessed by DeRue Bros.' European agent, and immediately an agreement was made and they engaged for their first return appearance in America. They have the distinction of being one of the few acrobatic duos who have performed an appeared before royalty. This sensational novelty is without a doubt the most marvelous performance which has yet appeared in America, performing seemingly impossible feats of acrobatic agility.

AT THE PALACE THEATRE

"The Secret of the Submarine."

The fourth episode of this thrilling story will be shown tonight displaying more hairbreadth action on the part of the heroine, who is again captured, bound and hidden in an underground passage of the bomb maker's house, which blows up at the moment when Hook locates Cleo in the cellar.

"The Broken Promise"

A Knickerbocker feature in which is starred the noted Ann Drew. This is followed by a Vitagraph comedy, "Terry's Tea Party," in which John Kelly, Kate Hunt are featured.

"The Island of Regeneration"

Tuesday will be shown another high class six reel feature story, entirely unique in its setting and strong situations, depicting a girl castaway on a desert island, and found by a man, half wild, but white of skin, who has lived on the island since babyhood, and remembers only the lispng prayer, taught at his mothers knee "Now you lay me down to sleep." More of this story will be told in our next issue.

"THE GIRL WHO SMILES"

The "girl in cheesecloth" would have done better, and so would the booby boy.

This is the more unfortunate since the management of the theatre had done everything to induce a show, that they were led to believe was high class, to come here, wishing to give the people a big value production as an introduction production for the new theatre.
