SOCIETY HAPPENINGS

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF BRIDE

Monday afternoon from four to six o'clock Miss Gertrude Whitehead was "at home" to her friends at a lovely reception given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Richard Davis House, a bride of a few days.

The interior of the house was attractively decorated, the color scheme of pink and white being well carried out. Quantities of blooming plants and ferns were used and bowls and vases of white lilies and pink carnations were lovely in the living room, and the soft light from the pink shaded chandelier cast a mellow glow over everything.

Receiving at the front door were Mrs. E. T. Whitehead and Mrs. C. W. Albertson. Mrs. J. E. Bowers introduced the guests to the receiving line, which was composed of the hostess Miss Gertrude Whitehead Mrs. Richard Davis House, Miss Lydia House, Mrs. Sydney White, Mrs. H. L. McDowell, Misses Helen Hilliard, Mattie Josey, Lillian Harrell and Mildred Edwards.

At a prettily appointed tea table Mrs. Sam A. Dunn and Mrs. J. H. Alexander, Jr., served tea and sandwiches. Woodward, of Norfolk, Va.

Inviting the guests into the dining room were Mrs. S. C. Pegram and Miss Fannie Gray.

Mrs. Aubrey McDaniel received in the dining room, and a lovely ice course with mints, all in pink and white, were served by Misses Virginia Tillery, Estelle Hancock and Ernestine Rasberry.

The centerpiece was a silver vase of pink carnations and on the table were dishes of pink and white mints. Feathery sprays of fern were lovely on a cluny lace cover, with silver candle stocks as the finishing touch.

A profusion of flowers greeted the eye everywhere. Delightful music was enjoyed with Mrs. J. E. Woolard at the Edison.

Mrs. House wore a lovely gown and rose maline over silver cloth and carried exquisite blush roses.

About 125 guests called during the afternoon to extend their good wishes to the fair bride for a long and happy life.

The N. A. Riddick Motor Car Com-pany who were fortunate bidders for the prizes of cars to be given by the News and Observer contest people have shipped the five Saxons today in a solid car.

Mr. L. L. Braswell who bought a home here some months ago has had it entirely redecorated and painted, and is now awaiting the lumber in order to fence the lot in. These improvements makes this property look like new.

A summons has been issued on behalf of the Town of Scotland Neck in con-demnation proceedings for power to run a line of sewerage through the property of Mr. J. B. Gray. This will be argu-ed before Mr. Sterling Gary, clerk of the Superior Court, in Halifax, April 27.

LANGE'S DANDY DIXIE MIN-STREL'S MAKE A BIG HIT

The above company gave their in-itial performance last night to a com-fortably filled tent (jammed, rammed and packed on the colored side) and judging from the riotous applause and hysterical shrieks of laughter, they made an immense hit with the audience

There is not a dull moment in the en-tire program from the rise of the cur-tain on the big minstrel First Part to the fall of the same on the funny after piece.

One very noticeable feature is the entire absence of suggestive songs or jokes. They conclude their engage-ment tonight with the cakewalk for a 10 pound fruit cake. Admission has been reduced to 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

"LOVE OF FREEDOM"

Prompted her to become his "of-ficial wife". Love of country bade her risk the sentence of "Siberia."

She possessed nerve. Her eyes had power to charm—her lips power to at-tract.

With these weapons, she outwitted the head of Russia's secret police, but fell into the meshes of a love net set by one of Russia's noblest sons.

But though she avoids a sentence to Siberia, the cup of joy is dashed from her lips by the inevitable arm of the government.

This then is the synopsis of the play "My Official Wife" in which Clara Young Kimball is starred, which is showing tonight at the Palace Theatre.
