Most all people want to do right, and obey the law, and for their protection and safety certain ordinances are enacted that are intended to correct all wrong. Those, however, who deliberately violate ordinances, and laws, of the community, must be dealt with for the protection of those who do keep the law, therefore the town commissioners have drafted some new ordinances that are intended as corrective measures, and it is hoped that all the citizens will read them carefully that they may know the town regulations and also aid the officers in enforcing these ordinances.

LUXURIOUS IN DESIGN
REASONABLE IN PRICE
OUR FURNITURE

Luxury is a comparative term. Some of the most expensive furniture we have ever seen lacked an appearance of luxury.
In the designs we have selected for you, however, we have made luxury in appearance and reasonableness in price of prime importance.
The result can be appreciated only by personal examination. Come In And See.
