Mr. S. A. Dunn lost a house by fire last night on the Alexander place, east of town, between Scotland Neck and Palmyra, and known as the old Duke Allsbrook place. There was $2,000 insurance on the building, but Mr. Jim DeBrule, who lives on the place lost part of his furniture and had no insurance thereon.

Mr. Dan Forrest, now attached to the North Carolina Infantry Corps, stationed at Greenville, S. C., is in town on a ten day furlough. He got relieved on account of his little sister, Sadie, being sick at Rocky Mount. He goes to that place tonight but will be over again before he leaves for the camp.

Miss Futrell pleases Greenville. We notice that Miss Futrell attended the opening of the Immanuel Baptist church in Greenville last Sunday. She was organist for the day and the Greenville Daily News says of her: "Miss Futrell deserves a large share of credit in all the music. Her playing was fitted to each number—whether an offertory or an accompaniment, or leading the congregational hymns. She proved herself a most capable and delightful accompanist as she always does."

RED CROSS PLEDGES DUE. The secretary of the local Red Cross war fund desires to call attention to the contributors to this fund that all payments on pledges are now due. These pledges were payable in four instalments, one the first of July, August, September and October. A prompt payment will be appreciated as this fund should be remitted to headquarters. Payments to be made to Miss Laura Clark. In this issue will be found a statement of receipts and disbursements to date.

MRS. E. W. HALL ENTERTAINED DAUGHTERS. Yesterday afternoon the Daughters of the Confederacy were guests of Mrs. E. W. Hall at her residence in Clarksville.

Considerable business was transacted and an election of officers was held. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Jarl E. Bowers, and the inability of Mrs. J. E. Woodard to accept, there will be no representation from this chapter at the state meeting to be held shortly in Kinston.

The officers elected were: Mrs. C. H. Herring, president; Mrs. R. G. Shackell, vice-president; Mrs. W. F. Butterworth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jarl E. Bowers, recording secretary and Mrs. J. E. Woodard, treasurer.

By motion it was resolved that all the daughters contribute to the home for widows of confederate veterans, which home is at Fayetteville, a can of fruit or vegetables, and all other ladies, not members of the chapter, are invited to donate a can of either fruit or vegetables, and all contributions to this worthy cause should be sent to Mrs. W. F. Butterworth so that same can be packed and shipped at the earliest possible moment.
