Washington, Oct. 14.-Presi-Wilson's illness was placed an inexplicable category by the publication of a letter written by Senator George H. Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, and the reticence of White House officials, including Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, the President's personal physician, to discuss its contents.

Senator Moses was not at home, nor could he be located in any of the ilubs at the capital. There is no doubt whatever that he wrote LL WILL CHECK IN the letter, but there is doubt he wrote it for publication.

Senator Moses says the "President has suffered some kind of a cerebral lesion, either during his speech at Pueblo or immediately thereafter, and one of the ready discernable results is a slight facial paralysis." He adds that the President "may live" but says he will not be any material force or factor in anything."

That portion of Senator Moses's letter which refers to a cerebral lesion and the slight facial paralysis has been a common rumor in Washington for the past week

Violent Twitching. The President, it may be said, has suffered from time to time with a violent twitching of his face. This twitching has been a danger signal to Dr. Grayson for the post six years. He looks upon it as a sign of intenne fatigue, and has always halted the President's activities when he detected it. It came during the Western trip, and Dr. Grayson ordered the trip ended. It continued for some time after the President returned to Washington but lately subsided to a great extent. Whether the rest and qquiet prescription has done away with it finally is not known as yet.

Washington, Oct. 14.- The following is the thirty-first bulletin issued relative to President Wilson's condition since he returned to theh White House:

"The President's condition is generally good this morning, although he did not have a restful night," is the bulletin issued by his physicians this morning:
