

THE COMMONWEALTH

ESTABLISHED SINCE 1857

AFTERNOON DAILY

ALL THE NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

VOLUME IX—NO. 7.

FOUR O'CLOCK EDITION

SCOTLAND NECK N. C. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1919

TELEGRAPH SERVICE

PRICE TWO CENTS

CONFERENCE TO STOP PRICE RAISE OF CLOTHING BE HELD NEXT MONTH

Plan Is To Stop Extravagance In Buying By Standardizing Production, Qualities And Garments

MAY HAVE FAR-REACHING EFFECT

Washington, Dec. 19.—Steps to be taken for the closing of price of clothing will be discussed at a conference to be held here next month.

Persons interested in the production of wearing apparel from the standpoint of the raw materials and the consumer will attend a conference, it was announced today by Assistant Attorney General King, who said that in effecting economy in the production of standard qualities and place garments at reasonable prices as an inducement to the public to stop extravagance in purchasing.

CARE IN INFANCY MAY INCREASE LIFE

Washington, N. D., Dec. 19.—The infant mortality rate in the United States is about 100 per cent, which means that one out of every ten children born here dies before reaching the age of five years. The infant mortality rate in the United States is about 100 per cent, which means that one out of every ten children born here dies before reaching the age of five years.

AMERICANS REMEMBER, PRINCE OURS—NOT YOURS SAYS LONDON GLOBE

Appreciates Welton's Extended to Prince of Wales

CEMENTS FRIENDSHIP

London, Dec. 19.—The warmth of America's welcome to the Prince of Wales moved The Globe to remark humorously: "Americans will please remember that he is our Prince, not theirs." The paper explains that the Americans gave the Prince such a reception that "anybody might be excused for saying that they had some Americans in view."

ARMISTICE—BIG BLUNDER, SAYS GENERAL HARRIES

Washington, N. J., Dec. 19.—"There were probably many blunders made by the Entente during the war, but in all probability the greatest blunder was the signing of the armistice," said Major General George H. Harries, who, until his return to the United States a short time ago was in charge of the American troops in Berlin. He spoke before a large audience in All Souls' Church here.

FORMER MILLIONAIRE WROKE, SHOTS SELF

Wiener, Former Army Captain, Near Death In Hospital

New York, Dec. 19.—Clarence L. Wiener, a former captain in both the American and British armies, lay near death in the New York Hospital following an attempt to commit suicide.

EXPERTS CAN'T FIX REPARATION FOR SCAPA FLOW SCUTTLE

Some Disposed To Accept Newly Built German Ships, Others Want German Light Cruisers

Paris, Dec. 19.—Allied experts have not agreed what demands should be made on Germany in reparation for the scuttling of the Scapa Flow fleet, according to the Marin.

INTERNATIONAL FORCE TO MAINTAIN ORDER, MAJOR DAVIES' IDEA

Would Prevent Fresh Armaments Or New Inventions

London, Dec. 19.—Creation of an international police force is suggested by Major David Davies, a member of Parliament. He told the Grains Society that such a force should have a sufficient army to maintain internal order and furnish its quota when the League of Nations required it.

FEATS NULLIFIED

Washington, N. J., Dec. 19.—"There were probably many blunders made by the Entente during the war, but in all probability the greatest blunder was the signing of the armistice," said Major General George H. Harries, who, until his return to the United States a short time ago was in charge of the American troops in Berlin. He spoke before a large audience in All Souls' Church here.

CUPID STEALS COOK FROM THE WHITE HOUSE

Washington, Dec. 19.—Cupid scored a direct hit on the White House when Miss Sigfrid Cherwell Nilsson became the bride of Sergeant Christian Larson. For four years Miss Nilsson had been preparing dainties for the President and his family and had accompanied them to Europe & other trips.

WARRNS DRY VIOLATORS LAW BE ENFORCED

Chicago, Dec. 19.—"No quarter will be shown to violators of the prohibition law. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

REARLY ADDED FUNDS TO WISKEY TRAFFIC

Chicago, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

DESERVE PARLIAMENT A LARGER ROLE

London, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

MILLERAND STATED FOR FRENCH PREMIER

Paris, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

ALLIES IGNORE PLAN FOR U. S. RESERVATIONS

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

CONFERENCE RECALLED

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

ARMISTICE—BIG BLUNDER, SAYS GENERAL HARRIES

"Many Blunders But Greatest Was Signing Armistice"

FORMER MILLIONAIRE WROKE, SHOTS SELF

Wiener, Former Army Captain, Near Death In Hospital

New York, Dec. 19.—Clarence L. Wiener, a former captain in both the American and British armies, lay near death in the New York Hospital following an attempt to commit suicide.

EXPERTS CAN'T FIX REPARATION FOR SCAPA FLOW SCUTTLE

Some Disposed To Accept Newly Built German Ships, Others Want German Light Cruisers

INTERNATIONAL FORCE TO MAINTAIN ORDER, MAJOR DAVIES' IDEA

Would Prevent Fresh Armaments Or New Inventions

REARLY ADDED FUNDS TO WISKEY TRAFFIC

Chicago, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

DESERVE PARLIAMENT A LARGER ROLE

London, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

MILLERAND STATED FOR FRENCH PREMIER

Paris, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

ALLIES IGNORE PLAN FOR U. S. RESERVATIONS

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

CONFERENCE RECALLED

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

EXPERTS CAN'T FIX REPARATION FOR SCAPA FLOW SCUTTLE

Some Disposed To Accept Newly Built German Ships, Others Want German Light Cruisers

MAY COME TO AGREEMENT TODAY

Paris, Dec. 19.—Allied experts have not agreed what demands should be made on Germany in reparation for the scuttling of the Scapa Flow fleet, according to the Marin.

INTERNATIONAL FORCE TO MAINTAIN ORDER, MAJOR DAVIES' IDEA

Would Prevent Fresh Armaments Or New Inventions

REARLY ADDED FUNDS TO WISKEY TRAFFIC

Chicago, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

DESERVE PARLIAMENT A LARGER ROLE

London, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

MILLERAND STATED FOR FRENCH PREMIER

Paris, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

ALLIES IGNORE PLAN FOR U. S. RESERVATIONS

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

CONFERENCE RECALLED

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

ARMISTICE—BIG BLUNDER, SAYS GENERAL HARRIES

"Many Blunders But Greatest Was Signing Armistice"

Washington, N. J., Dec. 19.—"There were probably many blunders made by the Entente during the war, but in all probability the greatest blunder was the signing of the armistice," said Major General George H. Harries, who, until his return to the United States a short time ago was in charge of the American troops in Berlin. He spoke before a large audience in All Souls' Church here.

Paris, Dec. 19.—Allied experts have not agreed what demands should be made on Germany in reparation for the scuttling of the Scapa Flow fleet, according to the Marin.

London, Dec. 19.—Creation of an international police force is suggested by Major David Davies, a member of Parliament. He told the Grains Society that such a force should have a sufficient army to maintain internal order and furnish its quota when the League of Nations required it.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—"No quarter will be shown to violators of the prohibition law. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

London, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Paris, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"The law is being strictly enforced and violators will be shown no quarter. Penalties of their influence," said Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here to attend a conference of the High Court of Dry.