U. D. C. ENTERTAIN CONFEDERATE VETERANS

The ladies of the Daughters of Confederacy delightfully entertained the members of Buck Kitchin Camp, Confederate Veterans, in the Mayor's office at noon today when an oyster dinner was served.

This is one of the annual treats of the "old Vets" and also a real pleasure for the ladies, who have always taken a particular delight in serving these old warriors who had so pathetically served the southland.

On May 10 the ladies will again be hostesses to the Veterans, which, of course, is a national day and one of greater ceremony.

KRUPP EMPLOYEES ASK TO BE OFFERED PREMIUMS

Berlin, Jan. 20.—Employees of the Siemens Electrical Works in Berlin have asked the company to offer premiums of small shares as a reward for good work. It is understood that the plan will be adopted as it already has been in the Krupp Works at Essen.

The workers told the Siemens Company that with the present antagonism between employer and employee, a healthy status of labor could not be expected unless the company did something to give their employees an interest in the business.

The workers proposed also to form associations to contribute funds for the purchase of small shares of stock.

PRESIDENT CHASE'S INAUGURATION APR 28.

Carr and General Julian S. Carr.

Raleigh, Jan. 20.—The N. C. Grand Lodge of Masons is in session here this week. In annual communication, among the important matters considered is the establishment of a Masonic resort in the mountains of western North Carolina. The grand lodge already sponsors a state Masonic Home, located near Greensboro, but the proposed resort is something separate and distinct from the Home, which is primarily for the care of indigent and aged members of the order.

The annual report of the grand secretary shows the past year to have been the most prosperous one in the history of the state grand lodge, in point of both increased membership and finances. The income increased from $32,000 in 1918 to $50,000 last year. Increase in membership of subordinate lodges was 1758, a total membership to date of 30,973 in North Carolina.

Seeks No Empty Honor.

Circuit U. S. Judge and former U. S. Senator James C. Pritchard, whom some of his political admirers have been grooming for the Republican nomination for president, it develops today, is not likely to permit the use of his name for that purpose, according to the statements of several of his closest friends here.

One of the main reasons is that he does not wish to handicap any Republican aspirant in efforts to secure votes from North Carolina, one of them, H. Johnson of California, having already applied to Secretary of State Grimes for information how to proceed under the primary law. Judge Pritchard, like many as we all know him to be, realizes of course that he stands no more chance than Josephus Daniels or any other Southern man, getting a presidential nomination this year.
