40 PERSONS IN HAWAII ARE CURED OF LEPROSY

U. S. Soon To Name Detailed Description of The Cure

VEGETABLE OIL USED

Honolulu, Jan. 30.—Forty-eight persons in Hawaii, afflicted with leprosy, were cured during 1919, according to the statement of Dr. J. T. McDonald, attending physician at the Kalihi Leprosy Investigation Station here.

The products used in treating the disease, said Dr. McDonald, are refined from a vegetable oil by Dr. A. L. Dean, of the College of Hawaii. The surgeon general at Washington has asked for a detailed description of the work for publication in the United States Health Report, and this now is being prepared.

And still, if the reds overturn the government, we can use the other side.

ALFANI WOULD SUE FOR LIBEL

Bologna, Italy, Jan. 30.—Father Alfani, the director of the Nimsburg Observatory here, said that to spread rumors relative to the interchange of wireless messages between Bonnets "absolutely scandalous." He added that William Marconi, inventor of the wireless system, should "sue for libel" a man who interviewed him recently was quoted him as saying that faint signals picked up by the wireless stations might come from sources outside of the earth.

A few years ago we laughed mightily at the silly fool who prophesied that man would soon be flying in the air. Now we are wondering how we can connect up with a plane for use in gathering up the news for this sheet.

America's Contribution 3rd in World War

Jan. 30. The United States made the third largest contribution of fighting forces during the war, namely, approximately 4,000,000 men, according to British statistics. The list of nations headed by Britain came second with a total of 8,654,467. The United States strength in France on Armistice Day is set down at 1,160,000 and Great Britain at 1,161,790. The combatant strength includes all troops whose functions are, in the first place, fighting. The captures of prisoners and guns in France during the victorious offensive against the German armies, 43,300 and 1,421; Belgian army, 14,500 and 474. It is pointed out that in addition to the above there were 80,000 British combatant troops in Italy who cooperated in the final defeat of the Austrian army at Vittorio Veneto, capturing 30,000 prisoners, and that in the Eastern theaters of war, Palestine and Mesopotamia, where about 400,000 British troops on an average throughout 1918 were fighting, the complete defeat and destruction of the Turkish army as effected by the British alone, and a total of 85,000 prisoners taken. The following figures show the number of troops contributed by the various parts of the British Empire during the war: British Isles, 8,111,462; Canada, 619,886; Australia, 416,809; New Zealand, 220,099; South Africa, 136,070; India, 1,401,350; and other colonies, 1,348,377. The grand total was 8,654,467.

Losses of troops from Britain, Australia and other parts of the empire, brought the total to, killed, 851,117; missing and other casualties, 1,420,557; wounded, 2,067,412. Prisoners repatriated are not included in the foregoing.
