DEATH OF J. L. WINBORNE
A good man gone to his reward.
All that war mortal of Mr. Joe L. Winborne was laid to rest, Tuesday evening May the 11th in Nahala cemetery near Scotland Neck. The services were conducted by Rev. Lapsley of the Presbyterian church of Tarboro. The services were very touching and a large number of relatives and friends were gathered together to pay their last respects to the deceased.
Mr. Winborne's death will be received by his many friends with much regret he was only ill a few weeks, he was carried to the Edgecombe General Hospital May the 6th but relief was impossible and he was called to rest May the 10th.
Mr. Winborne was borne June 12th 1875 and was married January 19th, 1899. He was a good citizen a much beloved father and husband and was loved by a wife eight children and one sister Mrs. Berry Lucas who wish to thank their many friends for their kindness during his illness and death.

We miss you dear Joe how we miss you,
Our lives are so lonely and dread,
Our home is so empty without you
Lord help me my burdens to bear.

In the silence of night when I awaken,
My pillow I wet with tears.
As I realize that from me you're taken,
And recall all the past happy years.

Around me the little ones gather,
The smiles from each face has gone,
I shall strive to be brave until the end Joe,
May we meet in the great beyond.

Womanly Beauty And Loveliness

that dainty, elusive thing which is the desire of every feminine heart, lies not along the pathway of cosmetics, beauty parlors and the like, but may be retained in all the youthful freshness through proper sleep.

If you are not sleeping properly and comfortably you are sacrificing those things which alone can make for real beauty and womanly charm.

Our beds will give you the desired comfort, and our bed room furniture adds much to the beauty of your home.
