SAN FRANCISCO HAS BUT FEW OF HER OLD TIME LANDMARKS

Few Reminders of her old Romantic Days When Red Shirted Miners Swept Down With Fistfuls of Pay Dirt

66 N. C. DELEGATES GO TO CONV.

San Francisco, June 25.—Visitors to the Democratic National Convention will see but few reminders of the old, romantic days of San Francisco, when the red-shirted miners swept down from the goldstreaked reaches of the Sierras and threw fistfuls of "pay dirt" on the bars or the store counters for whatever they wished to purchase.

Gone is the roaring "Barbary Coast" and its less picturesque environs. "Bottle" Koenig and "Bottle" Meyers' who used to run noisy cock fighting establishments in what is now the shadow of the Hall of Justice have long since passed on and the "Montano Dauce Hall," most blaring and blatant of all the coast resorts is hardly a memory.

Chinatown guides still point out the little restaurant hanging precariously over old Dupont street where Frank Norris, the author, went occasionally to get a bit of local color. Directly ahead and facing the Hall of Justice is Portsmouth Square, a cove the city's human drift where the Vigilantes staged many a stirring scene and the "sand-lotters" under the leadership of fiery Dennis Kearney, discussed the town's political issues.

Most of the old cafes, where much of the city's history was plotted, remain in name only. Gone is Duncan Nichol's, the "Bank Exchange" of former days where the famous Pisco Punch was served over a mahogany bar that was brought around the Horn. The old Cliff House, where Presidents of the United States and other renowned itinerants used to enjoy the sea food breakfasts, was burned years ago.

On Waverly Place still may be seen the quarters of the old Siberia Club, stronghold of Yee Mee, "King of Chinatown." Here, before the police "axe parties" became a feature of Chinatown the chance games of "coon-can," "chuck-a-luck" and "far-ban," were played in the midst of a maze of corridors. Hiding panels worked by secret springs and exotic odors of opium and Chinese dishes.

The black docks that lined the "Front" from China Basin to the Presidio are gone and stately berths for ocean liners have risen in their place. The dingy bars that stood back of them, where adventurers of all degrees were once dropped, drug-stupefied, through trap-doors and into waiting boats below as part of the great "shanghai" game, all have been swept away. "The 'shanghai' was the system for recruiting the crews of the line-juicers" the great deep sea barks, that plied principally between San Francisco and South American ports.

Nob Hill, once the home of the city's elite, shows a collection of jagged foundations, much as the great fire left it. ## A TEMPORARY ROLL OF DELEGATES WILL BE DRAFTED TODAY

Contests From Georgia, Missouri And Oregon Expected Nothing Serious

DEADLOCK MAY BRING McADOO

NO BIBLE WILL BE TAUGHT IN GERMAN PRIMARY SCHOOLS

German Fair Sales And Myths and History of the child Jesus

CATHOLICS ALARMED

Berlin, June 25.—Catholic newspapers are watching with growing concern a movement to introduce a new system of religious instruction in German schools. Heretofore such instruction has been based on the old and new testaments.

The new plan, which was evolved by teachers of Meiningen and recently endorsed by the teachers association of Thuringia, where protestants are in the majority, would do away with Bible study. Instead, children during their first four years in school would be instructed in German fairy tales and myths, Robinson Crusoe and the history of the child Jesus. In the last four years the instruction would have to do with the worship of God by ancient peoples, the life and teachings of Jesus, and the worship of God in Germany. More and more, the Thuringia teachers agreed, German myths and poetry should replace in the schools the old testament.

"By no stretch of the imagination", comments Germania, the organ of the Center (Catholic) party, "can this be called religious instruction. It is thoroughly in accord with the well-known tendencies of aridial teachers. Catholics must follow this movement with close attention for it threatens to invade their own schools."

GOV. ROBERTS OF TENN. WILL CALL LEGISLAT.

Washington, June 25.—Assistant Attorney General Frierson has advised Gov. Roberts that the Tennessee legislature could ratify the Suffrage Amendment without submitting the issue to the people. The question of the constitutionality hinged on a clause in the state constitution which provides any action on the Federal amendment must be taken by the legislature elected after an amendment submitted to the state. Roberts announced Wednesday night he would call a special session to act but was in doubt whether the ratification would be constitutional. Frierson held the recent decision of the supreme court in Ohio referendum invalidated that clause to the constitution.

San Francisco, June 25.—The National Committ meets today to draft a temporary roll of delegates for the convention. Three contests are expected but that involving efforts to give Senator Reed of Missouri strength with the delegation from that state promised more than routine interests. Only one contest and that is from Georgia which was officially filed with the committee. The Georgia contest results are expected by party leaders to be settled in favor of the delegates friendly to Palmer's nomination. The decision carrying with it the confirmation of Howell as a National Commitman. The contest from Oregon is not regarded as serious, and might not materialize at all. A mysterious boom for the nomination of McAdoo and a conflict over the prohibition enforcement plan is approaching a more definite shape. The McAdoo adherents are said today to be shaping plans to withhold his name from balloting throughout the early stages and wait until an expected deadlock between Palmer and Cox developed. On the prohibition enforcement question there has developed a sudden movement to ignore it entirely in the platform.
