COL. RONALD STORRS IS GOV. JERUSALEM

THE PLACE WAS ONCE HELD BY PONTIUS PILATE

A DIFFICULT POSITION TO FILL

Jerusalem, July 23.—The office of governor, once occupied by Pontius Pilate, is now held by Colonel Ronald Storrs, a graduate of Cambridge University and son of the Dean of Rochester College, Eng.

His task is one to test the administrative ability of any man. Jerusalem is a city of disunions, the future, for the moment Zionists and Arabs are passionately divided and to steer a just path between them and induce them to join him on that path is thankless work.

It is to that task however, that he chiefly devotes himself. Twice a week he has meetings of his favorite pro-Jerusalem society, where French, Italians, British, Americans, Rabbis, Zionists, leaders, commercial men of standing and others who are in any way prominent in the life of the city are brought together and in the course of debate, led to see that they have in common a single citizenship. His motto as governor is "unify and be friends."

Colonel Storrs was one of the prime movers in the establishment of an independent Arab kingdom. He is 38 years old.

NEW FOLDING BED NOW TO BE USED

In Reality A Disappearing Bed, Will Revolutionize

FOLDING BED QUESTION

New York, July 23.—Residents of Manhattan island, in their eternal fight for space, have perked up their ears at the announcement by a New York realty syndicate that it will build a $450,000 apartment house, whose distinguishing feature will be "disappearing beds." Officials of the syndicate are silent as to what form the "disappearing beds" will take during the day-time. They dismiss the matter by saying that "disappearing beds and many other labor saving devices will be installed."

Architects, however, have given their opinion on the proposed innovation.

The beauty of "disappearing beds," the architects say, is that the bed cannot disappear while the occupant is lying in it, on his back, with his knees up and mouth open. This was the chief drawback to the old-fashioned folding bed. The architects made this statement to quiet the fears of many New York residents who had inquired as to whether the "disappearing beds" were similar to the old-fashioned folding bed, or contained any of the latter's cranky and uncertain tendencies.

The architects say that a "disappearing bed" is a bed at night and an oil painting of a Gordon setter or something like that in the day time; that it can be slipped under the bath room floor or tucked away behind the aquarium; or that it may be sunk into a trap door in the floor and an Oriental rug placed over it, so that the tell-tale cracks may not be seen.

The apartment house of the "disappearing beds," the syndicate announces, is to be built on West End avenue, Manhattan.

ROBINSON CRUSOE'S CAVE SLEEPING QUARTERS

A National Park And Tourists Resort Is Probable

TWO NIGHTS IN CAVE

Honolulu, T. H., July 23.—Robinson Crusoe's cave may soon be converted into sleeping quarters for globe trotters, according to Prof. W. A. Bryan, vice president of the Hawaiian Historical Society. The Chilean government, Mr. Bryan said recently, is considering creating a national park and tourist resort on the Island of Juan Fernandez, famed as the abode of Daniel De Foe's literary character.

Modern hotels and other attractions would be erected on the island, according to plans being considered. The beauty and verdure of the island, Mr. Bryan says, is similar to the oldest park of the Hawaiian Islands.

Two nights were spent by Professor Bryan recently in Robinson Crusoe's cave. The professor is at present in the south seas seeking proof of his theory of an immense submerged continent in the Pacific.

COTTON IS NOW DAMAGED BY LICE

We learn from a reliable source that cotton in the southern part of the county is badly infected with lice, and in some places there are large spots in fields of cotton so badly infected that it is feared the whole fields will be a total loss.

While crops all seem to be the rains, it certainly is a pitiable fact that our farmers should have the misfortune to have their cotton crop destroyed in such a manner, and we sincerely hope that there may be found a way to remedy for this pest.
