

Local News and Personal Items

Mr. Joe Early, of Martin County, was a business visitor here yesterday.

Mr. R. B. Josey, of Tarboro, who was a business visitor here yesterday, returned to Tarboro last night.

Mr. N. B. Josey, Jr., returned to Wake Forest College this morning to resume his studies.

Miss Hattie Weeks has returned to Wake Forest to resume her school.

Miss Ethel Pope, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Weldon, returned yesterday to her home at Weldon.

Miss Roella Robins, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Gertie Dunn, left yesterday for her home in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wells spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Alexander, Sr.

Miss Susie Hill has returned home after spending Christmas in Warren with her sister, Mrs. Weldon Hall.

Miss Mary Weeks has returned to Wake Forest, N. C., to resume her duties in the schools there.

Miss Mary Holmes Armstrong is here on a visit to the children of Mrs. G. C. Weeks.

Mr. J. H. Durham has returned home after spending Christmas in Newark with Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Durham.

Misses Ruth and Louise Denton, who have been spending the Christmas holidays here, returned to their home at Tarboro yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Kitchin and children, who have been spending the holidays here, returned to their home at Wake Forest today.

Miss Ethel Madry, who visited friends around Danville during the holidays, has now entered Avery College for the Spring term.

Miss Anna Mills, Louis Kitchin, Hester, Steadman and Claude Kitchin, Jr., returned this morning to Washington, D. C., through the country.

Mr. Edwin Josey, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Josey, returned to Wilmington yesterday.

Mr. D. Harrell, and family, of Martin County, have purchased the R. J. Manney house on 8th Street and will make their home in Scotland Neck. They will receive a warm welcome from the citizens of this good town.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY TO MEET WITH MRS. CLARK

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. H. I. Clark Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

ROAL ROLLING

We have two cars of coal rolling, one due to arrive to-day, the other three or four days later.

BOWERS & COMPANY.

Patronize

the merchants who advertise in this paper. They will treat you right.

NOTICE POSTED.

We have bought the exclusive hunting, fishing and trapping privileges from Mrs. J. D. Arnold on all of her land on east side of Applewhite Swamp, bounded as follows: on the South by Clark's Canal, East by Wilts Veener Company—Kitchin, Kitchin and Farrell, on the North by the lands of Mrs. Patterson. All persons are hereby forbidden to trespass on said land.

CLARK GUN CLUB,
J. D. Liverman, Sec. and Treas.

MUSETTE KITCHIN AT HOME

Miss Musette Kitchin entertained a number of her friends on Wednesday night, Dec. 28th, at her home in Clarksville. Hearts, the game of the evening, caused much fun and excitement. Miss Sara Purrington made the highest score, and was given a lovely box of candy. After enjoying some dancing, the guests were served a delicious salad course, followed by ice cream and cake.

Those enjoying Miss Kitchin's hospitality were: Misses Jane Meredith, Sara Purrington, Mary Hayes McDowell, Mary Wood Hall, Juliet Smith, Elizabeth Edwards, Hester Kitchin, and Messrs. Buck Kitchin, Sam Arrington Dunn, James Liverman, Paul Kitchin, James Smith, Will Kitchin McDowell, Landon Whitehead, Percy Anderson.

IN HONOR OF MISS ROBINS

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 28th, Miss Gertie Dunn was at home in honor of her house guest, Miss Roella Robins, of Raleigh, N. C. The guests were received by Miss Dunn, assisted by Miss Robins. After the crowd gathered a number of interested games and contests followed. The lady's prize of the evening went to Miss Lois Speed, same being a dainty handkerchief, and Mr. Harry Vaughan was the lucky winner of a box of cigars. Refreshments were served by Miss Dunn, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Austin. Delightful creamed chicken, potato salad, rolls, saltines, coffee, and mints were thoroughly enjoyed.

The following were present: Misses Mary Lamb, Ellen and Lois Speed, Katharine Hancock, Evelyn Kitchin, Eita Dunn, Collier, Bertha Albertson, and Roella Robins, Messrs. Robert Shields, P. A. Roberts, Harry Vaughan, Paul Speed, Ennis Bryan, Spencer Lewis, Louis Kitchin, Johnny Tillery, and Mr. Perry of Winston-Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Austin, of Rocky Mount.

MISS CLARK HOSTESS

Miss Laura Clark gave a most enjoyable Bridge party on Friday evening, Dec. 30th. The house was decorated in pretty Christmas greens and mistletoe. Four tables of Progressive Auction Bridge were played, after which the hostess served cake, ambrosia and whipped cream.

Those present were: Misses Bertha Albertson, Mary and Nannie Lamb, Mattie Josey, Annie Alexander, Annie McDowell, and Elizabeth Kitchin; and Messrs: William Alexander, Frank Smith, Charlie Smith, Shields Alexander, Johnson Smith, Erwin Clark, Ennis Bryan, John Josey, and Charles Lamb.

NOTICE TO LIGHT AND POWER CUSTOMERS

Light and power rents are now due for fiscal month Nov. 20th-Dec. 20th. If same are not paid by the 10th of this month services will be discontinued. 1-2-7t

L. R. MILLS,
Supt. Water and Light Commission

The erection of a monument is a duty we owe to our beloved dead. It is a duty and a privilege we owe to the nations yet unborn.

Write us for designs and prices.
DEES MONUMENT WORKS
Greenville, N. C.

TRY 1-5-9 COFFEE.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

On Thursday evening, Dec. 29th, Charlie Lamb gave a most enjoyable party to a number of his friends at his home. The guests were received by the host, and invited into the parlor, which was attractively decorated in holly and mistletoe. Much excitement was caused by various contests and games. The contents of English walnuts, which were handed each guest, caused some very interesting guessing, and an auto and geography contest were quite a test of wits. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson together won the prize. Miss Annie Alexander came out ahead in a spicily Mother Goose Game, and was rewarded with a box of candy. After other entertaining games, Misses Nannie Lamb, Mary Lamb, and Bertha Albertson served delicious chicken salad, sandwiches, beef on biscuit, pickle, and coffee.

Those present were: Misses Bertha Albertson, Laura Clark, Mattie Josey, Annie Alexander, Margaret Meredith, Mary Lamb, and Nannie Lamb; Mr. Braey, Jim Smith, Frank Smith, and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander; Messrs. Ben Clark, and Shields Alexander.

LEGGETT-SAVAGE

Mr. and Mrs. William Vance Savage announce the marriage of their daughter

Blanche Burnette to

Mr. Chauncey Hoke Leggett on Sunday, Dec. the twenty-fifth nineteen hundred and twenty-one Hobgood, North Carolina.

At Home

after the seventh of January Hobgood, North Carolina.

WEATHER REPORT

for the week ending Jan. 1st, 1922.

By J. H. Appiewhite

Temperature highest, 65 on 26th
Temperature lowest, 22 on 31st.
Highest average 55-4-7.
Lowest average 29 6-7
Rainfall none.

TRY 1-5-9 COFFEE.

AT DIXIE THEATRE TONIGHT

The first episode of our new serial, "Hurricane Hutch," has arrived and we will run it tonight, also in connection with the serial we will present a five-reel Paramount special production, entitled "Life," featuring an all-star cast. Don't fail to come out and see the first episode of the serial, as it is one full of adventure and dare-devil stunts from beginning to end. Prices 20-25c.

Coming tomorrow a five-reel Paramount "Beyond," starring Ethel Clayton. Prices 20 and 25c.

Don't forget the big picture for next Friday and Saturday nights, "The Affairs of ANATOL." Prices 25 and 50 cents.

Ruffin's Warehouse,

TARBORO, N. C.

Will Open Again For Business,
Wed., Jan. 4, 1922

New Electric Stitcher!

COULD THERE BE AN ELECTRIC SHOE SHOP IN SCOTLAND NECK!

J. D. Lamb says there shall be an up-to-date electric shoe shop right here in this thriving town.

I am now and henceforth out of all kinds of business, except my shoe and harness repairing, am going to give this all my personal attention and care and, with the assistance of Mr. Davis, there will be no stone left unturned to give my customers the very best of service.

Central Shoe Shop
J. D. LAMB, Prop.

Oak or Mahogany

Beautiful in construction

An ornament and a very

The Sc
furnitu
R. A. PH

EAGLE "MEXADO" Pencil No. 174
For Sale at your Dealer
ASK FOR THE YELLOW
EAGLE PENCIL
NEW YORK

HANSEN GLOVES
Highest Standards in Service
The glove here shown is the Hansen Flexo Cuff Gauntlet, a typical example of Hansen character. Elegant, unobtrusive; it allows the complete wrist-freedom realized usually only in the short glove, with the double value of complete gauntlet protection.

QUALITY proves itself only in service. But we don't ask you to experiment. To know quality is our business. To sell goods that prove their quality is our rule.

The glove here shown is the Hansen Flexo Cuff Gauntlet, a typical example of Hansen character. Elegant, unobtrusive; it allows the complete wrist-freedom realized usually only in the short glove, with the double value of complete gauntlet protection.

Plenty of others in the line—all styles here for you to choose from.

Burroughs-Pittman-Wheeler Company
"Everybody's Store"