DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY

The Daughters of the Confederacy met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Tim Riddick at the residence of Mrs. W. F. Butterworth.

All arrangements were made for the District Meeting to be held here the last of April. The state President, Mrs. Wilson, of Gastonia will be present and will make an address. While here Mrs. Wilson will be the guest of Mrs. R. W. Shields.

Delegates from Enfield, Littleton, Weldon, and Halifax will attend the meeting. The address of welcome to the visitors will be made by Mrs. A. McDowell, and the reply will be given by a delegate from Littleton.

It is earnestly hoped that all the Daughters in the local chapter will endeavor to give them aid and enthusiasm in making this a most successful meeting. In fact, every citizen in the town should be interested in these women who represent a cause lost, but one held forever sacred in all southern hearts.

The following committees were appointed: Refreshment; Mrs. E. T. Whitehead, Mrs. J. B. Hall, and Miss Jennie Leggett. Reception; Mrs. A. McDowell, Mrs. Annie Kitchen, McDowell, Mrs. H. I. Clark, Mrs. J. L. Dunn, and Mrs. Henry Gray.

Decorations: Mrs. Annie Hancock.

Program: Mrs. J. C. Riddick and Mrs. Allison McDowell.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Henry Gray, Mrs. Herbert Johnson, and Mrs. J. L. Dunn served ice cream and cake.

707 will relieve indigestion in five minutes or your money back.
