"The Six Stages of Life," presented by thirty tiny tots in another show given at the Midsummer Fete.

HER FILM CHILDREN AND HER OWN CHILDREN

One of the unusual features of the William Fox production "Over The Hill," which comes to the Dixie Theatre for two nights only, Tuesday and Wednesday nights is the fact that the actress who enacts the role of Ma Benton actually has four of her own children playing the parts of her film brood. Ma Benton is portrayed by Mrs. Mary Carr. Her children in reel-life are Isaac Thomas, John, Charles, Rebecca and Susan. Four of these children in real life are Stephen, Rosemary, May Beth and Louella Carr. The last-named has already achieved a unique screen reputation; Stephen, the youngest, is only five. The price of this picture will be 25 and 50c.

MR. AND MRS. R. L. HARDY ENTERTAIN

Last evening at their attractive home on Church Street, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hardy entertained at a delightful reception in compliment to Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Hillman, who were recently married at Granite Falls, and who are now at home after their wedding trip.

Receiving at the steps were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Phillips, while in the porch were Mrs. Annie Kitchin McDowell and Mrs. Bob Jones. At a table on one side the guests were requested by Mrs. Jones to write their names in the Bride's book, which at the end of the evening was presented to Mrs. Hillman by Mrs. Jones.

The visitors were then directed to the punch bowl, presided over by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDowell.

Standing at the front door was Miss Dallas Hardy, who graciously welcomed the guests. Miss Hardy wore a Nile green taffeta daintily trimmed with handmade gold roses. In the front hall were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Dunn, who introduced to the receiving line. Composing the line in the reception room were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hardy, and Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Hillman. The bride wore a charming creation of white satin with brocade panels, and Mrs. Hardy was attractively gowned in white embroidered crepe de chine. Miss Irene Hardy, who was in charge of the music at the Pathe, wore Nile green taffeta with gold roses.

Passing from the reception room the guests were invited by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards, Jr., to the dining room where Miss Evelyn Kitchin, Miss Mary Powell Josey, Miss Gerty Dunn, Miss Etta Dunn, and Miss Mary Fowle Perry, of Winston-Salem, served a delicious ice course. The dining room table was beautifully ornamented with a basket of pink roses and fern, and was further embellished with green and pink mints, streamers of green and pink tulle, and beaded candles.

The color scheme of green and pink was carried out everywhere with lovely effect, gladioli, pink roses, and growing plants being used.

About one hundred and twenty-five guests called during the evening. The Stewards of the Methodist Church came in a body to welcome their pastor and his wife. The out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. J. B. Perry, of Winston-Salem, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Draughan, of Whitakers, Mrs. John Biggs, of Williamston, Mr. Richard Josey, of Tarboro, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Travis, Jr., of Halifax, and Mrs. Isinogle, of Washington, N. C.

The Midsummer Fete is putting on good shows and the best is "The New Pastor."

Dalton Was On The Point Of Giving Up

Since Taking Tanlac He Is Like A New Man And Never Misses A Day From Store, Says Richmond Grocer.

"I reached the point where I planned to give up my work but since taking Tanlac I feel fine and never miss a day from my store," said R. E. Dalton, well-known grocer, of 423 Hull St. Richmond, Va.

"For two years I was in the worst sort of health and when I say I suffered I mean I suffered. My liver was sluggish, I had severe pains in my right side, and had to be always taking laxatives as I was badly constipated. Nearly every day I suffered terrible headaches and nervous spells. My digestion was so bad it looked like everything I ate disagreed with me. I had a mean taste in my mouth and was nauseated all day long.

"Tanlac stopped all my troubles and built me back to where I have regained my lost weight and I never enjoyed finer health. My wife began taking Tanlac too, and is looking like a different person. We consider Tanlac simply great."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

MRS. L. L. CHERRY HOSTESS

Mrs. L. L. Cherry was hostess to the Scissors Club Wednesday afternoon at her home on Roanoke Street.

An usually delightful social hour was spent, after which Mrs. H. L. McDowell and Miss Katherine Hancock assisted the hostess in serving the following delicious luncheon: chicken salad, club sandwiches, hot rolls, pickle, crackers, cheese balls, and iced tea.

Those present were: Miss Bessie Futrell, Miss Louise Futrell, Mrs. W. O. McDowell, Mrs. W. H. McDowell, Mrs. E. H. Leggett, Mrs. J. L. Dunn, Mrs. O. F. Smith, Mrs. S. A. Dunn, Mrs. Ashby Dunn, Mrs. Mamie Hoffman, Mrs. Albert Weathersbee, Mrs. B. G. Hancock, Mrs. N. A. Riddick, Mrs. Henry T. Clark, Mrs. H. C. Bell, Miss Virginia Tillery, Miss Mary Shields, Miss Katherine Hancock, Mrs. D. Ray Boyette, Mrs. Hunter Pope, of Winchester, Va., Miss Eva Pope, of Corry, Penn.

EPIDEMIC OF DIPHTHERIA IN NEARBY TOWN

There is a small epidemic of diphtheria raging in Weldon, there having been during the past week fourteen cases with two deaths. Strict quarantine is being observed on all contacts and great numbers are taking the prophylactic immunizations against the disease. The majority of these cases came from an unrecognized mild case that was not quarantined until a number of children had been exposed to it.
