A letter was bound written by him and addressed to Mr. Bushanan, stating that he (Merriman) had just cleared vessels in the name of the United States, and bat he would continue to do so. The letter calls apon the President to send a boat and men to collect the Federal revenue, and informs him of the progress made in the construction of him posted from time to time in relation to the

STIMULANDS .- The Louisville Journal says :-There are times when the pulse lies low in the bosom and beats slow in the veins:-when the pirit sleeps the sleep, apparently, that knows no vaking in its house of clay, and the window shatters are closed, and the door hung with the invisible crape of melancholy; when we wish the golden sunshine pitchy darkness, and very willing to fancy clouds where no clouds be.' This to the dogs, for we will have none of it. What shall raise the sleeping Lazarus? What shall make the heart beat music again, and the pulse dance through it to all the myriad thronged his own awaking gladness, and the night overflow with 'moonlight, music, love and flowers?' Love itself is the great stimulant-the most intoxicating of all-and performs all these miracles; but it is a mitacle itself, and it is not at the drug store, whatever they say. The counterfeit is in the market, but the winged god is not a money changer, we assure you. Men have tried many things-but still they ask for stimulants. The stimulants we use, but require the use of more. Men try to drown the floating dead of their own souls in the wine cup, but the corpses will rise. We see their faces in the bubbles. The intoxication of drink sets the world whirling again, and he pulses playing wildest music And the thoughts galloping-but the fast clock runs down sooner; and the unnatural stimulation only leaves the house it fills with wildest revelry, more silent, more sad, more deserted, more dead. There is only one stimulant that never fails, and never intoxicates-Duty. Duty puts a blue sky over every man-up in his heart may be-into which the skylark, Happiness, always goes singing. MARYLAND, Gov. Hicks and the Extra Ses. ion .- Gov. Hicks arrived in Baltimore Monday evening, from a brief visit to the Eastern Shore, where he has received the assurance that his refusal to call a session of the Legislature at the present time meets with the hearty approval of men of all parties in that section of the State .-The endorsement which his course receives in our columns this morning, in a published list, emtial citizens of Baltimore, regardless of party diwhich we published vesterday, may have had. LEAVING SOUTH CAROLINA .- A gentleman passed through this city yesterday, with about sixty negroes, from South Carolina. We remember that in 1832 thousands left that distracted State, and sought a home in the more quiet and loyal States of Alabama and Tennessee. We expect to see a similar condition of things now. There are more in South Carolina who can appreciate the blessings they have enjoyed in the Union, and have too much good sense to exchange them for an uncertainty. We clip the foregoing paragraph from the Memphis Bulletin of Saturday last. It records a ignificant fact. We expect to hear of large numbers of slave holders fleeing from South Carolina, if the present state of things continues much longer. And as in South Carolina so it would be in Virginia. Truly, no man can foresee the ultimate result of the wild project of Secession. Richmond Whig.

LITTLE RHODY IN FEAR OF A LOAD OF DEBT .-The Providence Journal asks the question : "If by GEO. R. THE NORTH CAROLINA FORTS .- Fort Johnson, near the mouth of the Cape Fear river, is, next to the Fortress Monroe, the best appointed Uni-ted States fortification on the Southern Atlantic coast; while Fort Macon, near Newbern, commands the best harbor on the Southern Atlantic coast south of Norfolk, Va .- Columbia (S. "THE FIRST AND THE LAST." THIS SAYING was exemplified in the course of North Carolina, as regarded her action in days of the Revolution. The Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, signed by Ephraim Howard, and others, was the first public assertion of the right of a State or colony to be free-to se cede; and North Carolina was the last to ratify the articles of confederation between, and forming these United States! Thus, quick and prompt to resist and repel aggression, she was slow to dele-gate away any of the powers vested in her. The Inimitable CASSIDEY has also just received 10,-
