Monday Evening, January 21, 1861. The Herald Job Office

Is now completely fitted up with the finest assortment of Jos Type to be found in the State. Every species of Job work can now be speedir and handsomely printed at this office from a book down to a visiting card. Handbills, circulars, blanks, &c, &c, neatly and promptly trinted at short notice, and on reasonable terms. Especial attention will be given to the Job department hereafter, and we feel assured that all work entrusted to our Job hand, who is experienced in the business, will be executed satisfactorily in every respect. Give him a trial at any rate, and if it is not done well, no complaint will be made of a withdrawal of patronage.

advertisement, notifying those who wished to be clean, that they might get a good bath for a quarter, and though, it would be a good idea to ask the use of them of another darkey, who said, Baths were used by white folks to wash in." Accordingly Julius started with a bundle under his arm, and being shown into a bath-room, was left to his ablutions.

Considerable time elapsed, and Julius did not 'Say, darkey, are you coming out?" 'Yes, as soon as I get troo my washing.' 'How long will that be ?'

"P'rhaps and hour to an hour an' a half," coolly answered Julius. With that the man bursted into the room, and there all round, was the darkey's freshly washed clothing hanging up to dry; but not noticing it fast then remarked :

"See here; you just clear out at once, you've been in over two hours! "Look a here," said Julius, in an engaged manner, pointing to his drying clothes, which rather took the bathing man down-"I'd like to see you wash and hang out two dozen pieces in less time than I've been at it." In another minute Julius was landed in the street, surrounded by his washing.

APPECTING SCENE IN THE MISSISSIPPI SECESSION CONVENTION .- The scene in the Mississippi Convention, when the vote was about to be taken on the secession ordinance, is described as having been of a most impressive character. When the words were propounded by the President, Gentlemen of the Convention, are you ready for the question?" Col. Walter Brook, of Warren. arose and addressed the Convention in a dig- | without injury to Hair or Skin. nified and eloquent speech, setting forth the reasons why he was not prepared to vote for immediate and separate secession, but declaring that the causes justified the act, and that whatever course his State might take, he would cordially acquiesce in the decision, and give his all to the maintenance of her honor and rights.

Mr. Alcorn, and other gentlemen of the co-operation party, followed to the like effect. Not a word was said by the friends of the ordinance. The year and navs were ordered. Slowly the Secretary called the roll, and each member responded in a tone indicating deep, intense emotion, but a firm and earnest purpose. Tears gathered in the eyes of nearly every actor and spectator of the solemn ceremony. When the call was completed, and the Presidentannounced the result-yeas eighty-four, nays fifteen-a profound silence for some time prevailed. President proclaimed the ordinance adopted, and the Convention adjourned.

DEATH OF AN EMINENT NAVAL OFFICER .- We find in the Keowee (S. C.) Courier, of the 12th the following announcement. We had not heard before of the melancholy event which we are

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SHUBRICK .- We regret to learn that Capt. Shubrick, late of the U.S. Navy, but for several years residing near Pendleton, died on Monday last. He had seen much service, having received several dangerous wound in the face and head in battle. Capt. Shubrick was a brave and accomplished officer, and we mourn, in common with his countrymen, the demise of so gallant a man.

Mr. Wade, of Ohio, and those other gentlemen who are now counselling civil war, should enquire what place is occupied in the affections of the American people by the advocates of war them, except to detest him? On the other hand, are not Burke and Barre as fresh in our recollections, as the warriors who won the battles of the Revolution. We commend this bit of history to the people of America. - Boston Cour.

CIANS AND ECONOMISTS. 1860 feet of gas is consumed through eight burners, in 9 nights, at a cost of $5 per thousand feet, how much is consumed by each burner upons at 7 per cent per annum, payable in the per hour? at what cost, and what would be the city of New York, 1st March and 1st September. cost of an equal amount of light obtained from Kerosene Oil? Answer: There is consumed by each burner, 25 feet per night, or 6 feet per hour, at a cost of 6 cents per hour per burner. Four Kerosene Lamps afford as much light as 8 gas burners; 4 gallons of Kerosene Oil will supply 4 lamps one month, which, at $1,20 per gallon, is $4,80 per month, or a cost of one cent per hour per lamp; therefore, by burning gas, the expense is dec 11 A RE CONSTANTLY receiving fine CLO TH Kerosene Oil, which, with Lamps, can be had at the RENDEZVOUS of the Inimitable CASSIDEY.
