COMMERCE OF MOBILE .- The New Orleans Picavane learns that in consequence of the difficulty of shipping cotton at Mobile, the collector of the port having resigned his office, so that there can be no clear inces, large quantities of the staple are being sont over to New Orleans daily by the mail boats for shipment at this port.

A HARRY FAMILY .- A gentleman travelling through Mcklinburg, some few years since, witnessed a singular association of incongruous animals. After dinner, the landlord of the inn placed a large dish of soup and gave a loud Immediately there came into the room a mastiff, an Angora cat, an old raven, and a night bell is at the second door (on front street,) remarkably Barge rat, with a bell about its neck. from the corner, They all four went to the dish, and without disturbing each other, fed together ; after which the dog, caffand rat lay before the fire, while the raven hopsed about the room. The landlord, after accounting for the familiarity of these animals, informed his guest that the rat was the most useful; for the noise he made had completely freed his house from the rats and mice with which it was before infested.

30" A letter from New York says that the times are so hard that the watches have stopped. We are supprised at that, because they are the only business characters that can afford to go; as they go apon tick till the end of time.

The Philiddelphia Inquirer says that there are twenty-four Republicans in the Pensylvania House of Representatives who are willing to repeal those sections of the penal code which are in conflict with the National Constitution.

The New York papers say that a living, speckled brook trout, weighing 5 lbs. 10 oz., is now swimming in Barnum's Museum Aquaria. It arrived Friday, from Andes, Delaware county, N. Y. Banfum paid one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) for it.

The Nor blk Day Book says:" In spite of the cry of duff times, there is a scarcity of vessels in this port, and many of our merchants are relarded in their operations, from a want of leight room.

John Mischel, the Irish patriot, is now residing with a portion of his family in Paris, No. 19 Rue de l'Est. Tils son, John Mitchel, jun., is in the service of the State of South Carolina.

A WELF KNOWN LAWYER KILLED .- WM. T. Harriss, Eq., a well known and highly esteem-ed lawyer of Richmond county, Va., met with a shocking and fatal accident at Westmoreland C. H., on ednesday evening last. Mr. H. was riding to sulkey, when his horse took fright and becoming unmanageable, threw him from the vehicle, injuring him so severely that he died on the following morning, at 3 b'clock .--1'dersburg Express, 28th.

The Buralo Express says it is fast becoming bald. We saw him two days since, and on the fushionable in that city for ladies to wear the place so hald four months since, a fine crop of hair Balmoral without any dress over it.
