R O. PHELPS BROWN was for several years part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished by a young clairvoyant girl. It is equally sure in cases of Firs as of Dyspersia and Fever and Acre. To those persons who have tried many medicine until they have become discouraged, and do not feel willing to expend more money upon uncertain-ties, I will send the prescription for preparing and successfully using the Vervain Magic Assimilant, upon receipt of their address, with stamp for return postage. All of the ingredients are to be found at the Drug Store of Henry McLin. Address Dr. O. Phelps Brown, No. 21 Grand Street, Jersey City
