

The Daily Herald.

A. M. WADDELL, Editor and Proprietor. TOWN PRINTER. WILMINGTON, N. C., Wednesday Evening, April 17, 1861.

SOUTHERN RIGHTS MEETING.

A meeting of the Southern Rights citizens of New Hanover county, will be held at the Court House, in the town of Wilmington, TUESDAY, April 24, 1861, for the purpose of forming a Southern Rights organization for the county, and also for the appointment of delegates to the Southern Rights Mass Convention, to be held at Charlotte on the 20th day of May next.

A full attendance is earnestly solicited. Persons indebted to the Herald Office will confer a great favor on us by paying their bills. We pay here money, and hope our friends will pay up and relieve us of the pressure.

Letters and Packages for either of the companies at Fort Caswell, or Fort Johnson, if sent to the Herald office by 11 o'clock, each day, will be forwarded to their proper destination.

We shall try to give all the news, but our editorial columns will be very lean for some time to come.

We have been happy to see such unanimity of action and sentiment in resistance to the bloody tyranny of Lincoln, as exists throughout this glorious Old Cape Fear Region. The name of the "Men of Cape Fear" will, as in times of old, be remembered by our enemies.

The North Carolina University Magazine for April has been laid on our table by Mr. Whitaker. It contains a likeness and sketch of Hugh L. White.

We have from Kelley, Goday's Lady's Book for May—an interesting number.

North Carolina vs. the "Call." Lincoln has actually called upon Gov. Ellis for two regiments to assist him in subjugating the Southern States. And this, he has done, in the face of the fact that he has no authority whatever to justify his conduct—in the face of the fact that the last Legislature unanimously pledged the State to resist coercion—and in the face of the fact that North Carolina is a slave State, and vitally interested on the side of the South.

NORTH CAROLINA HAS ANSWERED BY TAKING POSSESSION OF ALL THE PORTS ON HER COAST. Three cheers for the "Old North State."

Meeting of Exempt Men. A large meeting of citizens of Wilmington who were exempt from military service was held at the Town Hall yesterday afternoon, Col. John McRae, Chairman, and A. A. Brown, Sec'y.

After full discussion it was resolved to form two military organizations of "Exempt" men for that part of the town North of Market St., and one for that part of the town South of Market St., to be called out whenever circumstances may require it.

Subsequently Col. John McRae, was elected Captain of the Northern Division, and James Anderson, Capt. of the Southern Division.

As an evidence of the spirit which animates these patriotic citizens in forming these military organizations we may mention that several members are between seventy and eighty years of age. Can such men be intimidated?

From the Richmond Dispatch. English View of Coercion. Lord Palmerston has again, in public address emphatically expressed the hope that the questions at issue between the United States Government and the Confederate States may be settled without an appeal to arms.

The civilized world looks with horror and amazement at the dire portents of this fratricidal and suicidal strife. The Lincoln Cabinet stands alone among the Governments of the world civilized world in preferring a bloody arbitrament for this American quarrel.

All Christendom raises its voice against it; and even in the North it is a minority elected ruler, alone who seeks to involve this nation in such unparalleled horrors.

The journals of France, the most warlike of modern nations, cry aloud against this most unnecessary and iniquitous appeal to battle, and those of England pronounce the crime of the act equally by its folly. The London Star says:

"Under any circumstances, such a war as that which is now impending between the Northern and Southern States is an act of madness. Suits for the restitution of conjugal rights are as foolish between nations as between individuals."

"Let the ill-assorted pair agree to live apart. They should be mutually civil as friends, though their dispositions would not brook close intimacy. We should not be displeased to see a divorce decreed between the North and its unprincipled mate, the South. But in any case a struggle to avert it by force of arms would be not only a folly, but a crime. It seems vain to hope that the commencement of such a warlike strife can now be averted. But we still cherish the belief that it will not be of protracted duration; and that before long the combatants, yielding to the force of circumstances, will see the wisdom of their position, will shake hands and agree to their separate ways in peace."

From the Raleigh Register. The War Commenced by Lincoln's Treachery. We have heard it stated that Lincoln was not responsible for the battle at Fort Sumter, as the attack was made by the Confederate troops.

The facts of the case do not sustain this assertion. On Monday of last week Captain Tabot, of the United States Army, and a Mr. Chew, arrived from Washington at Charleston, and requested to be permitted to visit Fort Sumter, and to have an interview with Major Anderson. On this request being denied, they informed Gov. Pickens and Gen. Beauregard, that they were authorized by the Federal Administration to inform the Confederate authorities that it was its purpose to supply Fort Sumter with provisions, "if possibly it could, forcibly if it must." With these facts before them, and with the knowledge that a large fleet of armed vessels were on their way to Charleston to cooperate in the work of provisioning and reinforcing Fort Sumter, were the Confederate authorities to await the arrival of that fleet at its destination? By no means. Such conduct would have been the height of infatuation and folly.

They awaited the arrival of the fleet, and the battle would have been inevitably bloody than it has been. The action, therefore, of the Confederate authorities, as they tended to diminish instead of increase the effusion of blood. But this is not all that justifies the Confederate authorities in the course they have pursued. Lincoln's whole course has been double-dealing and treacherous.

His own declarations to Messrs. Nelson and Maynard, the peaceful givings out of his Secretary of State, the semi-official declarations that Fort Sumter was to be evacuated, and the dis-honorableness of at least one of his emissaries to Charleston, (Fox), all tend abundantly to justify the onslaught made upon Fort Sumter by the Confederate troops. This man Fox, who was an emissary of the administration, went to Charleston, and requested and received permission to visit Fort Sumter on certain conditions, which he shamefully and basely violated. He pledged his word of honor that his mission was peaceful, but intercepted dispatches disclose the fact that while at Fort Sumter he concocted a plan for supplying the Fort by force, which plan has been adopted by the Government at Washington, and was in progress of execution. Doubtless to this plan may be attributed the sailing of the armed fleet from New York for the South.

OFFERS OF AID TO THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY. Most recent, April 15.—Secretary Toombs has received a dispatch from Mr. Brockbridge and Governor Magoffin of Kentucky, expressing themselves as greatly excited, and sympathizing entirely with the South.

Serena thousand men of the Border States, they are under arms, and have offered to move at a moment's notice from the War Department at Washington, to take possession of Savannah.

SAVANNAH, April 15.—Immense quantities of munitions of war are reaching Savannah.

ANAPOLIS, April 15.—Captain Blake, in command of the United States Naval Academy here has received a telegraphic dispatch from Washington, and is now busily engaged in removing the arms and ammunition from the battery to the practice ship Constitution. The 23 pound howitzers, 45 pounders, and 32 pound shell, were principally removed. Full armament and ammunition will be put on board in the morning.

The ship laid in a supply of oil and candles to night, in order to take leave from her when she is supplied with gas. All the watchmen of the guard are armed with revolvers, but no person is denied admission.

TROOPS TO BE CALLED FOR. The quota for each State is as follows: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, Arkansas, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota—each one regiment.

Massachusetts, North Carolina and Tennessee two regiments each. Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio—each three regiments.

Ohio—three regiments. New Jersey, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri four regiments each.

Illinois—six regiments each. Virginia—three regiments. It is ordered that each regiment shall consist, in the aggregate, officers and men, of seven hundred and fifty men, and that the total number of troops to be called for shall be thirty-three thousand three hundred and ninety-nine.

The remainder to constitute the seventy-five thousand, under the President's proclamation, will be composed of troops of the District of Columbia.

THE WAR FEELING. Louisville, April 15.—The recent news paralyzed our people, and they have not yet recovered from the shock. Companies are enlisting for the Southern Confederacy, and several start tomorrow. Our citizens generally deplore the positions of Mr. Lincoln's proclamation.

BANKING, Me., April 15.—Gov. Washburne has rejected the requisition of the Secretary of War for Maine regiments promptly. The people of all parties rally with alacrity for the maintenance of the government and the defense of the flag. A proclamation will be issued tomorrow inviting a special session of the Legislature on Monday next.

The remains of Henry Inman, one of the most illustrious of American warriors, have been recently removed to the beautiful Hazelwood Cemetery, at Rahway, N. J., and a movement is about to be made to obtain, by subscription, a fitting site to be appropriated for the erection of a monument, inscribed with such an epitaph as his fame demands. For fifteen years his grave has been suffered to remain unmarked by any evidence of his genius and reputation. It is to be hoped that the present effort to repair the wrong may be successfully.

From the Richmond Enquirer. (From the Richmond Enquirer.) When Lincoln sent his message to Gov. Pickens, to inform him that Fort Moultrie was to be provisioned, he directed him not to receive any answer. It seems to have been concluded, however, that he should be informed, which is communicated by telegraph, as follows:

David's answer is rough and curt. "Sumter is ours—and 'nobody hurt.'" "With mortar, saltpetre and powder, we'll tender Old Abe our best regards."

THE SNAKES.—About two weeks ago, a paper box, containing two snakes directed to the President, was sent to the Post office here in the Richmond, Va., pouch. There was no post mark on the box. The discovery of the contents was made in the office here, by the breaking of the box. The matter was kept quiet so long, in the hope that the party or parties concerned in sending the box might be discovered.—Washington States.

FROM THE FLEET.—Captain Williams, of the British ship Mercury, now outside the bar, reached this city yesterday in his yacht boat, and he informs us that he went on board one of the vessels of war outside to inquire if the port was blockaded, when he informed him that it was still open.—Char. Mercury.

LETTERS FROM ROME, in the English papers, announce that General de Goyon presented, by a great display of force, any manifestation on the part of the Pope, in the morning, in the city of Rome, with "Viva Vittorio Emanuele!" were found posted in all the streets, and the students of the University and of the Fine Arts raised loud cheers in their respective halls. The bill-stickers were also seen in the streets, and the students of the Pontifical Zouave after a disturbance caused by a political discussion in the Colonna Coffee-House.

ANOTHER BRIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE.—It is with great pleasure we re-print and endorse the following from the Savannah Republican: It is with great gratification that we announce the appointment of Col. A. B. Lawton, of our city, Brigadier-General of the Confederate Army. He went down to Fort Pulaski to take command of the garrison, and he has assured him that the volunteer militia of Savannah will follow wherever he leads.

COULDN'T DO IT.—An exchange paper tells a story of a man in London, who determined to sell all his property, and to go to the States, for the simple reason that the more he advertised the more he made, and after strenuous efforts to do his own advertising, he had to give it up. If you don't believe it, try it.

NOT BAD TO TAKE.—The Madison Rifles, one of the companies from Mississippi, have the nice little sum of seven thousand dollars in their treasury for the purchase of arms. The members have been presented to them by the citizens of that county since their enlistment.—Pensacola Gazette.

GENS FROM NORTH CAROLINA.—We understand that several heavy guns will be sent to North Carolina, in obedience to the request of Governor KELLS. They will be forwarded immediately.

EXPERIENCE TEACHES AN INDULGENCE, the wisest is who doubts his own judgment with regard to the motives which actuate his fellow men.

NEW TICKET FOR COMMISSIONERS OF NAVIGATION AND TRADE. W. M. FLANNERY, W. H. DORRISSET, W. H. BARNETT, A. LAMONT.

THE ABOVE NAMED GENTLEMEN WILL SERVE, if elected. It is hoped the patriotic citizens of Wilmington will support them the first Monday in May next, April 11-12.
