

The Daily Herald. A. N. WADDELL, Editor and Proprietor. TOWN PRINTER. WILMINGTON, N. C., MAY 1.

From the Wilmington Journal. Masses, Envoys: Whereas, against the remembrance of every honest, intelligent and patriotic citizen North of Mason & Dixon's line...

From the Charleston Courier. MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT DAVIS. MONROVIA, April 29th. The Confederate Congress met at noon.

Telegraphic News. MORE WAR NEWS! A Large Army to March through the South taking North Carolina in its 'Route... Our Soil to be Invaded!!'

HEADQUARTERS COAST DEFENCES. WILMINGTON, N. C., April 27, 1861. I. Paragraph to the orders of the Governor of North Carolina, the undersigned assumes command of the Coast Defences of North Carolina.

CASH SYSTEM. Conducted upon the Cash basis. We have to pay for our stock when received, and in payment before delivery. Our bill is diminished; our collector is on duty at Fort Caswell, and we hope our friends will take no exceptions to the rule.

The Medical Board will meet in Raleigh on the 10th instant, instead of the 6th, as first advertised.

The Citizens of Petersburg have presented Major-General Gwynn with a splendid horse, saddle, bridle, and trappings.

EXAGGERATION.—The news of the burning of the Hospital building at Smithville, like everything else now-a-days, has gathered strength as it spread. The Northern Progress contains a paragraph, stating that Fort Johnson has been burned and one man killed!

A SPECTACULAR FLAG.—We saw this morning a splendid Confederate Flag, made by Vincent, of Charleston, for the ladies of Wilmington, who will send it down to be raised over Fort Caswell.

We are requested to give notice that the flag will be on exhibition at the Town Hall tomorrow, from 10 until 1 o'clock.

A CONTRAST.—The recent treatment of Capt. Jenifer, of Maryland, by the people and the authorities—inciting the Governor—of Pennsylvania, while it evinces barbarism and cowardice, contrasts most unfavorably with the manner in which officers of the late U. S. Army, born at the North, have been treated by the Southern people and authorities.

Contrast this treatment of a brave officer with the way in which Capt. Woodbury was treated in this place. When he expressed his intention to go North, he was not only allowed to do so, but every facility was furnished him for the removal of himself and family by the authorities here, from whom, and from the people, he received not the slightest discourtesy.

'SHELLING' BALTIMORE.—The Baltimore Sun commenting upon statements in Northern journals in regard to the shelling of Baltimore by Fort McHenry, uses the following language:

But to turn to this idea of Fort McHenry shelling the city of Baltimore, the bare thought of such a thing is almost sufficient to obliterate the most cherished and enduring associations of our nationality. Of course such a thing is not likely to occur.

With us to-day, occupation of Fort McHenry, with its guns turned against the city, has sufficed to impair beyond all hope of restoration, that deep and hearty abiding love for our institutions, which ought never to have been exposed to such a test.

The Encampment. On Monday our Reporter paid a visit to the Military Encampment at the Fair Grounds in this city. He found the boys all hearty and well, that deep and hearty abiding love for our institutions, which ought never to have been exposed to such a test.

Lincoln's Government to be removed to Pittsburg.—The Public Buildings. A friend has permitted us to peruse a private letter from Washington City, which contains some very interesting particulars...

The New York Seventh.—The N. Y. Times is jubilant over the exodus of this pet city regiment. "Broadway," quoth the Times, "will be the scene of the most brilliant and successful military movements on their way to Washington."

General Lee. The announcement that Gen. Lee has encamped with 5000 men on Arlington Heights, arouses reminiscences of some of the brilliant periods of our history. The names Arlington and Lee are associated with the revolutionary annals of Virginia.

Important Suggestion.—We recommend the following resolutions to be presented to the Convention of the North Carolina Regiment of Volunteers, as gallant true men as breathe and under whose lead his men will face any danger.

By an understanding between the Governors of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana those States will act in conjunction to throw troops and provisions into Washington or elsewhere South upon order of the War Department.

Edward Everett, in an eloquent speech, says "We are but one heart, one mind, that the Government must be sustained. We forget every partisan feeling. We remember only that we are Americans."

In the Northern States, cities, &c., including private subscriptions, the sum of eleven thousand dollars has been subscribed for the purpose of purchasing arms and accoutrements for the troops.

Several seizures of gunpowder on board vessels were made on Saturday night. About fifteen thousand troops are quartered here, destined for Washington. Alderman Wilson's Zouaves, five hundred strong, are quartered in old government houses, Staten Island.

Philadelphia, April 29, 1861. A petition is in circulation urging the President to open a route through Baltimore.

Baltimore, April 29th. Much activity is observable to-day between Forts McHenry and Carroll. It is said guns have been taken from the latter which are being placed in the best possible condition of defence.

We have received the following from the Telegraph office in this place: The line of telegraph between Washington and points North and East, is now open. Business for points North, sent from the South, goes to Alexandria where it is sent by special messenger to Washington.
