WILMINGTON: : SEPT. 25

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mayor's Court, Sunday—Before Commissioner Shackelford.
No cases before the Mayor on Saturday, and of course, the court was off duty, so to speak. Sunday there was no court held, owing, it was supposed, to the want of cases. The city is very quiet and orderly, and may be considered on the moral list.

NEGRO REFUGEES.—There has been for some time past quite a demand upon the city to take charge of negro refugees arriving here and becoming sick, without any money or any other means to be taken care of. Many of these people have died during the past summer, and the city has had to defray the usual and necessary burial expenses, until now it has become a great tax to meet. Two or three, and often more, die from neglect and want among these people every week, and to defray these expenses when the number is increasing rather than diminishing, by arrivals from the country, is more than can be expected from the city under the present condition of her financial affairs. The acting mayor has ordered that the matter have an ending immediately, and very properly so. These people can go into the country if they will, and by so doing retrieve their health, and not become a burden to an already over taxed city.

THE EXCURSION.—Maj. Gen. Ruger and party accompanied by Maj. General Crook, lady and part of his staff, were on a pleasure excursion, inspection and sight seeing, down the Cape Fear yesterday. They visited Fort Fisher going and Fort Anderson on their return, and were much pleased with the result. They returned late in the afternoon by the tug McB. Davidson, special steamer.

Gen. Ruger leaves this morning at 9 o'clock by special train for Newbern and Morehead City, and from thence to Raleigh, when it is thought, after a short rest, he will pay a visit to the western part of the state.

BOISTEROUS CONDUCT.—A drum corps, with a bugler among them, followed by a few soldiers and a large lot of yelling contrabands, marched down market street to Fourth, and thence in the direction of the railroad, yesterday afternoon. The great noise, and the confusion from the drums and the bugle, were such as to bring together a very anxious crowd to view the scene, and to learn the cause, who, when informed that it was a returning funeral escort, went away satisfied, if not admirers of this style of ending a sad duty.

THE CIGAR SALE.—The sale of Havana cigars by Crook & Morris, auctioneers, was commenced on Saturday, but withdrawn finally, the prices obtained for those sold not covering the duty. The sale was quite a disappointment, all owing to the crowd knowing too much about the goods offered. The room was filled to overflowing, and evidently with many more samplers than buyers. At one time the smoke was so dense as to resemble a Cuban church service.

ACCOMMODATING.—Jno. J. Conoley, esq., the receiver of the taxes on real estate under the late tax law, in company with the town clerk, has graciously extended the day upon which taxes will be received until the last working day in the present month, which is Saturday next, the 30th. Parties who may be delinquent at that time will be compelled to pay double the amount, or in other words two per cent. instead of one.

CLOSING UP.—Major O. G. Kelsea, the local special agent of the treasury department at this place, leaves to-day for Washington, where he is to enter upon other important duties, in a different sphere. This removal closes up the treasury department here. Most of its business has been transferred by branches over to the bureau of freedmen, and the remainder very properly to the collector of customs.

RELIGIOUS CEREMONY.—Rev. Wm. M. Young officiated in the immersion of a young gentleman named James C. Stevenson, in the river opposite South Water street yesterday noon. There was quite a large crowd in attendance, who were very quiet and apparently much interested in the interesting and impressive ceremonies.

NEGRO DROWNED.—Two negro boys were seen wrestling on the wharf, North Water street, on Saturday last, when by some manoeuvre they both fell over into the dock, one of them striking his head as he fell against the wharfing below, when he sunk and rose no more. The body had not been found yesterday. The other boy got out safe.

THE STEALING CASE.—The stealing case in which Mary Eliza Hansley and one Sambo was sent from the mayor's court before justice Conoley, was given a hearing Saturday last, the evidence of which was not found sufficient for committal and they were discharged.

NEW STEAMER.—The steamer Ariadne, one of the largest and best steamers ever in the trade between here and New York, sailed from that port on Wednesday last 20th inst., and will likely arrive here to-day.

BURIAL.—The remains of Lieut. Robeson, 6th regiment United States colored troops, under escort, was deposited in Oakdale Cemetery yesterday afternoon, until a more favorable time for its transportation north.

MUTINY IN A NEGRO REGIMENT.

An Officer and Soldier Killed.

One of the Mutineers Shot.

COMPLETE PARTICULARS OF THE WHOLE AFFAIR.

The city was startled somewhat on Saturday afternoon last by a report that had reached here of a mutiny in the camp of the 37th regiment of negro troops, stationed in the vicinity of Hilton, some two miles off, and above Wilmington and Weldon railroad. The facts are, of course, exaggerated, and there are many different stories told as truth, but the particulars which are here given are those furnished by Major Roberts, of General Crook's staff, who was dispatched to the camp by the general himself as soon as the statement of a disturbance reached his ears.

About 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon some one discharged a gun in the grounds of company "D," of this regiment, and this being a breach of discipline, Major Wienmann, commanding, went into the company personally to find who was the guilty one. After some endeavor to find the proper man without avail, he called the company into line and told them they were there to remain until they volunteered to tell who fired the gun. He then went off to his quarters, leaving them standing, but had been there but a short time before he was informed that the company had broken ranks and were very noisy, and disposed towards mutiny. He then ordered company "A" of the regiment to fall into line, and buckling on his side arms, he started with them with the intention of putting the whole company engaged under arrest.

Arriving on the front of the company street, he noticed one man who was in the act of capping his gun, and who had already his bayonet on it; he started to him for the purpose of arresting him, when the negro ran, attempting to shoot the Major as he did so, and threatening to do so at every step. The Major was following him, his pistol in hand, and also attempting to shoot, but from some cause the pistol would not fire, four attempts being made to discharge it without effect. About this time another riotous fellow was noticed, among several others, and some officer was after him, together with the officer of the day, Lieut. Mellen. Excitement then became high with the mutineers, and they fired several shots at the Major, pursuing the first riotous soldier, but fortunately missing him, and also firing indiscriminately at the party near Lieut. Mellen, the officer of the day, the first shot of this discharge entered the Lieutenant's body, causing his immediate death, and the second killed a member of the company brought down to suppress the mutiny. Seeing the result of their madness, the ringleaders then fled the camp, and it was again restored to its quietness. Large patrol parties were immediately dispatched after them, but none were overtaken. They remained until after nightfall when they returned, and were taken into custody and were yesterday lodged in the military jail in this city. They were six in number. No other disturbance has since occurred at the camp, and the duties are performed in the usual manner, the major having no fears of an outbreak of any kind.

Yesterday in bringing the prisoners into the city for confinement, one of them became rather insolent in manner and disorderly, when the officer in charge of the guard drew a pistol and put it near him and fired, the ball scarcely entering the flesh and lodging on the ribs. The pistol was quite small and of very little mould. Nothing further was heard from any of them on the route to jail.

Mellen, the officer killed, is a native of Exeter, New Hampshire, but for some time lived in Massachusetts. He was said to have been a very fine officer and an intelligent young gentleman. He had served in the war since its origin, and at one time was connected with the 1st Massachusetts infantry.

Various causes are assigned for the disturbance spoken of above, none of which are correct. There was said to be no desire previously shown to justify the assumption of premeditated mutiny. They have always been spoken of by knowing persons, as one of the best disciplined negro regiments in the service, and the action of these few crazy ones are very much regretted by the officers particularly.

FROM LOUISIANA.

Appointment of a Provisional Governor.

CAIRO, September 20.—It is expected that Memphis will soon be abolished as a military post.

The New Orleans Delta learns that President Johnson has appointed J. Madison Wells the Provisional Governor of Louisiana, and given him the same authority as is vested in Governor Sharkey. The Delta thinks that members of the State Convention can be elected in thirty days, and that the State election for members of the Legislature, State officers, and for Congress can take place before November, and hopes that new Senators can be sent to Washington in time for the meeting of Congress.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Jeff Davis' Quarters not Changed.

ARRESTS, ARRIVALS, &c.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 19.
CORRECTIONS.—G. T. Garrison, of Accomac county, has not been taken to Washington, as reported. He is at that place, on parole.
Jeff Davis has not been removed to Carroll Hall, but occupies his casemate, as heretofore. It was not the old frigate Cumberland, but the Congress, that was raised. No safe has yet been found.

The wrecking steamer Alpha, from Baltimore, passed here, bound to Wilmington, North Carolina, to raise the sunken blockade runners.
General George S. Dodge arrived from Washington on an inspecting tour through this department. The object is to cut down all unnecessary expenses to government (if any) in the quartermaster's and other departments.

After completing his work here he goes to North Carolina on the same mission.

A man by the name of Lane, from Mathews county, was arrested and brought here to-day. He is one of Stonewall Jackson's generals, and is charged with making secession speeches in his county recently.

One Smith, of the same county, has been arrested and taken to Richmond charged with knocking down one of the freedmen's bureau superintendents.

Steamers Wyoming and Relief were discharged from service yesterday.

Since the arrest of General Lane, it has appeared that he was not the man who made the speech referred to, and Dr. Garnett, of Mathews county, has been arrested, charged with the offence. The Doctor arrived here this afternoon.

A delegation of Odd Fellows from this place and Norfolk left this place for Baltimore to attend the celebration.

NEW YORK REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

(To the Associated Press.)
SYRACUSE, Tuesday, Sept. 19.

The union state convention, which is called to meet at Wieting Hall to-morrow, attracts here an unusually large crowd, in addition to the regular delegates and subordinates, who, of themselves number upward of 500. The hotels are full, and it is noticed that the delegations from almost every section are on hand earlier than usual.
