THE EVENING HERALD.

WILMINGTON, N. C. OCTOBER 4.

ALLER FREEDOM

We received numerous complaints last evening from merchants and others of their inability to procure copies of the evening edition of THE HER- &C., ALD. In reply to these complaints we have merely to state that it has not been our intention to circulate this edition in the city, and we have merely been able to supply a few copies to newsboys this week. Last evening the entire edition was exhausted almost simultaneously with the stoppage of the press. If it is the desire o the public to receive an evening edition, we will prepare at once to supply the demand. We will endeavor this evening to put a few hundred co pies in the hands of the newsboys, but will not undertake or promise to supply the full demand at present. We are obliged to print a very large edition for the mails that close at 3 o'clock, and therefore cannot supply the local public before half past three or four o'clock. Newsdealers

THE LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH. DIAN TREATY. One Million Acres of Land Ceded to the Government.

ST. Louis, Oct. 3.

Special despatches to the St. Louis Democrat

The treaty was concluded on Friday last. Under this treaty the Indians cede to the United States one million acres of land, for which believe, as I do most fervently hope and pray, that not one word of reproach or bitterness will the object was perfectly apparent. These fellows be heard, not one look of coldness appear, to mar the dignity and loveliness of that touching scene. In that much-longed-for welcome hour, we shall need no declaration of principles, no formal vindication of the peaceful character of the christian ministry. Divine Providence has spoken! Any words that we can use in reference to the past, whether persons or things, will be a mere impertinence, adding nothing to the lessons that come to us from above, and only tending to change celestial harmonies into the mise rable discordant sounds of earth-born passion. The important acts of the southern diocese, done while they were in a state of separation from us, and which therefore require the sanction of the general convention, will unquestionably be recognized and confirmed at once. They are only three in number. The election of Bishop Wilmer by the diocese of Alabama, the erection of Arkansas into a regularly organized diocese, and the election of the missionary bishop of the South West, Dr. Lay, to the episcopote of Arkansas. These acts were eminently proper under the circumstances. AID FOR THE SOUTHERN CHURCHES.

Wait not to be entreated; but try to find out where good can be done, and then, with all tenderness and respect, beg to be allowed to do it. There are no nobler men in the House of Bishops-I speak as if the last four years were an absolute blank, and made no part of our history, and I speak without fear of being misunderstood, for my sentiments on national unity and authority have been very well known-I say, there are no nobler men in the House of Bishops than several to whom I now refer, and whatever may be their feelings of delicacy, or of allowable pride, they will not desire to see ruins perpetuated, or only tardily or imperfectly repaired, which might be more speedily nad more effectually restored with the aid of friendly hearts and hands. Again, then, I say, let us be prompt to avail ourselves of every opening to be good. Let us search out channels through which, not in a proud. patronizing spirit, but with a modest, loving, Christian sympathy, we may pour out the offerings which will help, not only to rebuild the waste places in material things, but also to repair and renew An Important Treaty with the Indians. whatsoever may have been decayed in the hearts of your brethren.

THE PROVINCIAL SYSTEM. The Bishop next referred to the proposed provincial system. He said the system might have treaty has been concluded with the Osage In- important features. If it should follow ancient of dioceses, it might help to preserve unity and assist in the solution of some such problems as they should have to consider in this Diocese.

He alluded to the necessity of clergymen into religion of things which had no business The rights of settlers are protected by this there. Do not, he said, agitate for the mere propagation of your principles; do not form associations for any local or partial object; do not seek to spread an influence over the young men which will convert them into mere partisans, and cause them to hold the truth, if they do hold it, in a narrow and controversial spirit.

EVENING SESSION. The convention met at 7 o'clock.

Several reports were presented and some routine business transacted.

REPORT ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMIN-ARY

The Rev. Dr. Tuttle read the report of the committee on the theological seminary. It appears that the diocese is entitled at this time to a representation of 76 trustees. 38 clerical, and the same number of laymen. The moneys contributed during the year amounted to $214,795.

THE REPORT ON THE DIOCESE FUND was read, and on motion the churches were callof the expenses of the convention.

THE PAROCHIAL FUND REPORT. The trustees of the fund reported that they have received during the last year the sum of $2.602 45, which, with the balance of last year $417 33, makes a total of $3,019 78. The balance now in the hands of the treasurer is $184 18, and $3,000 are invested in government secu-

The report, which is quite voluminous, states that about 50 reverend clergymen in this diocese receive each a salary from their congregation of less than $500. Some of them range from $450. $400, $300, $250, $200, $175, $150, $130, $125, down to 0, which represents the amount paid for his services to an assistant minister in this city, who receives no salary, but supports himself by secular employments.

A New Religious Movement.

A singular religious movement was begun in England a few weeks ago. It is proposed to unite the members of the English, Roman Catholic, and Greek churches in friendly communion, and the dence. public journals report that three hundred churches in England have assented to the measure. From a statement made by Rev. F. G. Hall, formerly of ing indications of the character of the move-
