Something New .- A new manner of holding religious services was inaugurated by a colored preacher yesterday at the market house. He led off at first to a small crowd, but by a persistent attempt at an old hymn he gathered unto his fold quite a number of motly and rugged &c., hearers. He was quite fluent when speaking of Daniel in the den of lions, and the idea suggested itself that if the lion's on that famous occasion were half so hungry as the greater part of for Columbia and Augusta. In going to Columbia passengers stage from Hopkins' Turnout. on South Carolina Railroad to Columbia, a distance this was the same Daniel so aptly illustrated in the wax figure show, and who was so easily distinguished from the lions by the blue cotton umbrella which he carried under his arm. "Gentlemen :- I am profoundly grateful for the honor conferred on me by the house of representatives by their resolutions inviting me to a seat still a prisoner of state and on parole, I feel that it would be improper for me to deliver a public address on the condition of the country, although I am sure that such suggestions as I might make would be in aid and support of the wise and con-servative policy which has been adopted by our people, and which I hope will soon result in the full restoration of our beloved state to the enjoyment of equal political rights with her sister states in the union, and under the flag of the union. With all of you I marched under that flag in a foreign land, and it was victorious. With all of you I marched against it, and it was victorious. It again waves over us, is our flag, and may it ever

A correspondent of the Boston Post speaks of the sugar prospects in Louisiana says!

The cane has continued to improve rapidly under the rains and favorable temperature of the fall. The present growing crop is truly splendid, and though cotton promised best early in the season, the sugar planters are now regretting that they did not attend better to their own proper culture. In the meantime, the planters are vigorously preparing for the grinding, which usually begins with us in the early days of November, but, for the reason above given, and others, it will not begin this year until later.

Flax culture in Canada, according to a state ment from the government emigration agent at Toronto, is a new branch of industry that promi-ises largely. He remarks: "It may now be safely said the flax project is a perfect success, although the number of acres The Democrat this morning announces the first | did not reach the amount expected this year, case of cholera in this city, John Barnidge, a the number of tons will far exceed that of any well known citizen, about fifty years old, having former year, and will be followed up with a great
