THE HERALD has the largest circulation of any newspaper in Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, N. C., DECEMBER 2.

THE LEGISLATURE.

In the house, on Wednesday, the case of Mr. McAden, of Alamance, who had not been pardoned by the president, was disposed of by allowing him to assume his seat.

Rev. W. E. Pell, of the Sentinel, was elected public printer, over Jos. W. Holden, Esq., of the Standard, his competitor.

The constitutional amendment forever abolishing slavery in the state was taken up, and with but very little discussion, passed by an almost unanimous vote.

Messrs. E. B. Freeman, of Wake, and M. J. McSweeney, of Richmond, were elected engrossing clerks.

A joint committee appointed to wait on his excellency the provisional governor, reported that he would communicate with the two houses on Thursday.

JOINED TO HIS IDOLS.

The legislature of this state has seen fit, in its wisdom to elect William E. Pell, editor of the Raleigh Sentinel, otherwise Reverend William E. Pell, public printer.

Mr. Pell is a man who was once solemnly ordained to the holy work of the ministry. He has seen fit to abandon that work to which his life was thus solemnly dedicated.

only government in the south... country to-day is that of the United States.

Experience is a great schoolmaster; but unfortunately some of its teachings come too late. We very much fear the teachings our people are destined to derive from the experience of their present political course will come to their comprehension so late as to be valueless to them.

THE WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER RAILROAD ELECTION.

The Wilmington and Manchester railroad company, in their recent meeting in this town, adopted a most excellent measure when they resolved that their officers should in future give all their time to the business of the road.

By a dispatch received last night from Raleigh we learn that all restrictions on telegraphing have been removed, by order of Hon. T. T. Eckert, assistant secretary of war.

AN IMPORTANT MOVEMENT.—The Virginia and North Carolina Land Emigration and Colonization society has been organized at Norfolk, with the following officers:

President—Wm. Mahone. Directors—Geo. Blow, Jr., Gilbert C. Walker, Eader Biggs, Samuel M. Wilson, James E. Barry, E. G. Lindsay, G. W. Camp, W. W. Winge, E. C. Robinson, George Sangster, G. W. Grace, Marshall Parks, Henry Kimberly, Samuel B. Borum, J. W. Hinton, and James Y. Leigh.

Mr. Blow suggested for consideration the calling of a convention of merchants, farmers, and others in the two states of Virginia and North Carolina, to assemble in Norfolk, for the purpose of deliberating upon the important objects of the organization.

Mr. J. W. FORNEY, editor of the Philadelphia Press, and author of the letters to that paper under the signature of "Occasional," should keep himself better posted on the politics of the country, which he can readily do by a more frequent reference to his exchanges.

THE WILMINGTON HERALD supported and assisted the election of Mr. Worth in this state, he betrays an unpardonable ignorance of facts.

SLEEPY HOLLOW PLANTATION. CIRCUMSTANCES over which I have no control, forces the necessity of offering this desirable plantation and residence FOR SALE. It contains over 700 acres of Land, situated at the head of the Great Hollow of the Cape Fear river in Bladen county, near County's Bluff, public landing on the public road, 62 miles from Wilmington, 14 miles above Elizabeth, 24 miles below Fayetteville, 1/2 mile from Prospect Hill P. O., 3 miles from Mayesville, 14 miles from Lumberton, and about 10 miles by direct road from the Will, Char. & R. R. Road, in one of the most agreeable neighborhoods in the State. The improvements consist of a large and pleasant modern built and well finished dwelling, containing 8 large rooms and passage, a double piazza, front and rear office, pantry, dairy and spring house, kitchen, store house, wash house, ironing room, poultry, horse, shoe, and and-ank-smoke house, overers house, blacksmith shop, tool house, carpenter's shop, carriage house, 20000 lbs. cart sheds, barn, crib, stable, pig-pens, horse, large fodder house, lound and spinning house, and 18 laborers' lodges, all of recent construction, frame and brick chimneys, everything complete, with most excellent spring and well of water. The dwelling is surrounded by a beautiful acre grove of oaks, hickory and elm trees, a well improved garden, 30 acres devoted to apple and peach orchards and grape vines in the bearing condition, and 20 acres devoted to alfalfa trees, containing 8 varieties, which are full bearing from May until August, and is invaluable for hog and poultry raising; fire wood and timber are abundant and convenient. The lands are as good as any in the country, the river bottoms rich, the uplands fair, and both susceptible of high improvement. Of the crops, corn, cow peas, potatoes, cotton, wheat, oats and rye are the principal—all of which do well. With a trifling expense a head of water thirty forty feet could be had for milling or manufacturing purposes—the stream never fails. The health of the place is unsurpassed. In a residence of three years, with a family (white and black) ranging from sixty to eighty, no death has occurred, nor has a physician been called to any case, attributable to the health of the place, or has any acute or fever of any kind, or other disease occurred. And last, but not least, no sign or sound of malaria or any description has ever been known upon the place. To a person desiring long life and a pleasant one, this place offers rare attractions. Plantation furniture, stock and provisions will be sold with the place if desired, upon the premises, or to O. G. Parsley & Co., at Wilmington. Application may be made to me, Henry Nutt, Sept. 30.
