THE SOUTHERN FREEDMAN. THE UNDERSIGNED proposes to publish, in the town of Wilmington, a weekly newspaper, to be called "The Southern Freedman."

From the circumstances in which the close of the rebellion placed the blacks it is not expected that they will be able to present to the world a weekly newspaper.

The undersigned, being himself originally from the north, and holding his ecclesiastical position with the old school Presbyterian church in that section, he is well assured that he can accomplish much in behalf of the true elevation of the black race.

The Southern Freedman will be a religious as well as a secular paper, and will therefore espouse the religious as well as the secular rights of the race, regardless of denominational lines.

The undersigned, being himself originally from the north, and holding his ecclesiastical position with the old school Presbyterian church in that section, he is well assured that he can accomplish much in behalf of the true elevation of the black race.

Will give strict personal attention to sale or shipment of Cotton, Naval Stores and general Produce.
