In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug see in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the Medical Faculty-I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrume, but through the advice of friends, and those who had used them, this objection was overcome, After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout Foreign countries and this in the face of much opposition. ers since their merit and success have been knownsuch as advertising larger bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements-but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been suc-
