

NEWS OF THE CITY CHURCHES.

Notes of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The annual Epiphany service or "Feast of Lights," was held in the Church of the Good Shepherd Thursday night. The rector conducted the service and the address was delivered by Archdeacon Thomas P. Noe. Immediately after the address the rector lighted a candle from the lights on the altar and lighted the candles of the Wise Men, who, in turn, lighted the candles of the members of the congregation, each of whom had been provided with a candle. With their candles lighted the members of the congregation marched out of the Church singing the recessional hymn. This beautiful service was started three years ago and has proven to be interesting and helpful.

The Boy Scouts of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. The meetings begin promptly at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The special meeting for men will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. You are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The Girls' Friendly Society gave the small children a Christmas Tree in the Good Shepherd Hall last Friday night. A large number of children were present and enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. Emily Everett Dead.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Emily Burr Everett, which occurred in Germantown, near Philadelphia, Pa., after a short illness, was received Monday. Mrs. Everett, who was about 65 years old, was the widow of the late Edward Everett, of this city, who was for many years a popular conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line. She lived in Wilmington until about six years ago, when she went to Germantown to reside with her daughter, Mrs. M. W. Goddard.

She was a daughter of the late Col. J. G. and Mary Anna Burr, an old and prominent family of the lower Cape Fear.

Those surviving her have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The remains were brought to this city and the funeral was from the Church of the Good Shepherd on Wednesday, Rev. W. R. Noe conducting the services.

The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

Mrs. W. H. Hines Dead.

Mrs. W. H. Hines passed away at her home, No. 706 Nixon street, Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, after a short illness. She was 43 years old, and was a consistent member of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The funeral services were conducted from that church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. R. Noe. Interment was in Bellevue cemetery.
