THE WORK OF SCIENCE

A cellulose band is manufactured especially to protect the government tax stamp on bottles of distilled spirits.

"Aged in the wood" will become a useless phrase if a new process of aging whisky in one day is all its inventors claim for it.

Vitamin B is being given to certain patients at the Elgin (Ill.) hospital for insane. Doctors think dementia praecox may be caused by malnutrition.

A Russian scientist has controlled the sex of rabbits 180 times in 200 births. He separates the male and the female cells in the male sperm by electricity.

Discovery of a common basic substance in blood and chlorophyll supports the contention by some scientists that animals and plants sprung from the same ancestor.

Discovery by the bureau of mines of a new method for the purification of potash promises cheaper fertilizer for American farmers and the elimination of potash imports.

A keyboard has been devised to replace the dial of the automatic telephone and speed up operations on large switchboards. The signals are transmitted instantly, eliminating the ten or twelve seconds required to dial a number.

FOR MEDITATION

Part of good breeding is learning to hold one's temper.

It is said that truth is often eclipsed but never extinguished.—Livy.

Tell a man he's smart and he's bound to have faith in your judgment.

Ignorance of future ills is a more useful thing than knowledge.—Cicero.

The honest man never has to waste much time talking about his honesty.

If one does not possess what one loves, one should love what one has.—Marmontel.

A good man is one whose conduct is governed by conscience rather than by his discretion.

Children will not introduce discourtesy into the home if the parents do not open the door.

One complains about drudgery; but what would one have to do if drudgery didn't keep him busy?

The man you admire has weak points, but he has the good judgment to keep them concealed.

"Human progress is made not by compulsion, but by the development of higher standards of conduct and nobler emotions among the people."—Elihu Root.

TAKEN FROM HISTORY

The British museum has a Chaldean tablet recording a solar eclipse of 1062 B. C.

The oldest known naval battle is recorded in vivid pictures on the wall of an Egyptian temple.

Gunpowder, long known in China, made its first appearance in Europe in the fourteenth century.

When Alaric set the ransom of Rome, in the year 409, he demanded as one item 3,000 pounds of pepper.

Archives tracing the history of the Italian race in America are to be collected at the Casa Italiana of Columbia university.

Silver was once valued above gold. The gullotine which lopped off the head of Louis XVI of France was sold at auction in Paris for $167.

When taxpayers buy foreign-made products they prolong paying taxes for relief in America.

"That's All"

The non-union man is a person who reaps where he has not sown. He comes at the eleventh hour and receives his penny. He is willing to profit by the aggressive efforts of others to whom he has given no support. Worse than that, he stands ready to stab in the back the very people who have made it possible for him to command a competence.—Heywood Brown.

The Siamese Twins of Trade Union economics are Shorter Hours and Better Wages. If you buy Union Label goods, they can't be separated.
